Several persons being present with informal commissions, it was, on motion,

Resolved, That a Committee on Elections be appointed, to which all cases of irregular commissions are to be referred.

Messrs. Jephtha Harrison, William M. Scott, and John Fine, were appointed this Committee.

The Stated Clerk announced that he had received information of the organization of the following new Presbyteries: The Presbyteries of Council Bluffs and Sioux City, by the Synod of Iowa; Lafayette, by the Synod of Missouri; Saltsburg, by the Synod of Pittsburgh; and North Mississippi, by the Synod of Memphis, and Benicia by the Presbytery of the Pacific. Also, that the Synod of Chicago had been organized, according to the order of the last General Assembly.

The Commissioners from these new Presbyteries were admitted to seats.

The Assembly then took a recess till three o'clock, P. M.

After the recess, the Committee on Elections reported, recommending that S. S. Laws, minister, from the Presbytery of Missouri; Luke Dorland, minister, from the Presbytery of Maumee; S. Boyd, minister, and Samuel Kerr, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of St. Clairsville; and F. R. Moreton, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of New Albany, present, with informal commissions, be admitted to seats in this Assembly. Also, that Erastus W. Drury, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Winnebago, present without a commission, be admitted to a seat.

The Assembly then proceeded to the election of officers.

The Rev. Cortlandt Van Rensselaer, D. D., was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. James Sloan, D. D., Temporary Clerk.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the regular time for meeting be nine o'clock, A. M., and half-past three, P. M.; and the time for adjournment be one o'clock, and half-past five, P. M.

On motion, it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow morning, at ten o'clock, to receive the Annual Reports from the Boards of Foreign Missions, Domestic Missions, Education, and Publication, and the Committee on Church Extension, for reference to the respective Committees.

It was also,

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for Saturday next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to receive the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, together with the Annual Report of the Secretary.

The same for the Board of Foreign Missions, on Monday of next week; for the Board of Education, on Tuesday; for the Board of Publication on Wednesday; and for the Committee on Church Extension, on Thursday of next week.

It was ordered that it be the second order of the day for to-morrow morning, to receive the Annual Reports from the Theological Seminaries.

The Assembly then adjourned, till to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer.

FRIDAY Morning, May 22.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The Minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

The following additional Commissioners appeared.

William M. Galbreath, minister, and George Layman, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Sidney; Donald J. Hull, minister, Calvin A. Curry, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Florida; W. H. Drennan, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Central Mississippi; Joseph Boone, minister, from the Presbytery of Central Texas; G. R. The first order of the day was taken up, and the Annual Reports from the various Boards and that from the Committee on Church Extension, were presented and put into the hands of the proper committees.

On motion of Mr. Fine, the Assembly then proceeded to appoint the place of meeting for the next General Assembly; and required that a majority of all the votes cast be necessary to a choice in this case, and in all other elections by this body. Three votes were given for Cincinnati; thirteen for Rochester, New York; one hundred and twelve for Philadelphia; and one hundred and thirty-seven for New Orleans. It was accordingly ordered, that the next General Assembly be called to meet in the city of New Orleans, and in the First Presbyterian Church of that city.

It was moved by Dr. Dumont that the day for meeting be the first, instead of the third Thursday of May. After some discussion this motion was laid on the table, on motion of Dr. Breckinridge.

The second order of the day was then taken up, to call for reports from Theological Seminaries. Reports were accordingly presented and read from the Directors and the Trustees of the Seminary at Princeton; from the Directors and the Trustees of the Seminary at Allegheny; from the Directors and the Trustees of the Seminary at Danville; and from the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary in Virginia. These reports were all referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries

On motion of Dr. Breckinridge, so much of the Report of the Board of Education as relates to the legacy of Judge Broadnax to the Seminary at Danville was referred to the same Committee.

Dr. Anderson, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, made a report in part; which was approved.

On motion of Dr. Breckinridge, the Assembly resolved to adjourn, when it would adjourn, till to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

It was ordered, that it be the first order of the day for to-morrow morning, to call for Narratives on the State of Religion, Statistical Reports, and Synodical Records.

On motion of Dr. Hoge, it was Resolved, That half an hour be employed, every morning, at 9 o'clock, in devotional exercises.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer.

SATURDAY Morning, May 23.

The Assembly met and was opened with exercises of devotion, in reading the Scriptures, singing, and prayer, for half an hour. The minutes of the previous session were then read and approved.

The following additional Commissioners appeared and were enrolled: D. Ardis, ruling elder from the Presbytery of Cherokee; William Dahuff, ruling elder from the Presbytery of Vincennes; James O. Putnam, ruling elder from the Presbytery of Buffalo City; John Rowe, minister from the Presbytery of Hocking; Thomas Hope, ruling elder from the Presbytery of Baltimore; E. P. Palmer, minister from the Presbytery of Harmony; A. G. Hall, D. D., minister from the Presbytery of Rochester City.

The Rev. Dr. Gustavus Abeel, Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, appeared with his certificate of appointment.

The first order of the day was then called up, and Narratives, Statistical Reports, and Synodical Records, were presented and referred in due order.

A communication was read from the Rev. Edwin Cater, of the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to open a correspondence with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South; and was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

The Rev. F. Butler, from the General Convention of Vermont, was heard in salutations of fraternal regard; to which the Moderator responded.

The second order of the day was then taken up—the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, and the report of the Standing Committee thereon. Dr. C. C. Jones presented the report of the Committee, with extended remarks; and Dr. Musgrave, Secretary of the Board, was also heard; and a discussion followed, respecting the failure of many churches to contribute to this Board, and the necessity of supporting the cause of missions at home, through the instrumentality of the Board, in which Messrs. R. J. Breckinridge, Adger, Yantis, Hammersly, and McKennan, participated.

On motion of Mr. Fine the report was re-committed.

Dr. Anderson presented a report from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, which was approved.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the remaining sessions of the Assembly be held in the Second Presbyterian Church, on account of its greater capacity for the accommodation of the Assembly and the spectators.

A letter was read from the Rev. Dr. McGill, Delegate of the last General Assembly to the General Association of Massachusetts, and accepted.

Mr. Vermilye, from the Committee on Finance, presented a report, which was put on the docket.

Dr. Breckinridge, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, presented No. 1 and No. 2, with reports, which were both put on the docket. Also,

No. 3, an Overture from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, respecting the diversity of usage prevailing as to the manner of making a public profession by such as have been baptized in non-age. The committee recommended that no action be taken on the subject, and their report was adopted.

Dr. Swift, from the Judicial Committee, reported No. 2, a complaint of Samuel Lowry against the Synod of Cincinnati, in regard to the manner of admitting baptized persons to communion, by public profession, as it is practiced in the Seventh Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati. This complaint the committee judged to be irregular, and recommended that it be dismissed. The report was adopted.

Dr. C. C. Jones, from the Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, reported again; and the report, on motion of Dr. Breckinridge, was adopted unanimously. The resolutions are as follows:

1. Resolved, The Assembly would humbly and gratefully render thanks to Almighty God and our Saviour, for the large measure of health granted to our missionaries during the past year, and for the degree of success with which he has been pleased to crown their labours.

2. Resolved, While it is encouraging to find that the number of contributing churches to the Board is increasing slowly from year to year, yet the Assembly mourn over the fact that the number of non-contributing churches continues so large.

3. Resolved, The Assembly recommends to Presbyteries to adopt such measures as they may deem necessary to bring every minister and church session to the faithful performance of this duty in such manner as they may deem best.

4. Resolved, That the Assembly recommend to the Board great prudence in the application of the funds of the Church, and request the Presbyteries to do all in their power to relieve the Board as fast and as far as possible of appropriations to feeble churches and missionary fields.

5. Resolved, That the Assembly approves the action of the Board in effecting a change in legal form of the title of the Board from that of "The Board of Missions" to that of "The Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States," &c.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet in the Second Presbyterian Church on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer.

MONDAY Morning, May 25.

The Assembly met and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Moderator announced the appointment of D. J. Townsend, from the Presbytery of Charleston, as an additional member of the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Dr. Dumont from the Committee to Nominate Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, submitted a report, which, on motion was put on the docket.

A report was read from the Rev. Dr. Krebs, Delegate of the last General Assembly to the General Association of New Hampshire. Also, a communication from Charles C. Beaman, scribe to the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, containing a preamble and resolution adopted by that body. These papers were referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

On motion of Dr. McGill, the Rev. C. C. Jones, D. D. was appointed to preach the annual sermon on Domestic Missions before the next General Assembly; and the Rev. J. L. Kirkpatrick, D. D. his alternate.

Daniel L. Gray, minister from the Presbytery of Arkansas, and V. C. Ostrom, minister from the Presbytery of New Orleans, appeared, and were enrolled as additional Commissioners.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, and the Rev. Dr. Wilson, one of the Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions, made an address; after which, the Rev. Dr. Adger, from the Standing Committee on this Board, presented the report of that Committee on the Annual Report of the Board, with extended remarks.

On the motion to adopt this report, addresses were made by Messrs. Kingsbury, Young, Venable, Hoge, Henry V. Rankin, Bannard, and Castleton.

Mr. Giffin moved to amend the report by substituting the word "Sabbath" for "Sunday," and the motion was carried.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, Dr. Breckinridge, by common consent, presented Overtures 5, 6, and 7, which were put on the docket.

The Assembly then adjournd to meet this afternoon at half-past 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Dr. C. C. Jones.

MONDAY Afternoon.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer, by Dr. Condit.

The unfinished business was resumed, the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, Dr. Thornwell having the floor.

After an amendment offered by Dr. Thornwell, and advocated by Dr. C. C. Jones, relating to the present indebtedness of the Board, the whole report was adopted, and is as follows:

Our Church, which numbers 2,320 ministers, and 233,755 members, now has, as her representatives, in all the heathen world, only about 70 preachers of the everlasting gospel. Our contributions for the support and propagation of Christianity among the Heathen, amount during the past year to only about $207,000, less about $41,000, received from the United States Government for the American Indians, that is to only about $131,000. Our Board report a balance against their Treasury of $11,000. They also report a wide and effectual door opened for us in India, China, Siam, Africa, and our own Indian tribes. They report a pressing necessity for more money to support the work, as it now stands, and more men and money to extend the work, as a good Providence is opening the way for it to be extended. And this Assembly is asked to adopt such measures as will place this great matter on a proper footing before our churches, not only relieving the Board from its present debt, but enabling it to enlarge its operations.

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly would respond to this call by reiterating to and before all our churches, the testimony of the Assembly at Buffalo, and the Assembly at Nashville, that liberality in giving for the support and propagation of the gospel, is a grace of the Spirit; that it is a fruit and an evidence and a means of grace; also, by reiterating the testimony of those Assemblies, that offering of money for the service of the Lord, are acts of worship which ought to be systematically and solemnly performed in all our churches, and by every Christian.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly would also declare, speaking to itself in the Ministers and Ruling Elders here present, and through them to each and every Minister and Ruling Elder in all our bounds; that not only is it our individual duty to exercise this liberality, and to make these offerings, but moreover that it is the official duty of every one of us to set forth this testimony in our several churches, until they all practically receive the same.

Resolved, 3. That applying these general principles to the particular matter of Foreign Missions, this Assembly would recommend the following, amongst other modes and ways of training our people in the grace of giving.

(a) That our Sunday-schools be enlisted by pastors in the good work of contributing for Foreign Missions. The aggregation of many particles is always a mighty thing, and in this case the many small streams would by flowing together make a great river. But far more than this, the children of the Church would thus be receiving an education in benevolence and in beneficence.

(b) That our ministers preach systematically and frequently, on the subject of Foreign Missions; teaching the people that it is their duty to give more and more money to this cause, in order that the work may grow and spread, and in proportion as it does grow and spread, because the knowledge of the Lord must fill the earth, even as the waters fill the sea; that our ministers also teach that it is needful to increase greatly the number of missionaries in heathen lands, and that to this end, more of our young men must willingly offer themselves for this work; being thereto moved by the Holy Ghost, and therein honoured by the great Head of the Church; that our ministers also teach that it is the joyful privilege of pious parents filled with faith and the Holy Ghost, to dedicate their children to this most glorious, exalted, and happy service. Moreover, on the first Sunday evening of every month, or on other occasions, and from time to time; let the people hear from their minister a detailed account of our various Foreign Missions in succession, with a description of the religious condition of the people and the beginning and progress of the Church's work amongst them.

(c) That to this end our ministers take pains themselves carefully to read the Home and Foreign Record, and the Foreign Missionary, so as to know what is being done by our missionaries; and that they also further the circulation, and encourage the reading of these publications in their congregations.

Resolved, 4. With respect to the debt of $11,000, which has been reported, this Assembly is perfectly well aware of the difficulty and embarrassment into which debt must always bring the Board. The credit of the Board, and the progress, nay the very existence of the missions, we know require that the Church from year to year should furnish all the means, which the exigencies of our great foreign enterprise demand. The Church has manifestly not furnished this year all that some peculiar circumstances, and still more, the general and healthy growth of our missions, made needful. But this Assembly in humble yet cheerful confidence in our great Head, and in his people, would solemnly bid the Board in his name go forward, and enter every door which he sets before them. The work of foreign propagation of the faith must not stop, nor be even checked. Yet on the other hand, the Assembly would call upon the churches, as they would deliver their agents, the Board, from the present difficulty, and from the certainty of yet greater embarrassment at the close of the current year, immediately and considerably to enlarge their gifts and offerings. Let those who have heretofore given, now, if possible, give twenty-five per cent. at least more than ever. Let those who have never given, now begin, for it is a blessed thing to give —a more blessed thing than to receive. Let every minister aim to increase the contributions from his church, so that they shall amount to at least one dollar a year on the average, for every church member. Let us bring all the tythes into the storehouse, and see if the Lord will not pour us out a blessing, so that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly earnestly recommend to the pastors and sessions of all the churches in its bounds, to have a special collection taken up in their respective congregations, as early as practicable, for the purpose of liquidating the debt which the Board of Foreign Missions has been compelled to incur in the conduct of its work during the past year; and that the amounts so collected be promptly transmitted to the Treasurer of the Board.

On motion of Dr. Hoge, the Assembly then adjourned till to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer, by Mr. Bright.

TUESDAY Morning, May 26.

The Assembly met and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The Minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

The Rev. Dr. Gustavus Abeel, from the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, was heard in fraternal salutations, to which the Moderator responded.

The order of the day for ten o'clock was then taken up—the Annual Report of the Board of Education.

Dr. Van Rensselaer (Dr. McGill being called to the chair) addressed the Assembly on this Report.

After which, the Rev. Dr. Leland, from the Standing Committee on this Board, submitted a Report, which was adopted unanimously.

The resolutions are as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly acknowledge with devout gratitude the manifest favour of the Head of the Church in the continued prosperity of the Assembly's measures of education; especially in the number of pious and promising young men who have devoted themselves to the ministry; in the increasing liberality of the churches in sustaining this important department of Christian benevolence; and in the increased number and efficiency of the literary institutions which are cordially engaged in promoting this sacred cause.

Resolved, 2. That the great work of ministerial education, involving such large expenditures, presents the most urgent claims upon the liberality of our churches.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly acknowledge with hearty gratitude the blessings so graciously bestowed by our Divine Redeemer, in answer to the united supplications of the friends of Zion, for the conversion of the young men in our colleges, and earnestly recommend to all our churches the special observance of the interesting concert of united, earnest prayer for the colleges in our land, on the last Thursday of February.

Hector McAlister, minister, from the Presbytery of Fayetteville, appeared, and was enrolled as an additional Commissioner.

On motion, it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow afternoon, to call for Reports on Synodical Records. Also, the order of the day for this afternoon, at four o'clock, to hear the Rev. Mr. Atkinson, in reference to the new metropolitan Presbyterian Church at Washington, D. C.

On motion of Dr. Phelps, the Rev. James W. Alexander, D. D., was reappointed to represent this body among the foreign evangelical denominations in any part of Europe, and at any time within the next ensuing ecclesiastical year.

On motion of Dr. McGill, the Rev. Robert Baird, D. D., was also included in this appointment.

Dr. Breckinridge, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported a paper from the Presbytery of Nassau, respecting the correspondence with the New England bodies; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

Also, Overture No. 8; which was put on the docket.

Also, Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of Concord, asking the Assembly to relinquish its claim to a legacy of five hundred dollars from Moses Alexander, deceased.

The Committee recommended that the Assembly relinquish any claim suppposed to be in the General Assembly, to the Poplar Tent Church in the Presbytery of Concord, North Carolina. Adopted.

Overture No. 10 was put on the docket.

Overture No. 11. A Complaint of the New-school Presbytery of Hudson, about the church at Washingtonville, N. Y.

The Committee recommended that a copy of the Complaint be sent to the Presbytery complained of, the Hudson Presbytery, with a view to their being heard at the next Assembly; and further, that this decision be communicated to the New-school Presbytery.

After much discussion, in which Messrs. Freeland, R. J. Breckinridge, Leland, Steel, Hoge, Edgar, Scott, E. B. Miller, and L. Merrill Miller, participated, the report was adopted.

On motion, the report of the Committee on Finance was then taken up from the docket, and adopted as follows, the Assembly adopting as its own minute the record of the Board of Trustees respecting the late Chancellor Johns, viz.

The Committee on Finance, to whom were referred the Treasurer's accounts, would respectfully report, that they have examined the book and statements presented by the Treasurer, and find the same correct. The tabular statement shows investments amounting to $142,750, of which $32,100 are of little or no value, or at least not available, leaving $110,650 of good available securities.

The Committee would recommend, that in future the stocks alluded to above be stated in the report at the value fixed by a former Committee, and not as at present, the cost or par value thereof.

The Committee report to the Assembly the accompanying paper from the Board of Trustees, relative to the decease of one of the Trustees, (the late Chancellor Johns of Delaware,) for such action as they may think proper.

Whereas, in the dispensation of Divine Providence, the late Chancellor Johns of Delaware, a member of this Board, has since our late meeting been removed by death, we desire here to record our estimate of his kind and amiable deportment, his long tried Christian character, excellent judgment, professional learning, and steady and unwearying attention to the business of this trust and the interests of the Church; and to express our sense of the loss thus sustained by this Board of one of its most valuable members.

Overture No. 1 was next taken up from the docket, from Charles D. Drake, a member of the Assembly:

1. Has a church session any original or direct control over the management and distribution of the fund collected and in the hands of the deacons for the benefit of the poor of the church?

2. Or does the management of this fund belong exclusively to the deacons?

3. If the session has any control over this fund, what is the nature and extent of that control?

The Committee recommended, that the first inquiry be answered in the negative; the second in the affirmative; and that the third be answered as follows: "they may advise respecting the use of funds."

Pending the consideration of this overture the Assembly adjourned to meet at half past 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Closed with prayer, by Dr. Swift.

TUESDAY Afternoon.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The unfinished business on Overture No. 1 was resumed, Mr. Hand having the floor. The discussion was continued till 4 o'clock, when the order of the day was called, to hear the Rev. J. M. P. Atkinson respecting the new Presbyterian church in the City of Washington. After statements made by him, the Rev. Dr. Gurley read a communication from the Presbytery of Baltimore, informing the Assembly of Mr. Atkinson's success in obtaining means to pay off the debt on the lot purchased for said church, and requesting the appointment of the Rev. Drs. J. C. Backus, and J. H. Bocock, and the Rev. B. T. Bittinger, and ruling elder J. P. Tustin, to the Committee on the Metropolitan Church of Washington. This request was granted.

The unfinished business on Overture No. 1, respecting deacons, &c. was resumed, and after further discussion, and a motion to recommit, the previous question was called, on motion of Mr. Fine, and the report of the Committee was adopted.

On motion of Dr. Moore, the thanks of the Assembly were voted to Dr. Humphrey for his sermon on Foreign Missions, preached last evening; and he was requested to furnish a copy for publication under the direction of the Board.

A paper, read by Mr. Bright, relative to the establishment of an Institution at Washington City, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Dr. Swift, from the Judicial Committee, presented a report on Case No. 1, which was put on the docket.

The Rev. N. M. Gordon addressed the Assembly on behalf of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, tendering the fraternal salutations of that body; to which the Moderator responded.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY Morning, May 27.

The Assembly met and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Mr. Russell, from the Committee on Mileage, presented a report, recommending that two cents and four mills be paid to the Commissioners entitled, for each mile reported as travelled in attending this General Assembly.

The report was approved and this recommendation was adopted.

On motion of Dr. Dumont the Report of the Committee on Nominating Delegates to Corresponding Bodies was taken up from the docket, in part.

The Rev. John Woodbridge was appointed delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, and the Rev. James H. Leps alternate.

The Rev. Edwin Cater was appointed principal and the Rev. Dr. George Howe alternate, to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South.

A letter was read from the Rev. A. G. Vermilye, delegate of the last General Assembly to the Reformed Dutch Church, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

On motion of Mr. Wallace the thanks of the Assembly were tendered to the Rev. William D. Howard, D. D., for his sermon, delivered last evening in the First Presbyterian Church on Domestic Missions; and that he be requested to furnish a copy of the same for publication, under the direction of the Board.

On motion, it was made the first order of the day for Friday morning next, to elect members to fill vacancies in the different Boards.

The order of the day for ten o'clock was then taken up—the Annual Report of the Board of Publication.

Mr. Schenck, the Secretary of the Board, addressed the Assembly on the subject.

After which the Rev. Dr. Brown presented the Report of the Standing Committee on this Board.

On the motion to adopt, Messrs. Castleton, Putnam, Huntington, and Moore, addressed the Assembly, and the motion was carried unanimously.

The resolutions are as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly, in view of the facts now presented in the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, hereby expresses its gratification at the progress made by the Board during the past year, in every department of its operations, and would cheer onward the Board in the highly important and responsible work entrusted to its hands.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly is particularly pleased that, in accordance with its resolution of last year, the Board has gone forward in the publication of so many works adapted to Sabbath-school libraries and juvenile reading, and hopes this branch of the work of the Board may continue to be judiciously prosecuted. And the Assembly would recommend to all its ministers and churches, in procuring their supplies of reading for Sabbath-schools, to give particular attention to the books issued by our Board for this purpose.

Resolved, 3. That while the Assembly is highly gratified at the increasing patronage extended from every part of the Church to the Home and Foreign Record, and the Sabbath-School Visitor, yet it regrets to learn that there is still a large proportion of its families and members who do not receive these periodicals. The Assembly would therefore earnestly recommend its ministers and sessions to use all practicable means to extend the circulation of these important papers in their respective vicinities.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly rejoices in the expanding extent and usefulness of its colportage enterprise, as conducted by the Board. It is peculiarly gratifying to learn that there has been so large an increase during the past year in the number of churches contributing to the Colportage Fund, in the aggregate amount of church contributions furnished without the employment of any collecting agency; and the Assembly hereby reiterates its earnest recommendation to all the churches to contribute regularly in aid of this highly important part of the Church's benevolent schemes.

Resolved, 5. That in view of the greatly increased cost of living, and consequently advanced prices of labour in everything, it is hereby recommended to the Board to make such advance in the remuneration offered to colporteurs, as in its judgment the circumstances may demand and the resources of the Board may justify.

Your Committee would further report, that they have had the subject of German literature brought before them, and they find that there are but few works published by the Board in the German language; and of these, only one is a book, (viz. Dr. Alexander's Christian Experience)—five others are five and ten cent tracts, and the remaining two are only one cent tracts.

This paucity of evangelical works in German is deeply to be deplored, in view of the following facts:

1. That vast numbers of German Lutherans, and other denominations into which the German people have been divided, are coming among us every year, and are very accessible to Christian effort.

2. That they have but little, and some of them, in fact, no evangelical literature.

3. Other parties are prevailing to a fearful extent among them, in many places, to insinuate into their minds deep and bitter prejudices against our Church, by distorting, and sometimes misrepresenting, our polity and doctrines. For all this we can apply no antidote but the living missionary or colporteur, and a vigorous press. But when the missionary or colporteur goes among them, he has no supply of books, and much of the personal labour is lost, for lack of these permanent forms of truth—the printed sheet.

The Committee would therefore recommend the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Board of Publication be instructed to take into their earnest consideration this whole question of supplying suitable books in the German language, and to publish from time to time such notice of any new issues thereof, as will enable those interested to supply themselves.

Resolved, 2. That the Board of Publication be and hereby is instructed to take into their earnest consideration this whole subject of supplying a vigorous evangelical literature in the German language, fitted for the objects contemplated by the Board.

Your Committee would further suggest, that the Board of Publication be encouraged to donate small libraries to such Sabbath-schools as may be organized in missionary fields where there is a manifest inability to purchase, and the pecuniary condition of the Board will authorize such benefactions.

The Committee would further report, that under the present Constitution the Board is authorized to elect only one Vice-President; that inasmuch as considerable inconvenience has been experienced from this want of power, your Committee would recommend the Assembly to authorize the Board hereafter, at the annual election, to elect three Vice-Presidents of the Board.

The Committee also recommend that the Rev. S. J. P. Anderson, D. D., be appointed to preach the sermon before the next General Assembly, in behalf of the Board of Publication, and that the Rev. T. V. Moore, D. D., be his alternate.

On motion of Dr. Hoge, and advocated by Dr. Swift, the following resolution was adopted: viz.

Whereas, The Board of Foreign Missions has reported an excess of expenditures above the receipts, of more than $11.000, and this Assembly has recommended an increase of twenty-five per cent. in the contributions of the churches on this account; therefore,

Resolved, That this Assembly will give an opportunity to its members, and other friends of the cause, of beginning this good work by their gifts, this afternoon at four o'clock.

On motion of Dr. Thornwell, Overture No. 5 was taken up from the docket; on the subject of alterations alleged to have been made by the American Bible Society in publishing the authorized English version of the Holy Scriptures.

On the motion to adopt the propositions of this Overture, Dr. Breckinridge spoke till the regular time for adjournment; when the Assembly adjourned, to meet this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock. Closed with prayer, by Dr. Thornwell.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer, by Mr. Todd.

The unfinished business on Overture No. 5 was resumed, Dr. Breckinridge having the floor. When he concluded, it was ordered that this subject be made the second order of the day for to-morrow morning.

The order of the day for four o'clock was then taken up; a collection to aid in discharging the debt of the Board of Foreign Missions; the amount of which was announced to be $1233.23.

The first order of the day for this afternoon was next taken up, the call for Reports on Synodical Records. Those of the Synods of Albany, Buffalo, New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Allegheny, Wheeling, Ohio, Indiana, Northern Indiana, Chicago, Iowa, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Memphis, Arkansas, and the Pacific, were approved, without exceptions.

Those of Cincinnati, Missouri, Kentucky, and Nashville, were recommended for approval with exceptions; and the Reports were put on the docket.

The Committee on the Records of Illinois, Georgia, and Northern India, reported that these Synods had not sent up their records for review, and they were discharged.

Mr. Park from the Committee on Leave of Absence reported that leave had been granted to Messrs. Sharswood, Hale, Drury, Falconer, Kinkead, Montfort, and Hanna. The report was approved.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Closed with prayer, by Dr. Waddel.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 28.

The Assembly met and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The Minutes of yesterday were read, amended, and approved.

On motion, the subject of "disabled ministers" was taken up, and the Rev. Joseph H. Jones, D.D., presented a report from a Committee of the Trustees of the General Assembly, which was accepted and approved.

The Hon. H. H. Leavitt, from the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly, on disabled ministers, and the widows and children of deceased ministers, in indigent circumstances, was introduced with his Report, which he read to the Assembly, and which was adopted unanimously.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, the Annual Report of the Committee on Church Extension. The Corresponding Secretary, Mr. Coe, addressed the Assembly, on the subject; after which the Rev. Mr. Greenleaf, from the Standing Committee on this Board, presented a Report, which was amended, on motion of Mr. Dorland and Dr. Thornwell; in the discussion of which amendment, Messrs. Dorland, Anderson, Aikin, Huntington, Gurley, Sanderson, Thornwell, E. B. Miller, and others, participated. Being so amended, the whole report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Church Extension Committee, have attended to that service, and carefully examined that Report, and all the other papers committed to their hands, and as the result of their investigations, they beg leave to offer the following resolutions for the adoption of the Assembly: viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Report of the Church Extension Committee be adopted, and published.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly are highly gratified by the great prosperity of this part of the Church's work, the receipts having risen during the past year from $9,751.31, to $23,265.61, the number of contributing churches having been trebled in the same time, and these results having been accomplished without any salaried collecting agents.

Resolved, 3. That it affords them pleasure to commend the prudent, enterprising, economical, and yet liberal manner in which the affairs of the Committee have been managed.

Resolved, 4. That churches applying for aid to the Church Extension Committee be required to make a full report of all the funds that they have raised in their own bounds from other sources.

Resolved, 5. That in view of the facts that at least one-fifth of our churches are without any house of worship, and that more than one-twelfth of the remainder need larger houses; that many churches are burdened with debt on their edifices; that our churches are increasing at the rate of about one hundred a year; and that the aid afforded by the Church Extension Committee has in many instances proved a powerful encouragement to the people to exert themselves, the Assembly would recommend the subject of Church Extension to the confidence, prayers, and continued and increased liberality of all our churches.

Resolved, 6. That this Assembly heartily approve of the views expressed by the Committee in their report, concerning the cost of church edifices, views which they have hitherto acted upon, and with the most encouraging results.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly rejoice in the evidence furnished by the Report of the Committee, that the churches they have been called upon to aid have not overpassed the limits of expenditure which a judicious regard to their circumstances would suggest, and they would most earnestly advise those churches which may hereafter build houses of worship, to avoid erecting edifices so large and costly as to involve them in heavy debts.

The second order of the day was then taken up, Overture No. 5, respecting the American Bible Society.

The Rev. Mr. McNeill, one of the Secretaries of the Society, was introduced, and heard till the hour of adjournment; when

The Assembly adjourned, to meet this afternoon at half-past 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Dr. Scott.

THURSDAY Afternoon.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer, by Mr. E. E. Rankin.

The unfinished business was resumed, Mr. McNeill, from the American Bible Society, having the floor, with consent of the Assembly.

After he concluded, a motion was made by Mr. Fine to refer the whole subject to a Select Committee, to report to the next General Assembly.

On this motion, Dr. Breckinridge spoke until the hour of adjournment. The Assembly consenting, he continued the discussion.

Dr. Adger obtained the floor; and the Assembly then adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Mr. Alexander Smith.

FRIDAY Morring, May 29.

The Assembly met and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Jones made a statement respecting the Presbyterian Annuity Corporation.

The order of the day was then taken up, and the nominations by the various Committees were confirmed, and are as follows, viz.

On motion of Dr. Scott, the thanks of the Assembly were voted to the Rev. Wm. S. Plumer, D. D. for his sermon on Ministerial Education, preached on Wednesday evening last, and he was requested to furnish a copy for publication under the direction of the Board of Education.

On motion of Mr. Schenck, the thanks of the Assembly were voted to the Rev. Jos. B. Stratton, D. D., for his sermon on behalf of the Board of Publication, preached last evening; and he was requested to furnish a copy for publication under the direction of the Board.

Dr. Scott from the Committee on the Narrative, presented his Report, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes; and, on motion of Mr. Smyth, it was recommended to every pastor to read it to his congregation.

Dr. Moore from the Committee on Theological Seminaries, presented the general report of the Committee. So much as related to the Western Theological Seminary was, on motion, put on the docket.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the churches be urged to complete the endowment of those Seminaries that are not yet fully endowed, to increase the number of scholarships, and to furnish funds for the repair and erection of suitable buildings, and the enlargement of the libraries.

Resolved, 2. That candidates should be required to put themselves under the care of Presbytery as soon as possible, and receive careful supervision during their entire course, and that whatever arrangements the Presbyteries may deem expedient to facilitate their training, these arrangements should not be such as will tend to shorten the full term of study, or induce an absence from their classes at either the opening or closing of the Seminary sessions.

Resolved, 3. That the following persons be appointed Directors of the Princeton Theological Seminary until May 1860, viz.

MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.
John N. Campbell, D. D.	John Fine,
George Potts, D. D.	Ebenezer Platt,
John McDowell, D. D.	Ira C. Whitehead.
Daniel V. McLean, D. D.
William Neill, D. D.
Hugh N. Wilson, D. D.
John Thompson, D. D.

Resolved, 4. That in the matter of the will and legacy of about $20,000 of the late Judge Henry P. Broadnax of Kentucky, the Assembly judge that the proper disposition of the funds bequeathed by him to the Trustees of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church, and by a codicil to his will, directed to be used at Danville, in Kentucky, in connection with the Theological Seminary there, is, that the said funds ought to go into the hands of the Board of Trustees of said Seminary, to be appropriated by them, under the discretion granted in the said will, according to the intentions of the generous testator, and that the Trustees of the Board of Education ought to perform any legal act to which they are competent, that may be necessary in effecting this disposition of the said funds. If the Board of Trustees of the Danville Theological Seminary, in the exercise of their legal discretion, think proper to endow a Professorship with said funds, in that case, the Professorship so endowed, shall be the second on the list, and shall be called the Broadnax Professorship of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

Resolved, 5. That considering the great liberality of Samuel Laird, Esq., of Kentucky, who has generously contributed to the funds belonging to the said Danville Theological Seminary the sum of $20,000, it is hereby directed that the first Professorship on the list shall be called the Laird Professorship of Exegetic, Didactic, and Polemic Theology.

Resolved, 6. That considering these two instances of munificent charity by two members of the Church under their care, which have been reported during our present sessions, as bestowed on an Institution which this body is endeavouring to erect to the glory of God, this Assembly express their hearty thanks to God, and their satisfaction in such great proofs of the approbation of good men. And while we rejoice to be almoners of God's poor, in gratefully accepting, and carefully using their humble contributions towards promoting every good work upon which the Lord calls us to embark, we call earnestly upon them whom he has specially blessed with this world's goods, to remember that their charity should bear an exact proportion to his beneficence. How immense might be the impulse given to every work of the Church if the conduct of Samuel Laird and Henry P. Broadnax were the rule and not the exception in the bestowment of charity by the followers of the Lord of glory.

Resolved, 7. That the following Directors of Danville Theological Seminary be appointed to serve until 1860, viz.

MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.
John T. Edgar, D. D.	William Richardson,
R. C. Grundy, D. D.	John Watson,
John C. Young, D. D.	James S. Hopkins,
Lewis W. Green, D. D.	J. D. Thorpe,
Benjamin M. Hobson,	O. Beatty,
James H. Brooks,	William Prather,
John Montgomery,	Glass Marshall,
A. V. C. Schenck,	James Barbour,
R. A. Lapsley, D. D.	John McKeage.

To serve until May, 1859.

Ezekiel Forman, in place of Rev. James Coe, deceased; Benjamin Monroe, in place of T. E. West, deceased.

Resolved 8. That inasmuch as the charter of Danville Theological Seminary, Section 6, confers upon the General Assembly the right, when meeting in Kentucky, to change one-third of the Board of Trustees, and fill all vacancies then existing, it is expedient to exercise this right, that no advantage may ever accrue against it from non-use, and that the Board of Trustees of the Danville Theological Seminary be composed of the following persons, of whom those marked with an asterisk are newly elected members.

*John R. Ford,	J. T. Boyle,
James S. Hopkins,	Charles Caldwell,
*John B. Temple,	*W. J. Moberly,
Mark Hardin,	*Stuart Robinson,
Robert A. Johnstone,	J. P. Curtis,
R. J. Breckinridge, D. D.	E. P. Humphrey, D. D.
*A. A. Hoge,	R. C. Grundy, D. D.
W. L. Breckinridge, D. D.	W. M. Scott, D. D.
J. Montgomery,	*James Barbour.

Resolved, 9. That the Assembly elect a fourth Professor in Danville Theological Seminary, to fill the Chair of Oriental and Biblical Literature.

The Committee deem it proper to present and place on record for information and reference, Section 7 of the Charter of the Seminary, which defines certain rights of the Assembly regarding funds for the use of this Seminary. That section is as follows, viz. "That the said Corporation (i. e. the Board of Trustees of the Danville Theological Seminary) and their successors shall have power and authority to manage and dispose of all moneys, goods, chattels, lands, tenements and hereditaments and other estate whatsoever, committed to their care and trust by the said General Assembly, and in such cases where special instructions for the management and disposal thereof, shall be given by the said General Assembly in writing, under the hand of their Clerk. It shall be the duty of said Corporation to act according to such instructions, provided the said instructions shall not be repugnant to the Constitution of the United States, or to the Constitution and laws of this State, or to this Act."

Under the eighth Resolution the Assembly appointed Monday next, at 11 o'clock, as the time for electing a fourth Professor in the Seminary at Danville.

The nomination was then made, of the Rev. Stephen Yerkes, by Dr. Steel.

Remarks were made on this nomination, by Messrs. Steel, R. J. Breckinridge, and Huntington; and no other nomination was made.

The Assembly then united in prayer; Dr. Lapsley being called by the Moderator to lead in this exercise.

On motion of Dr. Breckinridge, it was ordered, that the action of this Assembly in relation to the legacy of Judge Broadnax be officially communicated to the two Boards interested in the same.

Mr. Laws presented a Report from the Committee on Systematic Benevolence, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Systematic Benevolence would respectfully report:

That communications have been received from the Stated Clerks of the following twenty-four Presbyteries: viz. Londonderry, Troy, Albany, Mohawk, Ogdensburg, Green River, West Jersey, Raritan, Philadelphia, Newcastle, Northumberland, Alleghany, Beaver, Alleghany City, Columbus, Palestine, Logansport, Louisville, Transylvania, Greenbriar, Lexington, Fayetteville, Knoxville, and South Carolina.

These papers indicate:

1. That the practice of Systematic Benevolence is gradually spreading through our Church. Only three of the Presbyteries heard from last year are reported this year; and the most of these new names appear as showing an increase in the number of Presbyteries which have taken action on this important subject. Whilst some of those heard from have not as yet adopted any plan of benevolence, on the other hand it is manifest that many Presbyteries have a system in operation, but have failed to send up any reports. And were the names preserved on record, so that a comparison could be extended back for two years, it is believed that the result would only the more plainly show the growth of this cause, notwithstanding so few reports have been received. Moreover, it shows that the leaven is at work, when it is observed that the Presbyteries from which reports mostly favourable have been received, in the last two years, lie within the bounds of twenty-three Synods; and also that, although the action of the Assembly of 1854 specifically aimed to turn the attention of the Presbyteries to this subject, yet eleven Synods, viz. Wheeling, Ohio, Cincinnati, Indiana, Northern Indiana, Illinois, Chicago, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, and Georgia, have adopted plans of Systematic Benevolence, embracing each of the several enterprises under the control of the General Assembly; whilst several other Synods, as Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Virginia, and South Carolina, have severally agreed on definite times for raising funds for one or more objects. All these things go to show that system in the matter of benevolence is gaining ground in the churches.

2. So far as the papers in the hands of the Committee suggest an inference, it is likewise indicated that, whenever a plan of benevolence is adopted, it generally works well, securing increased contributions, and in some instances seeming to be the means of calling down the gracious influences of the Spirit of God. Some Presbyteries and churches, it is stated, had plans prior to the action of this Assembly on the subject, and as the choice of the particular method to be adopted was left by that action to be determined by the exercise of a wise discretion, considerable diversity prevails, nor does absolute uniformity appear to be practicable. In this, however, as in other matters, the adoption of an imperfect plan or system is found to be better than no system, just as an imperfect government is better than none. Some of the papers speak of only partial trials of defective schemes having worked so well as even to induce special efforts to rectify and mature them. Experience and perseverance alone can reach perfection in a matter of this kind.

3. But it is likewise evident, from the fewness and contents of the papers placed in the hands of the Committee, that there is great need of this whole subject of Systematic Benevolence being again earnestly and affectionately urged upon the attention of the Presbyteries, and kept before them until all of them take some definite action, and report the same as soon as possible to the General Assembly.

The principal thing now demanded in this very important department of the Church's labour appears to be, that such personal efforts be made by individuals, and measures devised and put into operation by Synods, Presbyteries, and Sessions, as shall secure, as far as possible, the actual adoption of system in the matter of benevolence, and bring forth its legitimate fruits. And as means of carrying into prompt and full effect the original intention of the General Assembly on this subject:

1st. It is urged upon each Stated Clerk to see that systematic benevolence is placed on the docket of Presbyterial business every spring, and send, as his regular annual report to the General Assembly, an attested minute of the proceedings of the Presbytery on the subject. [See Minutes of the Assembly, 1855, page 296, resolutions 2, 3.]

2d. It is recommended to the Presbyteries that have not already done so, to take action to provide as soon as possible for the exercise of an efficient superintendence of this business within their bounds, so as to bring about a thorough inauguration and maintenance of some plan of benevolence in all their churches.

3d. The Secretaries of the Boards are again invited and urged to give increased aid by personal labours and correspondence, in realizing all that is contemplated in this movement of the Church.

4th. That special attention be given by pastors, elders, and others, to the training of children and youth in the family, Sabbath-schools, and other institutions of the Church, to habits of cheerful and conscientious systematic benevolence.

5th. That in the appropriate exercise of discretion in the choice of any particular method, it be borne in mind how important it is in order to efficiency:

1. That given objects of benevolence be definitely determined upon, especially the four Boards, and the Church Extension Committee of this Assembly, and the Bible cause.

2 That at stated times an opportunity be given to all the members of the churches and congregations to aid these several objects.

Thus will "gatherings" be made of what may have been laid by in store, according to the apostolic injunction: "Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches in Galatia, so do ye. Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him."

6th. That the doctrine and duties of divine stewardship be more distinctly and fully recognized, more frequently and earnestly inculcated, as underlying this whole subject. Glorify God in your bodies, and in your spirit, which are God's. In this, as in all cases, the blessing follows the performance of the duty. "Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase; so shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine." "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

The unfinished business was then resumed on Overture No 5, respecting the alterations made by the American Bible Society in the standard English version of the Bible; the question being on the motion to refer to a Select Committee to report to the next Assembly.

With consent of the Assembly, the mover modified his motion, so as simply to refer to the next Assembly.

Dr. Adger having the floor continued the discussion.

The Moderator having decided, that on speaking to this motion a member might go into the merits of the Overture itself, so far as these related to the particular motion, an appeal was taken from his decision, but the chair was sustained by a large majority.

Messrs. Allen, Hoge, Hammersly, Aikin and others, followed in the discussion.

A motion of Dr. Breckinridge to lay this motion of Judge Fine on the table was lost by a vote of 117 for, and 127 against it.

The motion to refer the Overture to the next General Assembly was then carried by a vote of 128 to 114.

The Overture so referred is as follows: viz.

1. The American Bible Society has, by the terms of its Constitution, no legitimate right to alter in any way, the common and accepted standard English Scriptures, as they stood at the period of the creation of that Society.

2. Concerning the said English Scriptures, the American Bible Society has full power to print and circulate them, and to collect and manage funds for those purposes. But it has no power to edit them, in any other sense than to keep them in the exact condition in which the standard English Bible stood at the formation of said Society.

3. This General Assembly, and the Church it represents are, and from the beginning have been, warm and unanimous supporters and friends of the American Bible Society. And it is in this sense we feel called on to say that we neither do nor can allow, on our part, of any, even the smallest departure from the original principles on which that Society was founded; and to express the settled conviction that the continued support of that Society by the Presbyterian Church, depends upon the strict adherence of the Society to those clear and simple principles.

4. The Board of Publication of the Presbyterian Church will consider and report to the next General Assembly a plan for the preparation and permanent publication by it, of the common English Bible, in a form suitable for pulpit use, with the standard text unchanged, and the usual accessaries to the text commonly found in pulpit English Bibles, from 1611 to 1847.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Mr. A. Young.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

On motion the Rev. Dr. A. W. Leland was appointed to deliver the sermon on Education before the next General Assembly, and the Rev. J. N. Waddel, D. D. was appointed his alternate.

Overture No. 2 was then taken up from the docket and the recommendation of the Committee adopted, as follows: viz.

Resolved, 1. That a new Presbytery, to be called Lake Superior, be erected out of a part of the territory of Winnebago, to consist of the following ministers and churches:

Rev. J. Irwin Smith of Presbytery of Erie, Rev. J. M. Barnett of Presbytery of Blairsville, and Rev. T. R. Elder of the Presbytery of Saltsburg; together with the churches of Ontonagon, Superior, and Sault St. Marie, and such other organized churches as may fall properly within their bounds.

Resolved, 2. That this Presbytery be connected with the Synod of Wisconsin, and meet on the 3d Wednesday of August next, at 11 o'clock, A. M. at Ontonagon. Rev. Mr. Barnett to preach the opening sermon and preside until a Moderator be chosen, and the Rev. Mr. Elder his alternate.

Resolved, 3. That the Presbytery of Lake Superior be instructed to define such boundaries as to them may seem best, and report to the next General Assembly for their approval.

Overture No. 6 was then taken up—two papers, one from Lake Presbytery, and the other from Central Mississippi, respecting a new translation of the Scriptures, proposed by the Bible Union.

The Committee recommended, that the Assembly distinctly disavow all manner of connection with the revision alluded to, and they have no sympathy with it; but on the contrary an entire disapprobation of the whole movement.

The report was unanimously adopted.

Overture No. 7 was then taken up, a memorial from the Presbytery of Carlisle, proposing to send down to the Presbyteries the question of erasing from the Confession of Faith the last clause of the fourth section of the 24th chapter, on marriage within the prohibited degrees of affinity.

On motion, this whole subject was laid on the table.

Judicial case No. 1, the complaint of J. L. Bellville and others, against the Synod of Cincinnati, was then taken up, Dr. McGill being called to the chair for the remainder of this session.

On motion of Dr. Hoge, it was ordered that the Assembly conduct this case in the deliberative, not the judicial form.

It was then made the order of the day for Monday next at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, relating to the Western Theological Seminary, was then taken up, and the following resolutions were adopted, after discussion, in which Messrs. McClung, McIlvaine, Wallace, Lea, and Montgomery took part.

Resolved, 1. That the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary at Alleghany be enlarged to forty, and divided into four equal classes, one of which shall go out of office annually.

Resolved, 2. That agreeably to the unanimous request of the Board of Directors, this Assembly will proceed to elect a fourth Professor, upon a salary to be graduated by the Trustees of the Seminary.

Resolved, 3. That if any changes in the division of labour in the Seminary be found expedient, it may be made by the Board of Directors, for the next session, provided it be reported to the next Assembly.

Remarks were made on the nomination of Samuel J. Wilson to the fourth Professorship in this Seminary by Dr. Breckinridge and others, till the hour of adjournment; when the Assembly adjourned, to meet to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Mr. Stevenson.

SATURDAY Morning, May 30.

The Assembly met and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

On motion of Dr. Hoge, it was added to the resolutions in relation to the formation of a new Presbytery, to be called Lake Superior, that the said Presbytery be authorized to receive any ministers of our connection, who may propose to join it, with proper testimonials, whether dismissed to it expressly from other Presbyteries or not.

On motion of Mr. Russell, it was Resolved, that on and after Monday next, the Assembly will hold a third session, in the evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

The unfinished business relating to the Western Theological Seminary was resumed, the question being on the nomination of Samuel J. Wilson to the fourth Professorship in that Institution; this nomination was received, and no other was made.

It was made the order of the day for Monday next, just after the election of the Professor for the Seminary at Danville, to proceed with this election.

The Assembly then united in prayer, Dr. Swift being called by the Moderator to lead in the exercise.

Nomination of Directors was then made by the Committee. Dr. Scott objected to the nomination of any who are outside of the territory understood to belong to this Seminary; and moved that it be recommitted to this Committee, with instructions to change their nomination according to this principle. After discussion, in which Drs. Scott and Moore, and others took part, this motion was laid on the table. Other nominations were then made; and the election was made the order of the day for Monday next at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The Assembly then proceeded to take up the business on the docket.

Overture No. 8, for the recognition of a new Presbytery, to be called the Presbytery of Western Africa; and for answer to the inquiry, "whether church members, or persons applying for church membership, who have left a husband or wife in bondage, with no prospect of reunion, and who have married again during the life of such husband or wife, shall be allowed full communion in the Presbyterian Church." The Committee recommended that the Presbytery of Africa be recognized, and attached to the Synod of New York; and the question overtured be answered—that each case be adjucated by the Church judicatories, in view of the circumstances; keeping in view the great principle that second marriages are unlawful unless the previous marriage be dissolved. This recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 10, from the Synod of Iowa, for the erection of a new Synod within its present territory. The Committee recommended that the overture be granted; and that the county of Muscatine, with the churches and ministers therein, be detached from the Presbytery of Iowa and connected with the Presbytery of Cedar; that the Presbyteries of Iowa, Des Moines, and Council Bluffs be detached from the Synod of Iowa, and that the same be and hereby are erected into a new Synod, to be called the Synod of Southern Iowa; and that said Synod hold its first meeting in Fairfield on the second Thursday of October, 1857, at seven o'clock P. M., and that the Rev. Salmon Cowles preach the opening sermon and preside till a Moderator be chosen; or, in case of his absence or inability, then the oldest minister present. Adopted.

It was ordered also that the churches of Nebraska be connected with the Presbytery of Council Bluffs.

Overture No. 13, from the Presbytery of Concord, respecting a memorial to the Congress of the United States for the discontinuance of mail service on the Sabbath. The recommendation of the Committee to take no action on the subject was adopted.

Overture No. 14, on the posture in public prayer. The Committee recommended that the Assembly repeat the testimony borne by them on this subject in 1849, viz. that "the posture of sitting in public prayer be considered grievously improper, whenever the infirmities of the worshipper do not render it necessary, and that ministers be required to reprove it with persevering admonition." This recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 15, respecting ministerial intercourse, and intercommunion of ecclesiastical bodies, when sitting in Church courts. This subject was laid on the table.

Overture No. 16, a memorial of the Presbyterian Historical Society, asking the General Assembly to commemorate next year, in some appropriate manner, the reunion of the Synods of New York and Philadelphia, which occurred in 1758. The Committee reported as follows: That the celebration of important historical events has always been considered by the Church as an appropriate, interesting, and edifying testimony to the grace and power of Divine Providence. Among the great events of the past, the reunion of the two Synods of New York and Philadelphia is among the most remarkable incidents which have occurred in our Presbyterian Church history, and seems to come within that class of events whose celebration may be undertaken by the Church for the public benefit; therefore,

Resolved, That this General Assembly, as an expression of gratitude to God for his providential mercy in the reunion of the Synods of New York and Philadelphia, will engage in a centennial commemoration of that event in May, 1858.

This report was adopted; and the Rev. Dr. C. Van Rensselaer was appointed to deliver the historical address before the next General Assembly, and the Rev. Dr. E. P. Humphrey his alternate.

The reports on Synodical Records were then taken up from the docket; such as contained exceptions. The report of the Committee on the records of Missouri was adopted, after amendment, approving the minutes with two exceptions.

1st. They omit to record the names of the absentees of the several Presbyteries.

2d. They appoint a time for the meeting of the Potosi Presbytery without assigning any reason for it.

The Report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Cincinnati was adopted, recommending the approval of them, subject to the decision of the Assembly, on the action of the Synod in relation to the course of the Presbytery of Miami, which is now on the docket, from the Judicial Committee.

The Minutes of the Synod of Kentucky were approved, with the following two exceptions, viz.

1st. As to the minute on page 235, purporting to be the Report of the Synod's Committee on the Minutes of the Presbytery of Louisville. The exception is, that the minute does not state what the report was; whether approving or disapproving the Presbytery's minutes.

2d. As to the Minute on page 236, being the second exception of the Synod to the Minutes of the same Presbytery. Your Committee take exception to this minute: 1. Because in their opinion there was not, so far as they can learn from the record, any ground of exception to the action of the Presbytery of Louisville. And, 2. Because if there was, the minute does not state the reasons for such exception.

The Minutes of the Synod of Nashville were approved, with two exceptions, thus stated by the Committee, and adopted by the Assembly, viz.

1st. The preliminary proceedings towards a reunion between the Presbyteries of West Tennessee (New-school) and the Presbytery of Nashville are not strictly based upon the requirements of the Assembly's action of 1837, which render it imperative on Presbyteries to examine all who make application for admission into their bodies, at least on experimental religion, didactic and polemic theology, and church government; but the Synod has declared its unanimous belief, and authorized its Presbyteries to act accordingly, that this reunion may be effected upon the basis of the reunion of the Synods of New York and Philadelphia, as found in the Minutes of the Assembly of 1758, page 285. The action, however, of the Synod is not reversed by this exception.

2d. The ommission of the Narrative on the State of Religion, which should be appended to the Minutes.

The Records of the Synod of Pittsburgh were appoved without exception, that of a minority of the Committee being laid on the table.

Mr. Park, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they had given leave to the following members: L. D. Wright, Elias Peck, J. Greenleaf, W. Ayres, J. Phelps, R. Elliot, W. Dodds, J. W. Hamilton, T. McIntire, P. Purcel, A. G. Hall, W. S. Rogers, S. E. Giffen, W. Wilson, S. Sharp, M. M. Fuqua, H. Lupton, Ebenezer Wilson.

The report was approved.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet this afternoon at half-past three o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Dr. Breckinridge.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer, by Mr. J. C. Brown.

On motion of Mr. Putnam, the following paper was adopted unanimously:

Whereas, notwithstanding the increasing interest of the churches in the subject of pecuniary aid to disabled and indigent clergymen and their families, which this Assembly would gratefully acknowledge, there is still an inadequate response to the demands of justice in their behalf.

Resolved, That the General Assembly reaffirm the action of 1849 on this subject, and earnestly recommend that an annual collection for this object be made by our churches, and be forwarded to the Treasurer of the Assembly.

Resolved, That the Report of the Committee on the subject of pecuniary aid to indigent clergymen and their families be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

On motion of Dr. Adger, the Rev. Thomas E. Peck was appointed to preach on Foreign Missions before the next General Assembly, and the Rev. A. A. Porter his alternate.

Overture No. 17 was then taken up from the docket—from various ministers in the Territory of Kansas, praying the Assembly to organize three Presbyteries there; and, on motion, Overture No. 18 was taken up, to be considered along with the former—from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, praying for the erection of a new Synod, to be called the Synod of Upper Missouri.

The report of the Committee was adopted in part, so far as to order the organization of two Presbyteries, as follows:

1. That the Rev. S. M. Irvin, of the Presbytery of Lafayette; the Rev. W. H. Honnell, of the Presbytery of Transylvania; the Rev. D. A. Murdock, of the Presbytery of Council Bluffs; and the Rev. Wm. McGookin, of the Presbytery of Sydney, together with the church of Highland and the church of Lodiana, be constituted a Presbytery, to be called the Presbytery of Highland—to hold its first stated meeting in Highland, on the first Tuesday in September, at two o'clock, P. M.

2. That the Rev. W. W. Backus, of the Presbytery of Dane; the Rev. T. P. Montfort, of the Presbytery of White Water; and the Rev. J. G. Williamson, of the Presbytery of New Albany, together with the following churches, viz. the First and Second Churches of Leavenworth City and the church at Lecompton and Big Spring, be constituted a Presbytery, to be called the Presbytery of Kansas—to hold its first meeting in Leavenworth City, on the first Tuesday of September, at two o'clock, P. M.

3. That the oldest minister present, in each case, preach the opening sermon and preside until a Moderator be chosen.

It was further ordered that these new Presbyteries be attached to the Synod of Missouri.

On motion of Dr. Yantis, the Report of the Committee on Overture No. 18 was postponed, for his motion to erect a new Synod to be called the Synod of Upper Missouri, and to be composed of these new Presbyteries, and the Presbyteries of Upper Missouri and Lafayette. On this motion, after discussion, in which Messrs. Yantis and Laws took part, the previous question was called on motion of Judge Fine; and the motion of Dr. Yantis was carried.

It was subsequently ordered that this new Synod meet on the first Thursday of October next, at 7 o'clock, P. M., at Independence, Missouri. Rev. W. Dickson, or in case of his absence, the oldest minister present, to open with a sermon, and preside till a Moderator be chosen.

The Assembly then adjourned to meet on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Mr. Russell.

MONDAY Morning, June 1.

The Assembly met and was opened with singing, reading the Scriptures, and prayer.

The Minutes of Saturday were read, and those of the forenoon session were approved.

A letter from Dr. Rice, delegate of the last General Assembly to the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, was read and referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

The motion of Dr. Dumont to require the next General Assembly to meet on the first Thursday instead of the third Thursday, as heretofore, was taken up from the table, and was carried.

The order of the day for 10 o'clock was then taken up, judicial case No. 1, and considered in deliberative form. The papers were read, excepting such parts as the Assembly judged unnecessary to throw light on the subject. Before the reading was concluded, the order of the day for the election of a Professor in the Theological Seminary at Danville was called, and the Assembly proceeded to cast the ballots, Messrs. Gosman, Wallace, Harrison, and Putnam, being appointed tellers.

The next order of the day, to elect a Professor in the Western Theological Seminary, was taken up, and the ballots was taken by Messrs. Edgar, L. Young, A. Young, and Baker, appointed tellers.

The election for Danville resulted in the choice of the Rev. Stephen Yerkes, who received all the votes cast, 177, and was accordingly declared to be duly chosen Professor of Oriental and Biblical Literature in the Theological Seminary at Danville. Dr. Scott and Mr. A. Young were appointed a Committee to inform Mr. Yerkes of his election, and to urge in a proper way, his acceptance of the office.

The tellers to collect and count the votes for Professor in the Western Theological Seminary announced the result to be, for Samuel J. Wilson 155 votes; for A. D. Campbell, D. D. 2 votes; for Luther Halsey, D. D. 1; for J. B. Young, D. D. 1; and blank 1. Mr. Wilson was therefore declared to be duly elected to the Fourth Professorship, that of Ecclesiastical History and Homiletics in this Seminary. Messrs. McIlvaine and Foster were appointed a Committee to inform Mr. Wilson of his election, and urge his acceptance of the office.

Judicial case No. 1 was then resumed, and the reading of the papers concluded. Mr. Allen moved that the complaint be sustained. Mr. Finley on motion was heard in explanatory remarks. After which, on motion of Dr. Hoge, the whole subject was referred to a special Committee, to report a minute for the action of the Assembly. Messrs. Hoge, Swift, Waddel, Allen, and White, were appointed this Committee.

Dr. Waddel presented a paper respecting the right of ruling elders to read and expound the Scriptures in the absence of the pastor.

Dr. Adger offered the following minute on this subject, for the adoption of the Assembly.

Whereas, the last Assembly, near the close of its meetings, and probably therefore with some degree of haste, did, in adopting the report of their Committee on the Records of the Synod of Mississippi, sanction the principle that a ruling elder, in the absence of the pastor, may "read the Scriptures and explain them, and endeavour to enforce the truth by suitable exhortations." And whereas, the notice of the body has been called to the subject by representations on the part of a Presbytery of that Synod; therefore be it

Resolved by this Assembly, that explaining the Scriptures and enforcing the truth by exhortation, form no part of the official duty of ruling elders as elders.

At the same time it is earnestly recommended by this Assembly, in the language of Chapter xxi. of our Form of Government, "That every vacant congregation meet together on the Lord's day at one or more places for the purpose of prayer, singing praises, and reading the Holy Scriptures together with the works of such approved divines as the Presbytery, within whose bounds they are, may recommend, and they may be able to procure; and that the elders or deacons be the persons who shall preside, and select the portions of Scripture and of the other books to be read; and to see that the whole be conducted in a becoming and orderly manner."

On motion this whole subject was laid on the table.

Overture No. 19 was then taken up from the docket, which is as follows:

When a church session has tabled charges against a church member for falsehood, and summoned the accused with the witnesses, is it competent for the session to dismiss the charges on the plea of the accused that a prosecution is barred by the limitation of time in Chapter xi. Section 5th, of the Discipline, ("Process in case of scandal, &c.,") the alleged crime having been committed and "become flagrant," and known to members of session more than twelve months before process was instituted.

The Committee recommended that this inquiry be answered in the affirmative. Adopted.

Overture No. 20, from the Presbytery of Genesee, asking the Assembly to take order in relation to corporations for the management of ecclesiastical property.

On motion, as a substitute for the recommendation of the Committee to take no action on the subject, it was referred to a Special Committee to report to the next General Assembly. Messrs. Putnam, Allen, and White were appointed this Committee.

Overture No. 21, from the Presbytery of Bethel, relative to a union with the Independent Presbyterian Church, the Committee reported the following minute:

While the General Assembly is greatly gratified with the spirit of charity and brotherly love which the Overture indicates as subsisting between the Presbytery of Bethel and the Independent Church, and would sincerely rejoice at the consummation of the proposed union, it yet cannot sanction the precise terms of the covenant which has actually been made. The privilege claimed by the Independent ministers of holding and teaching doctrines not in harmony with the Confession of Faith, is a privilege which, even if harmless in this particular case, might be abused as a precedent and lead in other quarters and in other relations, to serious mischief. The Assembly expresses the desire that these ministers may soon be able to embrace our standards without reservation, and in that case the Presbytery of Bethel is hereby authorized to ratify the union without further application to this body; but in the event that the Independent ministers and churches cannot relinquish their peculiarities with a good conscience, this Assembly will cherish them in the bonds of Christian love, but it cannot see its way clear to embrace them in the same denomination.

Dr. Leland spoke on the motion to adopt this minute till the hour of adjournment; when the Assembly adjourned to meet this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Mr. Jagger.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The unfinished business on Overture No. 21 was resumed, Dr. Leland having the floor. Messrs. McCormick, Thornwell, and others continued the discussion, and the report of the Committee was adopted.

The order of the day for four o'clock was then taken up, the election of Directors for the Western Theological Seminary.

Opposite nominations were withdrawn and those made by Dr. Moore were elected, and are as follows:

THREE YEARS.	FOUR YEARS.
Francis Herron, D. D.	T. Creigh, D. D.
E. P. Swift, D. D.	J. S. Woods, D. D.
Rev. W. M. Paxton,	A. S. Hall, D. D.
Rev. W. B. McIlvain,	J. Hoge, D. D.
Rev. J. Kerr,	Rev. J. Caldwell,
Rev. James Alexander,	Rev. J. M. Platt,
Rev. Cyrus Dickson,	Rev. S. M. McClung,
Luke Loomis,	L. Flattery, M. D.
A. Johnston,	H. A. True, M. D.
J. Caruthers, M. D.	A. Cameron.

A letter was read from the Rev. Francis Bowman, D. D. delegate of the last General Assembly to the Evangelical Convention of Vermont.

Letters were also read by the Stated Clerk, from Sir Culling Eardley and Rev. Mr. Duncan of London, in relation to a Conference of Evangelical ministers, invited by the king of Prussia to meet at Berlin. These were referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

Dr. McGill from the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, presented the following report, which was adopted, with but one dissenting vote; that of the Rev. J. A. I. Lowes, who gave notice that he protested.

1. In relation to the report of the Rev. Edwin Carter, from the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to open a correspondence and confer about a closer union with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, they recommend that the same Committee be continued, with the assurance that this General Assembly is gratified with the progress already made in their good work; and desires that even if a closer union with that evangelical body be not consummated, the interchange of delegates and expressions of fraternal love so pleasantly begun, may be perpetuated.

2. The Committee recommended that no delegate be sent, for the present, to any of the congregational bodies of New England. One of them has expressly informed us that the correspondence is discontinued by its own act; others have so far entertained the same design, as to refer the question of discontinuance to their District Associations for ultimate decision, and none of them is in fact represented at this Assembly, except the Evangelical Consociation of Vermont. And although it is due to the Rev. F. Butler to record our great satisfaction with the eminent courtesy and fraternal spirit with which he has represented his brethren here, yet the Committee have been grieved to find in the published Minutes of that Consociation at their last meeting, a very offensive resolution, as well as proceedings of a secular and political bearing, which the sense of our Ecclesiastical Assemblies seeks to avoid.

3. In relation to the Reformed Presbyterian Church, from which a letter has been received of remonstrance against our settled principles of discipline on the subject of slavery, the Committee would remind the Assembly that thirty years ago that body declined to sanction the arrangement of any correspondence with the General Assembly, although unanimously agreed to by this body: and we do not deem it our duty in this case to send them a letter in reply, especially as the position of our Church, on the subject referred to, needs no further explanation.

But we fully reciprocrate the expressions of fraternal regard, and of confidence in our order and the steadfastness of our faith which the letter conveys, and would rejoice to have the bonds of Christian fellowship with that body made closer, if it could be done consistently with the claims of truth and peace.

Overture No. 22 was then taken up, from the Presbytery of Burlington, respecting the publication of periodicals by our Boards. The Committee recommended that the pamphlet form of the Foreign Missionary be continued, that the proposition to limit the number of periodicals published by our Boards to the express direction of the Assembly be rejected; and that other matters in this Overture be referred to the Boards of Foreign Missions and Publication, to report to the next Assembly. This recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 23 was then taken up—from the Presbytery of Philadelphia, praying the Assembly to take measures for the revision of our Constitution, in the forms of judicial proceedings.

Dr. Breckinridge moved to take up also Overture No. 28, from himself, proposing a plan for reducing the number of Commissioners to the General Assembly, and making the Synods instead of the Presbyteries the basis of representation, with a ratio of fifty ministers for each commissioner.

This motion was agreed to, and Dr. Breckinridge spoke in explanation of his views until the hour of adjournment.

The Assembly then adjourned, to meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

Closed with prayer, by Dr. Adger.

MONDAY EVENING.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer.

The unfinished business on Overtures No. 23 and 28 was resumed.

Dr. Scott offered the following paper as an amendment to the Report of the Committee which had been favourable to No. 23, and adverse to No. 28, viz.

Resolved, That this Assembly commit the Book of Discipline—the Second Book of our Governmental Standards—to a Committee, for revision, to report if any changes are expedient; and if so, what, at the next or some subsequent General Assembly.

Dr. Hoge moved to amend by inserting the "Form of Government," also.

This motion was lost; and the question recurring on Dr. Scott's amendment, it was carried.

It was ordered that the Committee under this resolution consist of nine.

The Moderator subsequently appointed as this Committee, the Rev. Drs. James H. Thornwell, R. J. Breckinridge, James Hoge, Charles Hodge, E.

P. Swift, and A. T. McGill, ministers; and Messrs. George Sharswood, Wm. F. Allen, and H. H. Leavitt, ruling elders.

Overture No. 24 was next considered—from Mr. Bright, respecting the establishment of a University of the highest grade at Washington City, &c.

The recommendation of the Committee to take no action on the subject was adopted.

Overture No. 25, from the Presbyteries of Donegal and Baltimore, intimating the willingness of each that the request of the churches of Churchville and Harmony to be transferred to the latter Presbytery should be granted.

On the recommendation of the Committee this request was accordingly granted.

Overture No. 26, from the Presbytery of Dubuque, praying the Assembly to require the Board of Publication to have the Confession of Faith and Form of Government translated into the German language.

The Committee recommended that this prayer be granted.

Mr. Schenck made statements respecting the designs of the Board of Publication in relation to this matter, and the Overture and Report were then laid on the table.

Overture No. 27, from the pastors and elders of the Presbyterian churches in Dubuque, asking the Assembly to change time of meeting for the Synod of Iowa from the second to the first Thursday of October next, for reasons given.

This request was granted.

Overture No. 29, from D. X. Junkin, asking the Assembly to take the proper measures for having the Constitution changed in regard to ruling elders, so as to make the office temporary.

The Committee reported that it is inexpedient to send down to the Presbyteries the proposed alterations. Adopted.

Overture No. 30, from the Synod of the Pacific, on the subject of an itinerating ministry and the extension of the Church.

The Committee recommended that no action be taken by the Assembly, but that the subject be referred to the Board of Domestic Missions.

This recommendation of the Committee, amended on motion of Mr. Montgomery, calling the earnest consideration of this Board to the Overture, was adopted.

Dr. Hoge, from the Special Committee to bring in a minute expressing the action of the Assembly on Judicial Case No. 1, presented the following, which was adopted, viz.

In this case, the Assembly commend the diligent attention of both the Presbytery of Miami and the Synod of Cincinnati to the purity and order of the Church, and their fidelity in removing existing evils, yet they cannot entirely approve the conduct of either the Presbytery or the Synod in the present case.

The Presbytery appears to have erred in the power which they gave to the Committee of Inquiry, in the case of the Rev. S. Brown, to examine the truthfulness of rumours unfavourable to Mr. Brown's soundness in the faith, instead of directing them to ascertain and report the existence and nature of the rumours; therefore the Committee may have been thus led to exceed the proper limits of inquiry for the information of the Presbytery.

The Synod likewise seems to have erred in censuring as they did the Committee of the Miami Presbytery, and in acting inconsistently with Constitutional Rules, Chap. vii. Sec. 1, sub-sec. 2 and 6, by virtually reversing a judicial decision, and this without citing the Presbytery to appear and answer, on the mere review of their Records.

For these reasons the Complaint is judged to be partly, but not wholly sustained.

On motion of Dr. Thornwell, the hearty thanks of the Assembly were voted to the citizens of Lexington and its vicinity for their hospitality to the members of this General Assembly.

It was, on motion,

Resolved, That the next term of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, and that of the Western Theological Seminary, be closed two weeks earlier than the regular time as now fixed, in consequence of the earlier meeting of the next General Assembly.

The Minutes were then read, so far as they had not been read for approval before, and approved.

It was then, on motion,

Resolved, That this General Assembly be now dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the city of New Orleans, in the First Presbyterian Church, on the first Thursday of May, A. D. 1858, at eleven o'clock, A. M.

Closed with singing, prayer, and the apostolic benediction.

ADEXANDER T. McGILL,
PERMANENT CLERK.

JOHN LEYBURN,
STATED CLERK.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION,

ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, AT THEIR SESSIONS AT LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY, MAY, 1857, AND ADDRESSED TO THE CHURCHES UNDER THEIR CARE.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, met in Lexington, Kentucky, to all under its care and supervision, greeting:

Of the one hundred and fifty Presbyteries in organic connection with this General Assembly, and entitled to representation in its councils, one hundred and ten have furnished accounts, more or less full and specific, of the progress of their work during the year closing with their spring meeting, and of the prospects with which they enter upon another year of labour for God and humanity. These reports have been submitted to careful examination, and the aggregated results are hereby sent back along the line of the widening battle-field. The pulsations of spiritual life are here felt flowing in from all parts of this wide land, and from distant continents. Nationalities and races widely diverse are here represented, and the strong sympathies of a common faith, and love, and destiny, flow out from here along all the avenues of spiritual life, bearing vigour and growth and health to the most remote extremities. This that we address to you, therefore, is not an empty form, nor a graceful, customary ceremony, but a deliberate utterance of the High Courts of Jesus Christ met and bearing rule and taking oversight in his name. It is intended to carry down to all the extremities, the consciousness of the unity of that life of the Spirit of which the outward unity embodied in this General Assembly is the visible symbol.

With singular uniformity the opening tones of the official statements from the Presbyteries are of cheer and thanksgiving, and in most of the cases of exception it has been found, on examination, that the difference was rather in the order of presentation than in fact: and the discouragements and obstacles to the work were found to be rather the work to be done, than that which rendered it impossible to do faithfully the proper work of the Church. They are not so much evils in the Church and her organic workings, as evils without the Church, which she is set to wrestle with.

1. In a Church covering so vast a field of operations, it cannot be expected that every part and subordinate organization will be alike prosperous, any more than we can expect every company and regiment of a vast army to escape loss in a campaign, with pitched battles and skirmishes, and sieges constantly going on. The fortunes of the Church would be naturally expected to vary from Massachusetts and the Atlantic States, over the great sweep of the Central Valley, and the Indian Territories to the shores of the Pacific, and among our Mission Colonies and centres in South America and Asia. It must present varying phases, in passing from the lakes of the North through the vast plains dotted with the emigrant wagons, and the settlers' cabins, and growing cities, to the Gulf of Mexico and the wastes of Texas. But with surprising uniformity come the returns from all these varying fields of effort and conflict, of earnest labour and prayer, and steady, resistless advance, showing that not only does the same life pervade all the parts of this wide spread organization, but that the same Lord directs the march and ministers the power. It must be the Lord Jehovah that mustereth the hosts to the battle, and goeth forth with them.

2. The special discouragements and obstacles most generally presented are the increasing use of intoxicating drinks, the spirit of speculation extending from the world to the Church, and the want of vigorous spiritual life in the Church, manifesting itself in the various forms of worldliness and neglect of duty. To these are added in some cases the want of numbers, both in members and ministerial labourers.

Intemperance is represented to be on the increase in many and distant portions of the country, but rather outside of, than within the Church, and therefore is a form of evil for the Church to address itself to abate. The eager haste to be rich is a wide-spread and increasing evil, but the Church is set to teach men the true use of wealth, as of poverty. And this is another form of evil to which she must address herself in earnest work. The want of deep, earnest piety is an evil within her own bosom which can only be removed by the Spirit of promise. If this great want be made up, all the rest will be made up in their time. The ministry will be more numerous and better and more justly supported, churches will be strengthened, houses of worship will be supplied, and the school-house and the college will be found where they are needed, and the means of sustaining the aggressive and missionary operations of the whole Church will be supplied in streams of consecrated alms.

3. Of the one hundred and ten Presbyteries from which accounts have been received and examined, those from ninety-five are on the whole encouraging, and most of them decidedly so. Of the fourteen others, it may be said that they are in regions of peculiar difficulty. They are such as missionary Presbyteries may be expected often to furnish, while yet the churches are few and feeble, and the ministers widely dispersed. The facts which are furnished as warranting this cheering and thankful tone, and are evidences of advance and prosperity, are such as these:—(a) Increasing numbers in regular attendance on the ministrations of the gospel. (b) Increasing attendance of youth upon the instructions of Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes. (c) Harmony and peace prevailing among churches and congregations, and, in many cases, the healing of the old divisions, and making up of quarrels. (d) Increasing efforts to secure suitable houses of worship, to build parsonages, to afford a more competent and just support to ministers, not as charity, but of love and of right. (e) Efforts in behalf of the people of colour in that portion of the country where they live in a subordinate condition: and also in behalf of the Germans as such, and other foreign emigrants. (f) The increasing attention to the matter of giving to the work of God, as a matter of principle and uniform duty. (g) Increasing attention to the whole matter of education in all its departments. (h) And in additions to the communion of the churches by profession of faith in the Lord Jesus, and in revivals of religion of a more or less gentle or extended character; some among the people of colour, some among our infant German churches, and some in our own institutions of learning of various grades.

Some of these the Presbyteries do not venture to call by the name of revivals, but still they were very delightful visitations of God's Holy Spirit, converting sinners, and fusing together the hearts of God's children in joy and love. Of these seasons the Presbytery of Louisville mentions several, giving no numbers—of Concord some, of Newton some, of Chillicothe one, of Knoxville one, of Ohio some, of Sangamon one, of West Lexington four, of Zanesville most of its churches, of Beaver one, of Montgomery four, affecting in some measure the people of colour, of Indianapolis some, of Dubuque some among the Germans, of Carlisle six or seven, of Huntingdon two, of Marion some, of Richland two, of New Brunswick some, of White Water five, of Georgia one, of Allegheny City one, of Maury four, of Redstone four, of North River two, of Lake two, of Washington seven, of Hocking some, Philadelphia some, in Burlington one, in Lexington five, in Passaic one, in St. Louis three, in Indiana a general one, resulting in one hundred and thirty-three additions to the communion of the church, in Miami some, "almost revivals," in Charleston two, extending in one case among the coloured people, and bringing about sixty to the profession of Christ, in Transylvania eight, in Albany some, in New Castle above three hundred added on profession of their faith, in West Hanover some, of Steubenville two, of Ebenezer several, and of Ningpo in China, constant evidences of the presence of God's Spirit. Besides these, some of the Presbyteries report additions in encouraging numbers to nearly or quite all their churches. (i) Another token of the very general favour of God during the closing year is in the preservation of life among ministers and people, and especially freedom from the visitations of pestilences and deadly epidemics.

The whole year, then, may justly be regarded as one of more than usual and general progress, and that of such a nature as to involve enlarged preparations for the work of the future.

4. It is proper to add in this connection, that those departments of the general aggressive work of the Church which are managed by the General Assembly through agents of its own appointment, have all been signally favoured by God during the year now closed. Not only are the operations of all these departments enlarged, and their work prosperous, but the true principles on which they are to be carried on and sustained by the people of God, are coming to be better understood. To the reports of all these Boards—Foreign and Domestic Missions, Education, and Publication, the Committee of Church Extension, and of the Theological Seminaries, you are referred for specific information on this general work of extending the gospel of Christ. Especially do we commend to your notice the fact that all these enterprises, with their widening fields of hopeful labour, and the calls of God to them, are all thrown upon the spontaneous support of God's people, and that they are regarded, not as agencies for raising so much money, and expending it judiciously, but as the channels through which the piety of the Church shall express itself in saving men. The offerings of Christ's people as acts of worship and expressions of love to him and to his, are gathered, and through these directed to the various objects embraced in extending his kingdom. Let all your alms and offerings be in this spirit of worship, and let the measure of your liberality be the measure of your love to Christ, and to the souls he loves. In this way the spiritual life of the Church is made a power among men for their salvation, the Saviour, through his loving Church, going forth conquering and to conquer.

5. Let us then address an earnest and faithful word to you in closing this communication. It is manifested that the measure of blessing and success granted you is in a high sense the measure of increased obligation for the work and the time to come. It is that much increase of power for the work of the Lord, and that power itself from him. Arise then, brethren, and gird yourselves with new alacrity in his name and strength to the conflict in which he leads. Employ with increasing energy, and constancy, and prayer, all the old means of aggression. Let those who are ready to faint in weakness because they are few, feel that they belong to the one great band, and labour in their appointed lot, as in the strength of the whole, and let those whom God hath blessed not stop to rejoice over their victories, but be humbled that they have done so little when there was so much to be done, and the whole land lay before them.

Remember the words of the Lord Jesus Christ as he sent forth his infant Church upon her work. As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world. The mission of his Church and his children in the world is the same in kind with his own. As he was sent forth as the great Teacher of the truth, as the great healing-worker among men, and as the self-sacrificing sufferer, so she must wear herself out in teaching men the given words of God, in healing the diseases and soothing the sorrows of humanity, and in giving her own blood as a living sacrifice for the redemption of the world. "He prayeth best that loveth best." Work for God, giving for Christ and his service, must attend prayer, or it is accounted vain oblation. Let the march of this Church, at least through the ages, be the extension of that life of Jesus Christ upon the earth, which was fitly inaugurated by the song of the angels on the plains of Bethlehem—"Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace and good will toward men"—and in the same spirit was closed, amidst the darkness and the agonies of the crucifixion, the path to triumph and glory.

Alexander M. Thorburn, a member of Union College, to enter upon his studies next session.

Of the above new students, William Cunningham was received by certificate from the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny, Pennsylvania. Henry A. Pratt from the Union Theological Seminary, New York, and John Gibson from the Associate Seminary at Xenia, Ohio. Joseph M. Bostick, Noble L. De Votie, Charles Manly, and De Witt C. Taylor, are members of Baptist churches. Owen Riedy and William M. Reily are members of German Reformed churches. Jacob Weidman is a member of a Lutheran church. Robert W. McCormick is a member of an Associate Reformed church, and John Gibson is a member of an Associate church.

The whole number of matriculated students whose names have been on the roll during the whole or a part of the past session, is one hundred and ten.

Besides these there have been in attendance on the exercises of the Institution, for a longer or shorter term, George Ainslie a member of the Choctaw Mission, J. S. Lawton a licentiate of the Baptist Church, from South Carolina, Robert C. Walker a graduate of the Union Theological Seminary, Va., and Amzi L. Armstrong, Henry M. Baird, and Joseph F. Jennison, graduates of this Seminary.

One student, viz. Rudolph A. Renz. has died during the session.

The Faculty in their report to the Board remark, that the general deportment of the students has been exemplary and their diligence in study commendable, and that the customary religious exercises have been attended with apparent devotion and interest. Some of the graduating class have solicited and received appointments as foreign missionaries, and others have the question of their duty in this matter under serious consideration.

At the close of the session the students were examined for nearly a week, in presence of a Committee of the Board.

The Committee of Examination in their report to the Board, state that with but very few exceptions of absence on account of sickness, the students enrolled on the catalogue had all attended through the entire term and were present at the examination; and that the examinations were eminently satisfactory, revealing great thoroughness, skill, and fidelity on the part of the instructors, and industry and application on the part of the public.

The Committee further state that they were gratified, not merely with the proofs of progress made by the students during the past year, and with the full and practical preparation of the class now leaving the Institution for their important duties, but also with the enterprise manifested by the Professors in their departments, leading them to present the old topics in new form, to explore new portions of the divine word, and to exalt to its due rank the work of preparation for the practice of the ministry. In this enterprise of the Professors, the Committee find the fullest assurance that every branch of each department of study will be entered as rapidly and pursued as fully as the powers of the student and the limited time of the course will permit.

Certificates of having finished the whole course prescribed in the Plan, were conferred on the following young men, viz. John J. Cameron, David Edgar, James Frothingham, Robert Gamble, J. Smith Gordon, Henry A. Harlow, Andrew D. Hepburn, William House, Joseph W. Hubbard, John L. Kehoo, J. Kain Large, Samuel A. McElhenny, Donald McLaren, George W. McMillen, James Y. Mitchell, William L. Mitchell, T. Spencer Ogden, Walter Powell, A. Henry Seely, James S. Simonton, A. A. Edward Taylor, William E. Westervelt, and Malcom W. Woodworth; and also on the following, with the interlined exception of "the full course of Hebrew," viz. Frank Chandler, A. Prentiss De Veuve, and Lambert S. Fine. Total number on whom the certificate was conferred, twenty-six.

And here it is deemed worthy of note, that of the whole Senior Class, consisting of twenty-six, who have now now completed their course and sustained the final examination, twenty-one are already engaged to enter upon specific fields of labour as pastors of churches, and that two others are designated as foreign missionaries under the care of our Board.

The Board have only further to report that the term of office of the following Directors expires during the sessions of the Assembly, viz.

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
John N. Campbell, D. D.	John Fine,
George Potts, D. D.	Ebenezer Platt,
John McDowell, D. D.	Ira C. Whitehead.
Daniel V. McLean, D. D.
William Neill, D. D.
Hugh N. Wilson, D. D.
John Thompson, D. D.

Respectfully submitted. Signed by order of the Board.

Princeton, May 12, 1857. JOHN McDOWELL, Secretary.

The Board have the pleasure to report to the Assembly, that a generous individual, who wishes his name not made public during his life-time, has given to the Seminary the sum of $10,000, to establish a fund, to be termed the "Student's Sustentation Fund," the interest only to be used, under the direction of the Trustees or Faculty, to aid needy students in the Seminary.

The Board would also report, that Dr. Hugh L. Hodge, of Philadelphia, has presented to the Permanent Education Fund, a bond for $500 of the Cleaveland and Toledo Railroad Company, drawing seven per cent. interest.

The Board would further report, that Miss Jane Lowrey, deceased, of Albany, N. Y., has bequeathed to the Seminary $300.

The Board have also to report, that Mr. Evert Bergen, of the township of Reading, county of Hunterdon, New Jersey, and belonging to the congregation of Lamington, has left by will to the Seminary the sum of $150, (which sum has been paid,) to be applied to the education of young men for the gospel ministry, under the direction of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

From the Librarian's Report, it appears that there have been added to the Library by donation, through the year, 73 volumes. Of these, 42 volumes were from the Presbyterian Board of Publication, being copies of their recent issues; 15 valuable volumes from Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart, of New York; 3 copies of Turretine's Theology, from Rev. James Smith; a Panjabi Dictionary, from the Lodiana Mission; a copy of their quarto Bible, from the American Bible Society; the Smithsonian Contributions, Vol. VIII., from the Smithsonian Institute; the Memoir of Johnston, from the Rev. Dr. James Carnahan of Princeton, N. J.; and the Annals of the American Pulpit, from Messrs. Robert Carter and Brothers, New York.

Respectfully submitted. By order of the Board.

The following students have completed the course of studies prescribed in the plan of the Seminary, viz.—John M. Goul, Daniel A. Penick, William T. Price, George A. Russell, Thomas Wharey and John D. Wilson.

The Rev. William J. Hoge, the Professor elect, mentioned in the last report, entered immediately on the duties of his office, and has prosecuted them with very becoming zeal and cheering success; and was duly inaugurated on the 12th of May, 1857.

The course of studies as arranged and reported last year, has been diligently followed by the students.

The Funds as reported by the Treasurer are as follows:

The whole invested funds of the Seminary,		$82,300
Amount yielding 5 per cent. interest,	10,000
Amount yielding 8 per cent. "	15,100
Amount yielding 6 per cent. "	57,200
		$82,300

The real estate of the Seminary consists of about thirty-five acres of land; the Seminary building; three Professor's houses, with a fourth in course of erection, and a large and commodious steward's house.

The rooms in the Seminary are well furnished, and we are now prepared to accommodate from 60 to 80 students.

The Library according to the report of the Librarian consists of 4443 volumes, 123 of which had been given since last report.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

There are at present three Scholarships, and a fourth nearly completed, connected with the Seminary, and efforts are making to increase them to at least twelve, as soon as practicable.

FUNDS.

The increase of the invested funds of the Seminary since the last report is $7300 in addition to paying for the improvements now in progress, $7500.

The Board have an Agent now in the field, and expect to increase the endowment of the Seminary to $125,000.

At its present meeting the Board resolved to increase the salaries of the Professors each $150, making them each $1350 for the ensuing year, and to be increased to $1500 as soon as the funds of the Seminary will justify it.

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Fourth Annual Report, ending May 7, 1857, as follows:

During the year now closed the whole number of students at any time in attendance has been thirty-six; of whom the following were matriculated.

John J. Cooke, graduate of Centre College.
William F. Gillespie, graduate of West Tennessee College.
James P. McMillan, " Centre "
John Montgomery, " " "
R. K. Smoot, " Hanover "
W. D. Symington, " " "

The following young men, twelve in number, having completed the entire course of study prescribed by the Plan of the Seminary, and having also sustained their annual examinations, together with a final examination on the whole three years' course of study in the presence of the Board of Directors, have received the certificate of the Seminary:—Lindsay H. Blanton, James H. Clarke, Thomas F. Cortelyou, Samuel W. Davies, Sidney S. Gill, Joseph T. Hendrick, S. A. Mutchmore, A. W. Pitzer, Edwin H. Rutherford, William R. Sim, Rudolph Shide, Thomas H. Urmston.

In regard to the state of the Seminary the Professors report that the students have attended to private study and to public instruction with commendable punctuality and diligence. Their religious affections have been greatly quickened by their being made partakers in the blessings of an interesting work of grace in the churches and institutions of learning here, which commenced with the observance of the day of prayer for Colleges, and continued several weeks.

The Professors further report that, on mature reflection—First. They deem it very important that, in conformity to the earnest recommendation contained in the Plan of the Seminary, students should not fail to put themselves under the care of the Presbyteries as candidates for the ministry at an early period of their professional studies. They deem it very desirable also that the students should apply for licensure, as probationers for the ministry, at the end of the second year in the Seminary. The effect of this system will be to subject the candidates to the direct supervision of the Presbytery from the beginning to the end of their professional education; to bring them under the official and formal notice of the Presbytery on two distinct occasions before they complete their studies; to afford them an opportunity during their second summer vacation of four months to perform missionary labour as a part of training, to enable them, by a trial of their gifts and knowledge, to form a clear and definite judgment as to what branches of knowledge and training demands their particular attention during the third year of their course.

Secondly. It is of great importance that the student should be present at the beginning of the session, stay until its close, devote himself to theological study exclusively, attend with strict punctuality to the daily instructions and studies, and spend the Lord's day, not in preaching, or other labours abroad, but in the public and private offices of devotion usual in the Seminary. The conception of our plan is, eight months scholastic, and four months practical training; and this conception should be thoroughly applied as far as possible in the case of every student in every part of his course.

Thirdly. It is desirable that all the students be examined at the end of each session on the studies of the year, and in addition thereto that the senior students he examined on the whole three years' course, both examinations, but especially the final one, to be conducted by the Board of Directors, or in their presence, and to be minute and thorough, and the certificate of the Seminary to be granted to those only who sustain these examinations. The licensure of the student at the end of his second year will obviate the necessity of his being absent at this final examination.

The Directors further report to the Assembly, that the Rev. Stuart Robinson, who was appointed by the last Assembly to the chair of Pastoral Theology and Church Government, entered on his duties soon after the beginning of the Session. The Directors had made no such arrangements as the Plan requires for his formal and public inauguration at their spring meeting. They have, therefore, made an order for the discharge of this part of their duty, at an adjourned meeting of the Board, to be held at Lexington on the 22d inst.

The Rev. Joseph G. Reaser, who has been, from the foundation of the Seminary, employed as a Teacher of Oriental and Biblical Literature, and who has discharged his duties with fidelity and skill, has retired from the service of the Seminary. He carries with him the best wishes of the Directors and Professors for his future usefulness. In this posture of the affair the Board respectfully recommend to the General Assembly the appointment of a full Professor in the vacant chair.

The Board of Directors have to report that it has pleased the Providence of God to remove two of their members by death, viz. the Rev. James Coe, D. D., who has been the first Vice-President of the Board from the foundation of the Seminary, and Mr. Thomas E. West, who was appointed by the last Assembly. Their term of office would have expired in May, 1858.

The term of office of the following Directors expires with the sessions of the Assembly, viz.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES.

There are three corporations chartered by the Legislature of Kentucky which hold and manage funds and property for this Seminary. The oldest of the three is the Board of Trustees of the Centre College of Kentucky; the second is the Trustees of the Theological Fund of the Synod of Kentucky; the third is the Trustees of the Danville Theological Seminary. The Trustees of the first Board are elected by the Synod of Kentucky, one-third every year; and those of the second Board by that Synod, the whole of them every year. The covenants which were made by the Assembly with the first Board and with the Synod of Kentucky in 1853–4, and which are set forth along with all the charters in the first annual catalogue of this Seminary, and by description in the Plan of the Seminary adopted by the Assembly in 1854, explain the exact relation of all these Boards to this Seminary. This third Board, which alone has made any effort to collect funds for the Seminary, and which alone reports habitually to the Assembly, makes report of the state of the funds of the other two Boards, on such information as is furnished to it from time to time; and precisely of the funds in its own hands.

1. This Board of Trustees holds in individual bonds and notes, bearing interest,	$47,740 37
Stocks, bonds of the city of Louisville,	16,000 00
Cash on hand,	1,340 24
Total funds held by this Board,	$65,080 61
2. The Trustees of the Synod of Kentucky's Theological Fund hold in Bank stocks,	$21,100 00
In individual bonds and notes uncollected,	1,420 15
Total held by that Board,	$22,520 15
3. The Trustees of the Centre College, Kentucky, hold in bank stocks and public bonds,	$5,600 00
Cash,	123 00
Total held by that Board,	$5,723 00
Making the total amount taken by all three of the Boards, taken together,
Public securities deemed safe and productive,	$42,700 00
Individual notes and bonds bearing interest,	49,160 37
Cash on hand,	1,463 24
Total of all productive funds,	$93,323 61

4. Besides the funds stated above, there are railroad and turnpike stocks, amounting to $1900, which have been given to the Seminary; but which are unproductive and of uncertain value. The real estate which has been given to the Seminary, and purchased by this Board for the uses of the Institution may be estimated at about $10,000, which is paid for, but is wholly unproductive; and the Library of the Seminary to which large additions have been made during the past year, as reported to the Assembly by the Board of Directors, may be estimated as worth about $7,000.

5. The actual cost of carrying on the institution during the last year has been $6124 90. Of this sum $4750 have gone to pay the salaries of three Professors and a Teacher in the Seminary; $897 have been expended on real estate; and $477 90 have been used in incidental expenses. The actual yearly expenses of the Seminary cannot be put down at less than $7000: being $6000 for salaries and $1000 for all other expenses.

6. The decisive action of the Assembly of 1856 in favour of this Seminary has proved of great value to it; and the progress made within the year towards endowing it, has been greater than during the two preceding years. Besides about twenty-five thousand dollars collected in cash and individual bonds, nearly as much more in legacies to the Seminary has fallen in within the year. From this latter source nothing has as yet been realized; nor is this Board able to say when the whole or any part of these legacies can be made available. This Board thinks it is its duty to ask the special attention of the Assembly to the very large legacy of the late Judge Broadnax, of Kentucky, for the benefit of this Seminary; and supposing the Assembly's Board of Education would probably bring the matter before the Assembly, this Board has appointed two of its members, namely, Rev. Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, and Rev. Dr. W. M. Scott, who will be members of the Assembly, a Committee, on its behalf, with full powers on the part of this Board to have the whole matter settled in such a way as will be in accordance with the judgment of the Assembly and the generous designs of the testator.

7. This Board has encountered the greatest difficulties from the beginning in obtaining the permanent services of competent individuals to act as agents for it; insomuch, that by far the larger part of the great sums of money subscribed within the past four years has been obtained by voluntary agencies and at very little cost. This very remarkable feature of their business, while it has been singularly encouraging in some respects, has had a tendency to retard the complete endowment of the Seminary, and to delay the collection and investment of the funds subscribed and to produce considerable irregularity, and some loss of interest in the annual income of the institution. The Board are earnestly desirous to complete the endowment of the Seminary at the earliest possible period; and will leave nothing undone on their part to effect that object. It is supposed that a hundred thousand dollars will be required in addition to the present resources of the Seminary, to put it in a condition to compete fairly with the older institutions of a similar kind, and to accomplish fully the objects for which it was founded. There is not the least intention on the part of the Board of Trustees to ask from the Church a single dollar beyond what is necessary to place the Institution on the footing contemplated from the beginning, and expressed in every act of the Assembly concerning it. Nor have they allowed a single dollar to be spent that a wise and strict economy did not approve. Indeed, they have by diligent and discreet management more money now than was given to them in all, besides paying their way and supporting the Seminary for four years. While they feel the utmost satisfaction in acknowledging the great liberality of the Church, the Church is entitled to know that the money given to this object is not given in vain.

8. There are special powers vested by the charter of this Seminary in the General Assembly, when that venerable body may hold its meetings in the State of Kentucky. As that event occurs this year, and may not occur again for a number of years, the Board of Trustees beg leave to call the attention of the Assembly to this state of case. There are considerations which may perhaps make it desirable for the Assembly to exercise these special powers, if it were only to show, in that manner, their unquestionable existence in that body.

All which is respectfully submitted,

MARK HARDIN,
President of Board of Trustees.

Danville, May 6th, 1857.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1856-7.

The Board of Domestic Mission in presenting their Fifty-fifth Annual Report to the General Assembly, desire, first of all, to acknowledge with gratitude their obligations to the great Head of the Church, for the measure of success with which he has graciously crowned their labours during the last fiscal year.

In some respects we are not able to report any increase; yet in others we are privileged to record a gratifying progress. While our receipts have fallen off, as compared with the year preceding, the number of our missionaries has been considerably augmented—the operations of the Board extended—and what is better than all, the blessing of God has manifestly rested upon the labours of his servants.

OPERATIONS OF THE YEAR.

Of Missions.—Statistical Details.—The number of missionaries in commission March 1, 1856, was 387, to which have been added, to March 1, 1857, 203, making the whole number 590, and more by 24 than the year previous.

The number of churches and missionary stations, wholly or in part supplied, (as far as reported,) by our missionaries, is 904.

The number of newly organized churches is 59.

The number of admissions on examination is 1,940, and on certificate, 2,054, making a total of admissions of 3,994.

The number in communion with churches connected with the Board is 21,863.

The number of Sabbath-schools is 326; of teachers 2,610; and of scholars 16,409.

The number of baptisms is 2,144.

Of the 590 missionaries who have been in commission during the year, 188 have sent in no special report for the Assembly; nearly one-third of the whole number; consequently we must increase all the returns nearly one-third, to make them correct.

Appropriations.—The appropriations made to our missionaries from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, have been at the office in Philadelphia, $58,885.17, and at the office in Louisville, 37,219.75; making a total of $96,104.92.

The appropriations made to our missionaries, from March 1, 1855 to March 1, 1856, were, at the office in Philadelphia, $52,548.34, and at the office in Louisville, $34,645.83; making a total of $87,194.17.

From this statement it appears that the appropriations made at the office in Philadelphia, exceeded those made the year before $6,336.83, and at the office in Louisville they were more by $2,573.92; thus making the total appropriations this year more than the year preceding, by $8,910.75.

For the purpose of further comparison, we may state, that the average appropriations made during the preceding four years, from 1852 to 1856, were, at the office in Philadelphia, $44,776.21, and at the office in Louisville, $28,729.19; making a total average of $73,505.40.

From this statement it appears that the appropriations made from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, at the office in Philadelphia, exceeded the average of those made during the four previous years, $14,108.96, and at the office in Louisville, $8,490.56; thus making the total excess of appropriations this year above the average appropriations of the four preceding years, $22,599.52.

Receipts.—The total amount of receipts from all sources, from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, is 93,248,99, to which add balances on hand in the different treasuries, March 1, 1856, $21,133.17; making the available resources of the Board during the year, $114,382.16.

The amount paid out at the different treasuries for the same time, is $95,121.76, leaving an available balance in all the Treasuries, on the 1st of March, 1857, of $19,260.40. The amount due the missionaries at the same date was $12,964.86, leaving an unexpended balance of $6,295.54.

The aggregate receipts from March 1, 1856 to March 1, 1857, have been less, as compared with the receipts from March 1, 1855, to March 1, 1856, $3,995.63. The falling off has been in individual or special donations and legacies, $2,191.33, and in the contributions of the churches, $1,804.30. The receipts at the office in Philadelphia, including the Presbyterial Treasuries, were greater by $2,333.20, and the receipts at the office in Louisville, were less by $6,328.83.

Our Missions.—During the year, the Board have established new missions in various sections of our country. They have also to the extent of their ability re-enforced our missionaries in the newer States and Territories. Two additional missionaries have been sent to California, three to Minnesota, one, in addition to those already there, has been employed in the Territory of Oregon, and one in the Territory of Washington. We have also commissioned one in the State of New Hampshire. Seven additional missionaries have been employed in Missouri. Ten new men have been commissioned in Wisconsin, and seventeen in Iowa, which, with the changes that have taken place, make an increase of fifteen in those two States. We have also added two to the number of our missionaries in the Territory of Kansas, and the same number in the Territory of Nebraska. The Board have also continued to employ a number of missionaries among our foreign population. During the past year, one has laboured among the French, one among the Bohemians, one among the Welch, and thirteen among the Germans. Six of our missionaries have laboured chiefly among the coloured people.

With regard to the spiritual state of our missions, the Board state that, so far as they can judge from the reports of the missionaries, there is ground for gratitude and praise.

Clothing.—Clothing valued at $9,131.81 has been received during the year, and distributed among the missionaries who needed it. Of this amount $4,949.72, were received at the office in Philadelphia; $2,488.45 at the office in Louisville; and $1,693.64, at the depot in Pittsburgh.

ITINERANTS.

During the past year, thirty-three of our missionaries have been commissioned and employed as itinerants. The greater part of our missionaries perform more or less of such service, but the number above mentioned are either wholly, or almost entirely employed as itinerants.

The Board again strongly urges the importance of placing a number of weak and feeble churches under the charge of itinerant missionaries, in order to economize both the men and the means of the Church. They state, however, the impracticability of employing any very large number of itinerants in wholly destitute districts, where there are no organized churches, and from which they could derive no pecuniary support, without reducing the amount now appropriated to the missionary churches.

OBJECTS OF THE BOARD, AND THEIR IMPORTANCE.

The objects of the Board of Domestic Missions are two-fold:

1. To supply vacant churches, and assist weak and feeble congregations in the support of pastors.

2. To extend the boundaries of the Church, by employing ministers to preach the gospel, organize new congregations, and form churches in the hitherto neglected and waste places of our country.

The last General Assembly expressed no more than the truth when they declared, that "the cause of Domestic Missions, in its present and prospective relations and objects, is second to no other in magnitude and importance."

PROGRESS MADE BY OUR CHURCH IN THE MISSIONARY WORK.

In 1828, the year of the re-organization of the Board, there were but 31 missionaries, and an income of $2,400.00 only.

In 1840, two years after the division of the Church, and when the parts were fairly separated, there were 256 missionaries, and an income of $40,734.00.

In 1856–7, the number of missionaries employed was 590, and the income $93,248.99.

Since the re-organization of the Board, we have increased 14 Synods, 58 Presbyteries, 1035 ministers, 1178 churches, and 87,447 members. Since 1840, two years after the division of the Church, we have increased 13 Synods, 53 Presbyteries, 705 ministers, 1473 churches, and 107,172 communicants.

These results may well excite our gratitude to God, and ought to stimulate us to greater activity, liberality, and prayer.

SALARIES OF MISSIONARIES.

During the past year, the Board have increased their average appropriation to the missionaries $17.48. The average appropriation by the Board to the missionaries last year was $191.20.

During the last four years the Board have increased their average appropriations to the missionaries $59.38, which is a little over 45 per cent. By this advance, the annual liabilities of the Board, with the present number of missionaries, have been augmented more than $35,000.00.

If the people whom they serve had advanced proportionably, our missionaries would now be comfortably sustained. But while the Board have increased their appropriations over 45 per cent., their people have advanced only about 30 per cent. The total average salary paid by the Board and the people to the missionaries last year was $503.60.

NEED OF FUNDS.

The receipts of the Board, from all sources, as compared with the year preceding, fell short nearly $4,000.00, while the appropriations exceeded those of the previous year nearly $9,000.00.

The receipts from the churches fell short of the payments last year upwards of twenty-three thousand dollars! ($23,282.70,) and but for the balance on hand at the commencement of the year, and the large amount received from individual donations and legacies, we would have been largely in debt to our missionaries at the close of the year!

It is true, the available balance in hand on the 1st of March, 1857, though less by nearly $2,000.00 than the previous year, is comparatively large, and without explanation may readily mislead the patrons of the Board. It should be borne in mind, however, that the amount on hand at the period of the year when our balance is reported, is always larger than at any other time. From the month of March the receipts begin to fall off, and during the latter part of the spring, the entire summer, and the early part of the fall, the receipts are comparatively small; so that unless our available balance at the commencement of the fiscal year is comparatively large, it would be impracticable to carry on the operations of the Board during the year. For example, at the beginning of the fiscal year, March 1, 1856, we reported an available balance of more than $21,000.00; and yet by the 1st of November ensuing, we had only about $3,000.00 in hand!—not more than enough to meet the usual payments for two or three weeks!

Now, with a smaller balance at the beginning of the year—a considerable increase in the number of our missionaries—and an excess of appropriations amounting to nearly $9,000.00, it is obvious that our available balance must be gradually reduced as the year advances, and may be entirely exhausted before the 1st of November next.

Moreover, it is very important that the Board should not be hampered or embarrassed in undertaking the establishment of new missions.

As there are now no collecting agents in the field, we must rely upon the pastors and sessions to see that collections are taken up for the Board during the year.

NON-CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

The Board of Domestic Missions, like the other Boards of the Church, is trying the experiment of what is called the "Systematic Benevolence Plan," and has dispensed with Collecting Agents altogether. This experiment has, perhaps, thus far, worked as well as could be reasonably expected.

It is encouraging to find that the number of contributing churches is increasing, though very slowly, from year to year. In 1855—6, the increase over the previous year was about one hundred—and last year, 1856—57, the increase over the former year was about one hundred and fifty-three.

This result, although encouraging, is far from being satisfactory, while the number of non-contributing churches continues to be so large. The number of non-contributing churches last year was considerably over sixteen hundred!

The Board earnestly urges the presentation of the cause by every minister, and a collection by every church, however small it might be, and respectfully insists upon the importance of greater attention to this matter on the part of all our Presbyteries. Without more effective measures to carry out the Systematic Benevolence plan, it will undoubtedly prove a failure.

The Board express their special regret that many missionary churches—churches receiving aid from the Missionary Fund, take up no collection for the Board.

SELF-SUSTENTATION.

While the Board express their gratification that some of the churches have, during the year, become self-sustaining, they also express their regret that the number is comparatively so small.

Many churches now receiving aid could do without it, if the necessary self-denial and effort were made by them—and many others are receiving more assistance than is really necessary.

The attention of the Presbyteries is earnestly called to this subject as one of great and growing importance. The number of unprogressive churches is now so great, and the appropriations made to them so large in the aggregate, that they already absorb a large part of the Missionary Fund, and seriously embarrass the Board in the establishment of new missions.

CHURCH DEBTS.

Many churches remain for years dependent upon the Board of Domestic Missions, in consequence of debts contracted in the erection of church edifices—and many others apply from year to year for much larger appropriations towards the support of their pastors, than they otherwise would, from the same cause.

The missionaries of the Board are therefore advised not to encourage the building of houses of worship which would involve their congregations in an amount of debt which would impair their ability to support the gospel among them and protract their dependence upon the Board.

CHANGE OF TITLE.

In order to obviate the inconvenience, and the litigation and loss occasioned by the want of a distinctive title, the Board obtained from the Legislature of Pennsylvania a change of the corporate title of the Board. The change consists, simply, in the insertion of the term Domestic.

The corporate title is now as follows, viz.—"The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

As the benevolent intentions of testators have often been thwarted by the imperfect and illegal manner in which their wills have been written, and many thousands of dollars have been thus lost by the Board, all who desire to make a bequest to the Board are respectfully and earnestly requested to be careful in drawing their wills, and especially in giving the full and exact corporate title of the Board.

The State laws differ so much that no one form will answer in all the States, but in every case it is essential to give THE RIGHT CORPORATE NAME. When real estate or other property is given, let it be particularly described.

CONCLUSION.

The report concludes with an earnest appeal to Christians to humble themselves before God in view of their past short-comings, to be more prayerful and liberal in time to come —and to take encouragement from what the Lord has enabled his Church to accomplish in this vast and most promising of all missionary fields.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1857.

Part I.—Ministerial Education.

The total number of candidates on the roll of the Board has been 383, which is one more than last year.

The Report discusses the subject of prayer to the Lord of the harvest, and after alluding to the greatness of the harvest, the fewness of the labourers, and some other points, shows the special fitness of prayer for the increase of the ministry, 1st. In view of the relation of the ministry to redemption and the salvation of souls. 2. Preaching is the divine plan. 3. The call and qualifications for the office come from God. 4. Prayer has the clearest warrant of all instrumentalities. 5. Prayer is, in its nature, the highest kind of instrumentality in securing divine blessings. 6. Prayer gives energy to all other means. 7. Our young men are exposed to many temptations to turn aside from the profession of the ministry. 8. And the whole subject is one which peculiarly concerns the glory of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Part II.—Christian Education in Schools, Academies, and Colleges.

Primary Schools.—Some very interesting schools have been established during the year. The aggregate number is about one hundred.

Presbyterial Academies.—The number of Presbyterial Academies is sixty-two, in three of which revivals of religion have been reported during the year.

Colleges.—The Presbyterian Colleges are twenty-three in number, most of which are in a prosperous condition. In Centre College, Kentucky, a revival occurred, in which about twenty-five students have professed a hope.

The relation of Colleges to Foreign Missions is discussed in the Report, concluding with the two practical inferences that religion ought to be prominently held forth in colleges, and that the attention of our young men ought to be directed to foreign missions early in their course of studies.

Funds.—The following is the state of the Treasury.

	Candidates' Fund.	School Fund.	Miscellaneous Fund.	African Fund.
Receipts, - - -	$42,372 31	$6,068 06	$105 00	$87 02
Balance, - - -	2,027 29	4 24	1 26	1300 43
Income, - - -	$44,399 60	$6,072 30	$106 26	$1387 45
Payments, - -	42,029 31	6,035 34	102 50
Balance, - - -	$2,370 29	$36 96	$3 76	$1387 45

Total receipts for the year, $48,632 39; total income, $51,965 61; total payments, $48,167 15; total balances, exclusive of the permanent African Fund, $2798 46.

The funds of the Board have been larger this year, for the support of candidates, than at any previous year since the organization of the Board.

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT, FOR 1857.

Finances.—The receipts from all sources, as stated in the Report of the Treasurer, have been, - - - - -	$207,464 47
To which add the balance from last year, - - - -	24 86
	$207,489 33
The payments, as shown in the Report of the Treasurer, have been, -	$218,520 17
Leaving a balance against the Treasury of - - -	$11,030 84

Besides the above report of moneys received and expended, the Treasurer has received some donations to the fund for the Waldensian Theological Seminary, and to the fund for the support and education of the children of missionaries—$491 95 to the former, and $2525 to the latter.

Publications.—The number of pages of the Home and Foreign Record, devoted to the missionary cause, has continued without change.

The Foreign Missionary has been published as heretofore. The number of copies issued of the pamphlet edition was 3750 each month, most of which are sent free to minters and donors of ten dollars and upwards; of the newspaper edition 16,000 copies were published.

Of the last Annual Report, 3600 copies were published in a pamphlet form, and 21,000 in newspaper form, as an extra number of the Record.

Missionaries sent out.—To China, three ministers and their wives; to India, one minister and his wife; to the Indian Tribes, five ministers, three laymen, and fifteen females, the wives of missionaries and others mostly teachers. The names of the new labourers will appear in connection with their missions.

ABSTRACT OF THE NINETEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The entire aspect of the work entrusted to the Board of Publication, at the close of another year, is one of decided progress and encouragement. In every department of its operations there has been an important advance made upon all former years. This will appear from the following facts, presented to the Assembly, as last year, under the three convenient heads of—I. Production. II. Distribution. III. Sustentation.

I. Production. The Publishing Agent reports that there have been issued 60 new works, viz. 45 new books, and 14 new tracts. Of these there have been issued 73,000 volumes, and 27,000 copies of new tracts, besides 25,000 copies of the Presbyterian Almanac for 1857. This is an increase of 47,500 copies of new books over last year.

The reprints of former publications have been 677,500 copies, exclusive of 18,000 copies of selections from Rouse's Version of the Psalms.

The total number of copies of old and new publications issued during the year, has been 802,500 copies, being an increase over last year of 212,250 copies.

The total number of copies published since the organization of the Board, to March 1, 1857, has been 6,353,438.

The Report notices especially, a volume of "Plantation Sermons," by a South Carolina pastor, as admirably adapted to be useful everywhere, and among all classes of people, but particularly intended for the benefit of the coloured population of our Southern States.

The Board has also issued a volume of Music, adapted to the use of children in families and Sabbath-schools, called "The Juvenile Psalmodist." It also has now in press "The Social Psalmodist," adapted to use in family worship, and in social worship generally.

The Board has bestowed much attention to supplying the wants of the Church in the matter of Sabbath-school books. A large number of the new books issued this year have been of this description, and of admirable excellence. Suitable manuscripts for publication are still earnestly solicited.

Periodicals. The circulation of the Home and Foreign Record is now 19,000 copies, having increased 1500 copies since the last report.

The circulation of the Sabbath-School Visitor is now 47,000 copies, having increased 3,000 copies since the last report.

II. Distribution. There are three channels through which the publications of the Board reach the hands of the people.

1. By regular sales from the publishing-house. These have amounted during the past year to 193,578 volumes, and 477,441 pages of tracts. This is an increase of 22,062 volumes over the sales of the previous year, exclusive of pamphlets and periodicals.

2. Distribution by Colportage. In this department there has been great enlargement, and peculiar encouragement during the past year.

The number of colporteurs in commission within the year has been 254, being an increase of 44 over the last report. These have been distributed into 32 States and Territories, besides the entire range of the British Provinces, from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to Lake Superior. A larger number than ever before have occupied Florida, Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, Wisconsin, Michigan, Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, California, Oregon, and other new, needy, and important fields.

These colporteurs have sold 124,579 volumes; distributed gratuitously 2,140,379 pages of tracts; have given away 14,802 volumes, and have visited 114,182 families. In every one of these items there has been a large increase on the results of former years. The Report estimates that at least three quarters of a million of immortal souls have received during the past year, either orally or in print, a message respecting eternal life.

3. Distribution by grants of the Executive Committee. These have amounted to 3,951 volumes, and 162,582 pages of tracts, which have been chiefly given to needy Sabbath-schools, churches, and ministers; and to individuals for gratuitous distribution.

The total distributions of the year have been as follows:

By sales at Publishing-house,	193,578	volumes.
By sales by Colporteurs,	124,579	"
Given by Colporteurs,	14,802	"
Granted by Executive Committee,	3,951	"
Total number of volumes,	336,910

which is an increase over last year, excluding sales and grants reported by Synodical colporteurs last year and not this year reported, of 42,893 volumes.

The total distribution of tracts this year has been by

Sales at Publishing-house,	477,441	pages.
Distributed by Colporteurs,	2,140,379	"
Granted by Executive Committee,	162,582	"
Total of tracts distributed,	2,780,402

besides a large quantity of pamphlets and periodical papers.

III. Sustentation. In regard to the receipts of the Board, there has been a most gratifying increase this year from every source.

The total receipts of the year have been from all sources, $119,321.03, being an increase of $17,227.79 over the preceding twelve months.

The total expenditures of all kinds has been $118,808.42.

The amount received from sales of books, tracts, and Sabbath-School Visitors, has been $87,424.38, which is an increase of $10,512.81 over the preceding year.

The balance in the Treasury, March 1, 1857, is $17,546.57, of which, however, a large part must soon be paid out for work now in progress.

Colportage Fund. The amount received from all sources for this Fund has been $23,823.62. This is a very handsome increase over last year of $9,008.50. Deducting from this, amounts received from legacies, individual donations, and miscellaneous sources, there has been received from the churches the sum of $15,389.25, an increase over the sum received from the churches last year, of $4,689.25, or within a very small fraction of 50 per cent. increase. It is also a highly gratifying fact, that the number of churches contributing to this Fund has increased about 40 per cent. during the last year. Yet, owing to the balance due from the Colporteur Fund at the beginning of the year, and to the enlarged number of colporteurs employed, the Fund is still overdrawn in the sum of $2,887.77.

Agencies. Not a single collecting agent has been employed by the Board during the past year. Hence every dollar contributed for Colportage has been applied directly to that important work, without any deduction for such agencies. And the results above related encourage the Board to hope that, unless special emergencies should arise, it will not be necessary to resort to collecting agencies.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S CHURCH EXTENSION COMMITTEE.

COMMITTEE ROOMS, No. 88 Market Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Corresponding Secretary—Rev. H. I. COE.

Treasurer—ARCHIBALD GAMBLE, ESQ.

Communications on the subject of Church Extension should be addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, No. 88 Market Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

Donations should be sent to Archibald Gamble, Esq., St. Louis, Mo.; or, if more convenient, to J. D. Thorpe, Esq., Cincinnati, Ohio; A. Davidson, Esq., Louisville, Ky.; S. D. Powel, Esq., Treasurer of the Board of Domestic Missions, No. 821 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia; J. D. Williams, Esq., Pittsburgh, Pa., or to William Rankin, Esq., Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions, 23 Centre Street, New York.

ABSTRACT OF THE SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

The Church Extension Committee rejoice to report to the General Assembly, that their fiscal year closing April 1st, 1857, has, through the favour of God, been one of unexpected prosperity. The receipts, as compared with previous years, show an unparalleled advance, having risen from $9,751 31, last year, to $23,265 61 this year, an increase of receipts over last year of more than 138 per cent.

The number of contributing churches this year is still more largely in advance of last year, having increased from 167 to 502; a gain in one year of over 300 per cent.

These results have been reached without any salaried collecting agent, the only salaried officer of the Committee having taken up but three collections for it during the year. Two of these three collections were in churches for the time being vacant.

Another very gratifying fact is, that during the past year not a single church applying for aid, and furnishing the full information necessary to intelligent action, has been sent away without an appropriation.

Encouraging as these results are, they yet fall very far short of meeting the wants of the Church Extension enterprise. Their inadequacy will appear from the statements respecting the operations of the year, and our destitutions herewith submitted.

APPLICATIONS.

The number of applications for aid received from April 1st, 1856, to April 1st, 1857, is NINETY-FIVE. These applications are from churches in the bounds of twenty-seven Synods and fifty-nine Presbyteries. Two of the applications do not specify the amount of assistance they need. The remaining ninety-three ask aid to the aggregate amount of $32,939 43.

Besides these applications received during the year, there were on file and undisposed of April 1st, 1856, thirty-one recent applications, amounting in the aggregate to $7,020.

The total demands for aid to churches during the year may, therefore, safely be said to have exceeded $40,000. These applications, with the necessary expenses of administration, swell the demands of the year to $20,000 more than its receipts.

There remained on file April 1st, 1857, awaiting further information and undisposed of, forty-four applications, calling for nearly $17,000.

APPROPRIATIONS.

During the year ending April 1st, 1857, appropriations have been made to SEVENTY-EIGHT churches. These seventy-eight churches are scattered over twenty-six Synods and forty-eight Presbyteries. The amount appropriated to these seventy-eight churches is $17,693 28.

The number of churches to whom appropriations have been paid during the year, is likewise seventy-eight. The amount paid to them is $14,251 80.

From April 1st, 1856, to April 1st, 1857, seven churches forfeited their appropriations, by failing to comply with the usual conditions on which appropriations are made, within the two years allowed for that purpose. The appropriations withdrawn amounted to $800. Two of the appropriations amounting to $250, were, however, applied for again—renewed, and paid during the year.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The appropriated balance in the treasury of the Church Extension Committee, April 1st, 1856, was $2,846 90. The receipts from April 1st, 1856, to April 1st, 1857, from all sources, were $23,265 61; of which, $19,510 03 was from churches and Sabbath-schools. The available resources of the year were, therefore, $26,112 51.

The expenditures of the year, as shown by the Treasurer's statement appended to this Report, were $17,477 93. The unpaid appropriations for which the Committee were liable, April 1st, 1857, amounted to $10,846 50. The liabilities of the Committee, consequently, exceeded their means on hand April 1st, 1857, $2,211 92. For nine of the unpaid appropriations amounting to $2,787 50, the Committee were not, however, immediately liable on that day, as by the terms on which they were granted they did not become due until after April 1st, 1857. Hence the available resources of the Committee were, at the close of the year, sufficient to meet its immediate liabilities, and leave in the treasury an appropriated balance of $575 58.

CONDITIONS OF APPROPRIATIONS.

At the time of the last Annual Report, the usual conditions on which appropriations were made, were these two: First, that the Trustees of the Church aided should certify to the Committee that the amount appropriated to their church would complete its house of worship and leave the whole property free from debt. Second, that the appropriation, unless thus called for within two years from its date, should be regarded as withdrawn.

COST OF CHURCHES.

The Committee entered upon their labours with some fears that the tendencies to extravagance, so prevalent in our age, might show themselves in the churches they were called to aid, and increase the difficulties of the task imposed upon them by the Assembly. After nearly two years experience they are happy to say, that thus far their fears have not been realized. Scarcely a case has come before them in which there was any reason to believe the applicants for aid had overpassed the limits of expenditure a wise economy and judicious regard to their circumstances would appoint. As already stated, the Committee have made appropriations to aid in the completion of 136 different houses of worship. As nearly as can be ascertained, the cost of 116 of these 136 church buildings ranges from $500 to $2,500; of fifteen, from $2,500 to $5,000; and of the remaining five, from $7,500 to $10,000. The appropriation to one of these five most expensive churches, was a special donation for it from a sister church in the same city. Three of the other four were drawing aid from the Board of Domestic Missions at the time the appropriation, were made to them. The pastor of the fourth was eking out a very scanty support by teaching. The amount appropriated to no one of these four churches exceeded a fifteenth part of the cost of the enterprise, and in the case of three of them, fell below a twentieth part of their outlay.

In one hundred and ten of the one hundred and thirty-six churches to whom appropriations have been made, the number of members ranged from five to fifty; in twenty-three, from fifty to one hundred, and in the other three was over one hundred.

It may not be amiss to remark that the cost of building material and mechanical labour has alarmingly increased within the last two years, especially in those frontier and prairie regions where the work of the Committee chiefly lies. In some places clear lumber now commands from $80 to $125 per thousand feet, and other necessary expenses of building are in proportion.

The Committee have furthermore found to their surprise that the cost of church lots is, even in the frontier States, a heavy item in the cost of church enterprises. Having within the last year embodied an inquiry respecting the cost of their church lots, in the usual questions to applicants, the Committee have learned the facts on this point respecting fifty of the 136 churches they have aided. Eighteen of those fifty obtained their church lots as a gift. The amount of outside aid asked by these eighteen churches, is $7,980, or, an average of $444 apiece. The remaining thirty-two paid $23,567 50 for their church lots, These thirty-two asked aid from abroad, according to their own statements, to the amount of $22,652 50, or an average of 708 apiece. Their church lots have actually cost these thirty-two churches $915 more than the whole amount of outside aid they have asked.

OUR DESTITUTIONS.

There are 148 Presbyteries in our connection. NINETY of these have reported, in full or partially, the number of their churches without houses of worship of their own. These ninety Presbyteries gave us the names of four hundred and twenty-six such churches. A very few, perhaps six or eight, of these are worshipping in union churches. The rest have no house of worship.

SEVENTY Presbyteries report one hundred and eighteen churches with insufficient edifices. SEVENTY-FOUR Presbyteries name sixty-two of their churches that have died out in the last five years. Fifty-three, or more than five-sixths of these, were without any house of worship of their own. FIFTY-TWO Presbyteries, a large majority of whom are in parts of the country best supplied with churches of our order, mention the names of one hundred and thirty points at which Presbyterian churches ought at once to be organized and sanctuaries erected. About three-fourths of all the churches reported as having built houses of worship in the last twelve years, are also reported as having sought aid in their erection. This proportion is fully borne out by the fact that during the same period over eight hundred churches have applied for assistance to the organized agencies of the church for Church Extension.

The Committee feel themselves warranted by these reports, and the other facts they have gathered, in expressing the opinion (an opinion, subject, of course, to any modifications fuller information may require,) that at least one-fifth of the churches of our denomination are now without any house of worship of their own, and that more than one-twelfth of those in possession of church edifices are being dwarfed by insufficient sanctuaries. Most of these houseless and insufficiently sheltered churches are feeble. A few of them perhaps ought never to have been organized. Nearly all of them, however, there is reason to believe, would live and grow if supplied with suitable houses of worship. If we may judge by the past, not more than one-fourth of them can build unaided. Unless the helping hand of the Church at large is extended to them, the suggestive record of extinct churches, presented above, indicates that a sure decline, ending sooner or later in utter dissolution, awaits them. To these demands from houseless or inadequately sheltered bands of worshippers, should be added the wants of churches weighed down by debts incurred in the erection of their sanctuaries. The number thus heavily pressed must be quite large. Some of these churches are in imminent danger of perishing in the merciless grasp of the sheriff. To complete this view of our destitutions, it should be remembered that there are hundreds of promising points at which Presbyterian churches ought at once to be organized and sanctuaries erected, and at which we are actually organizing churches at the rate of nearly one hundred a year. Almost all these newly occupied points will need aid from the Church at large.

DISABLED MINISTERS.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1856, TO REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1857, ON THE SUBJECT OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS.

The Committee on the subject of Disabled Ministers, and the Widows and Children of Deceased Ministers, in indigent circumstances, respectfully report:

That in discharging the duties assigned them, the Committee deemed it expedient to ascertain, with all practicable certainty, the number of persons for whom provision was contemplated, and the probable annual amount required to meet this demand on the Church. This seemed indispensable as a basis for the action of the Assembly. To this end, on the 6th of March, the Committee addressed, through the mail, a printed circular to the Stated Clerk of each of the Presbyteries in the United States, excepting the three on the Pacific coast, directing their attention to certain specific inquiries, with a respectful request that full and prompt answers might be returned. In addition to this, the circular was printed in several of the Presbyterian Church papers. A copy of this circular is herewith submitted to the Assembly. It will be noticed, that some of the points of inquiry suggested have no direct bearing on the subject referred to the Committee; yet they have a collateral relation to it, and an immediate application to the kindred subject of general ministerial support, which has so justly claimed the attention of the Church. The Committee regret to say, that while a respectable proportion of the Presbyteries have responded to their request, a majority have disappointed their reasonable expectations by failing to furnish answers to the circular. The Committee are in possession of no facts in explanation of this neglect, and the discourtesy which it implies, not only to the Committee, but to the General Assembly.

Of the one hundred and forty Presbyteries to which the circular of the Committee was addressed, replies have been received from sixty-one. From the failure of the other Presbyteries, it will be impossible to present a report, in all respects, satisfactory to the Committee. It was their wish to procure and present to the Assembly, in an authentic form, all the facts fairly within the scope of their inquiry. But for the reason stated, they are compelled to resort to data, to some extent, hypothetical in their character.

From the reports received, it appears there are, within the limits of the sixty-one Presbyteries, eleven ministers, who from the infirmities of age, or the effects of disease, are unfitted for the active duties of their office, and destitute of the pecuniary means of comfortable support. There are also within these Presbyteries, twenty-one widows, and thirty-six children of deceased ministers, who are in indigent circumstances, and in need of assistance.

Assuming as the basis of an estimate, that the same ratio of destitution is applicable to the Presbyteries from which no reports have been received, it would result, that there are in the Church, twenty-six infirm and disabled ministers, and not less than fifty widows, and about eighty children, for whom relief is contemplated by the action of the Assembly. Although it is impossible to affirm that this statement furnishes the precise number of the several classes of persons designated, it is probably near the truth. The Presbyteries from which reports have been received are located in different geographical sections of the Church, and there is no reason for the conclusion that the above estimate does not present a fair average of the destitution throughout its entire limits.

In the reports received, several cases of positive penury, and consequent suffering are noticed, suited to excite the deep sympathy of every Christian heart. The Committee cannot, without an undue expansion of the limits of this report, refer in detail to the cases thus exhibited, It is sufficient here to remark, that it does not admit of doubt, that in reference to this subject, there is a state of things in the Church calling for the prompt and efficient action of its judicatories, and appealing with great force, to the justice and liberality of its members. And in this connection it may be stated, that so far as the Committee are informed, with very few exceptions, the Synods and Presbyteries have adopted no efficient and systematic action for the relief of the indigent and suffering within their limits.

It is clearly not required of this Committee to prove argumentatively, that the honour and prosperity of the Presbyterian Church are deeply concerned in the disposition of the question under consideration. And it is to many a matter of mingled surprise and regret, that this subject did not at an earlier period occupy the attention of the Church, and that measures were not long since adopted to avert the existing evils. There is, however, just ground for the hope that the Church is now fully prepared, by its prompt and liberal action, to remove the reproach which has too justly attached for its past inaction.

It seems now to be conceded on all hands, that on grounds both of church policy and Christian duty, an imperative obligation rests on the Church to make suitable provision in behalf of those suffering classes for whose benefit the present movement has been initiated. This conclusion seems to be fully sustained by a reference to the views of the Assembly, more than once enunciated. and which are so clear and explicit, that an argument from this Committee is not only not required, but would be clearly out of place. This ground was distinctly assumed by the Assembly of 1849, and measures were sanctioned by it designed to give force and effect to the obligations referred to. And in the last Assembly, though there were differences of opinion as to the wisest and most effective means to accomplish the end in view, no voice was heard in denial of the justice and expediency of ministering to the comfort, and supplying the wants of the servant of God, who, from age or disease, had been compelled to lay aside his armour, without the means of support. Equally clear and cogent were the arguments urged in behalf of the claims of the bereft widows and fatherless children. And it was at once noteworthy and gratifying that these claims were not based on the ground of a charitable obligation, but on the immutable principles of strict right. To this hasty reference to the views and opinions of the Assembly, the Committee are gratified to add, that with scarce any exceptions, the Presbyteries which have reported, express a deep interest in the movement now in progress, and give assurances, that to the extent of their ability, they will cordially coöperate in carrying out any plan of action which may receive the sanction of the Assembly. Without extending their remarks on this point, the Committee may state it as their best opinion, from the evidence before them, that there is a generally prevalent, if not a unanimous sentiment in favour of efficient action on this subject; and they hazard nothing in the assertion, that a further appeal to the justice and liberality of Presbyterians, in reference to it, will meet with a most gratifying response.

While they rejoice in the existence of this healthful sentiment in the Church, inspiring so much of hope for the future, and concur with entire unanimity in recommending such further action as may lead to the consummation of the end proposed, the Committee regret to state, that they have been unable to agree upon the details of a plan to be submitted to the Assembly, as embodying the views and preferences of the whole, or even a majority of the Committee. In this connection it may be remarked, that the Committee have experienced some embarrassments in their efforts to obtain a satisfactory interchange of views on the subject under consideration. This has resulted from the fact that the members of the Committee are residents of four different and widely separated States of the Union, and the consequent inconvenience of meeting for the purpose of personal conference and comparison of opinions. The chairman has used his best efforts, by correspondence with the members of the Committee, to ascertain the views of each; and as the result, it seems there is a discrepancy of opinion forbidding the hope that any plan could be presented, which in all its aspects would receive the concurrence of a majority of the Committee; and in view of this state of things, and of the inexplicable neglect of many of the Presbyteries to report, as they were courteously requested to do, it was the first impression of the chairman, that it would not be expedient to make any report to the Assembly. Upon further reflection, it seemed disrespectful to the body, by whose authority the Committee was appointed, and in other aspects of the subject, undesirable, that no report should be presented. It was therefore arranged, with the concurrence and approbation of three other members of the Committee, that the chairman should prepare a report, embodying the general views of the subject, in which the entire Committee concurred, with such pertinent and important facts bearing on it as had been obtained by the Committee, without the recommendation of any specific plan of action, as having the approval of the entire Committee, or even a majority of them. It was also understood, that the chairman was at liberty, in the report to be presented, to state the outlines of some of the several plans suggested or proposed.

In pursuance of the arrangement thus indicated, the chairman now submits this report. But before stating the plans or schemes brought to the notice of the Committee, it will be proper to refer to the facts in their possession as to the probable sum which will be annually needed to relieve the wants and provide for the comfort of the destitute classes. Supposing this an important item of information in guiding the Assembly in its final action, the Committee in their circular requested the Presbyteries to state, what, if anything, would be the probable annual amount required in each, for the purpose indicated. If all the Presbyteries had complied with the request of the Committee, the Assembly would have been in possession of information on this point that would have been wholly reliable. In the absence of this, it is obvious no estimate that can be made will be entirely satisfactory. In the sixty-one Presbyteries from which reports have been received, it appears there are twenty-one within each of which there are one or more of the class either of disabled ministers, or destitute widows and children in need of assistance. The number of each of these classes has been before stated. The aggregate of the sums estimated by these twenty-one Presbyteries, as necessary annually to meet the wants of these persons, is $3725. Applying the rule of proportion, before resorted to, to ascertain the amount probably necessary for this purpose in the Presbyteries from which reports have not been received, it follows that the annual aggregate sum required for all the Presbyteries, will be about $9000. But, referring to the sums stated by the reporting Presbyteries, it occurs to the Committee, they are generally too low, and contemplate a measure of relief altogether too stinted and meagre. In the judgment of the Committee, instead of an annual expenditure of $9000, it is quite probable that from $12,000 to $15,000 will be required.

The chairman will now state for the information of the Assembly, in as concise terms as possible, some of the plans proposed for effecting the object in view.

1. One member of the Committee is in favour of referring the whole subject of providing for the wants of disabled ministers, and the families of deceased ministers in a state of destitution, to the Sessions and Presbyteries; and is opposed to any action by the Assembly beyond the mere recommendation of the subject to the notice and attention of those bodies.

2. Another plan suggested, is in substance as follows: That the Assembly shall distinctly declare it to be the duty of the Church to provide liberally for the comfortable support of the persons referred to, including the education of the fatherless children of ministers, who are in destitute circumstances. That each Church Session shall annually report to the Presbytery the number and names of such persons within their bounds, and the amount annually required for their support. That the Presbyteries shall annually determine and make known the sum required to be raised for the purpose stated. That, if the whole of such sum is not raised by the Presbytery, the deficiency shall be reported to the Synod; and if the aggregate of such deficiency is deemed greater than can be raised in the Synod, the Synod shall report the same to the Assembly, for their action. And that a permanent fund be raised, to be placed under the direction of the Trustees of the Assembly, with which to meet the deficiencies reported by the Synods; and if after meeting such deficiencies there remains a surplus in the hands of the Trustees, such surplus to be invested in some productive manner.

3. A third plan is that which was, in substance, presented to the Assembly of last year, through a committee of that body. The outlines of that plan are, that a permanent fund of such an amount be raised as that, prospectively, the yearly proceeds shall be sufficient to meet the wants of those for whom provision is intended; and that this fund be raised by an assessment of one per cent. annually for five years, on the salary of every minister, and to be paid by him, either all at one time, or at the rate aforesaid; and that at least twice the amount so assessed on the minister's salary be paid annually by the congregation of which he is the pastor. This plan also contemplates, that in addition to the fund raised by such assessments, individual donations and contributions are to be solicited. The plan thus noticed was not adopted by the Assembly, and a substitute for the report which recommended it was finally agreed to.

4. The fourth plan suggested, is the continuance of the measures which were sanctioned by the Assembly of 1849, and which have since been in operation. It is presumed that the members of the Assembly are so familiar with this plan of action, that it will be quite superfluous to state it in detail. The Assembly emphatically announced the expediency and necessity of action on the general subject, and earnestly enjoined it on the Presbyteries and Synods to adopt measures to ensure a yearly contribution from all the churches, for the support of the widows and families of deceased ministers, and the relief of superannuated living ministers; and also requested special contributions and legacies in aid of a permanent fund.

These are the most important of the various schemes which have occupied the attention of the Committee. As before noticed, no one of them has the assent of a quorum of the Committee. It is not proposed here to discuss the feasibility or expediency of any of the plans suggested. It may not, however, be improper to remark that the momentous question first claiming the attention of the Assembly, and requiring their decision, is, whether the mode of proceeding adopted in 1849, shall now be abandoned, and the plan for creating a permanent fund, proposed in the Assembly of last year, be substituted. This is certainly a question of great interest; and being definitely settled by the decision of the Assembly, it is presumed there will be little difficulty in agreeing on the details of a plan of future proceedings.

It will doubtless be remembered, by all who have attended to the discussion of the subject under consideration in the last Assembly, that the policy of creating a large permanent fund, in the manner before stated, was ably and eloquently advocated by some of the members of that body. It is presumed there was a respectable minority then prepared by their votes to enforce that policy; and it must be conceded, that from the plausible manner of its presentation, it seemed both expedient and practicable. But it may well be doubted whether it will stand the test of a closer scrutiny. While it is not proposed to present an argument on this question, the following may be stated as the more prominent objections to an attempt, in the manner before suggested, to raise within the proposed period of five years, a permanent fund for the purpose indicated. First:—The amount required, at the lowest estimate, will be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. There are just grounds for the apprehension that, even with the admitted favour with which the Church views the end aimed at, the large amount named would not be raised, and that the attempt would inevitably involve a failure. Second:—The feature which the plan presents of raising the fund by an assessment on the churches, is one to which, it is believed, there are strong objections in the minds of a large proportion of our members. Third:—The danger of the mismanagement and abuse of large permanent funds, with whatever vigilance they may be guarded by the action of the power which control them, is a well founded objection to their erection. Fourth:—It is a popular argument—certainly not without force—applicable to the question under consideration, that each generation should bear its own burdens, and that there is no obligation on the present generation to provide for the exigencies of a distant future. Fifth:—If the plan were practicable, and not otherwise objectionable, it may well be feared that the existence of a large permanent fund, for the object indicated, might have an injurious effect in arresting the progress of the opinion of the Church—now it is believed tending in the right direction—on the important subject of ministerial support. This suggestion is worthy of consideration in view of the fact, that in nearly all the cases of destitution existing in the Church, the cause which has induced it, is the meagre and wholly inadequate support given by the churches to their ministers. It is obvious, that cases of actual indigence, either of ministers or their families, would rarely, if ever occur, if ministerial labours were paid for on a scale of liberality which strict justice demands; and it may be well to consider whether the existence of a large permanent fund, to which destitute ministers and their families could rely with a certainty of support, might not be used as an available argument against the necessity of additions to present salaries. If such a result is probable, the policy referred to is clearly inexpedient.

This brief reference to some of the objections to a large permanent fund, to be raised in the manner proposed, must suffice. It is obvious that this plan stands in direct opposition to that inaugurated by the Assembly of 1849, the main feature of which is, that the churches shall be called upon for an annual contribution for the support of disabled ministers, and the destitute families of deceased ministers. The argument relied on, in the last Assembly, against the continuance of this policy and the substitution of that before noticed, was its inefficiency in raising the sum needed to supply the wants of those having just demands on the Church. As the Assembly has been favoured with a lucid and satisfactory report from the excellent chairman of the Committee of the Trustees, to which the management and distribution of the fund in question has been committed, it would be quite superfluous here to suggest any views or facts relating to the general subject. The chairman of the Assembly's Committee cordially concurs in the views and conlusions stated in the report referred to. From the increase of contributions, in aid of this fund, during the past year, there is just ground for the expectation that the churches will hereafter, from year to year, furnish a sum adequate to meet all demands upon a just and liberal scale. There can be no question that the churches are making progress in the direction of clear Christian duty in reference to this important subject, and the hope may be entertained, that henceforth they will r bly acquit themselves of the obligations resting upon them. It is confidentially believ d, that if the Assembly will at its present session, and hereafter, as circumstances may require, repeat the injunctions to the lower judicatories, and to the ministers and members of the Church, the efficiencies of the present plan will be fully vindicated. At all events it would seem inexpedient at this time, and without a more full experiment, to abandon a system of measures which promise so well for the future, substituting for these, one that is untried and of doubtful expediency.

All which is respectfully submitted. H. H. Leavitt, Chairman.

FORMS OF BEQUESTS.

When bequests are made to the Institutions of the Church, let the following forms be carefully observed. Legacies are often lost to the cause which the testator designs to aid, by a defect in the will. When real estate or other property is to be given, let it be particularly described.

BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

To the Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and to their successors and assigns, I give and bequeath the sum of , or I devise a certain messuage, and tract of land, &c., to be held by the said Trustees, and their successors for ever, to and for the uses, and under the direction of the said Board of Domestic Missions of the said General Assembly, according to the provisions of their charter.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

I give and devise to the Trustees of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the sum of , to be applied by said Board to the Education of pious and indigent young men for the gospel ministry.

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

I bequeath to my executors the sum of dollars in trust to pay over the same in after my decease, to the person who, when the same shall be payable, shall act as Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Board, and under its direction, and the receipt of the said Treasurer shall be a full and legal acquittance of my said executors for the same.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

To the Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and to their successors and assigns, I give and bequeath the sum of , or I devise a certain messuage and tract of land, &c., to be held by the said Trustees, and their successors for ever, to and for the uses and under the direction of the said Board of Publication, according to the provisions of their charter.

SPECIAL PRAYER

FOR THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

In the Minutes of the General Assembly for the year 1821, is the following important rule, which was adopted by the Assembly.

"An overture from the Synod of North Carolina was received and read, and is as follows, viz.

"Whereas, the General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas, to obtain the divine blessing on that judicatory must appear to every Christian of our denomination to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore

"Resolved, That the Synod do respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending to all the churches under their care, to observe, annually, the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, as a season of special prayer to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would, of his infinite mercy, condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberations, and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of his own glory, and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong."

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

THE STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

Are earnestly requested:

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, if they have no printed blanks, after the form on page 243 of these Minutes. Blanks can always be obtained gratis on application to the Stated Clerk.

2. To make their Reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of figures.

3. To make them as accurate and full as possible. If, in any instance, churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that their number of communicants should be inserted from their last report.

4. To report no cents. The Assembly has so ordered. If therefore they are reported, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is obliged to throw them out altogether, or to incorporate them with the dollars. This costs him a serious amount of labour, to which he ought not to be subjected.

5. To add up each column of figures with care. Many still neglect this, and thus oblige the Clerk of the Assembly to do what they should do themselves.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organization of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their Reports to the Stated Clerk, either at the meeting of the Assembly, or to Philadelphia, not later than the first day of June.

Blank forms for Sessional Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but are kept for sale by the Presbyterian Board of Publication.

FORM OF PRESBYTERIAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Presbytery of report to the General Assembly, that they consist of Ministers, and have under their care Churches, Licentiates, and Candidates, viz.

MINISTERS, LICENTIATES, AND CANDIDATES.	POST-OFFICE	CHURCHES.	Communicants.				Baptized.		No. of Children in Sabbath Schools and Bible Classes.	Funds Collected.
			Added on examination.	Added on certificate.	Coloured communicants.	Total of communicants.	Adults.	Infants.		Domestic Missions.	Foreign Missions.	Education.	Publication.	Church Extension.	Presbyterial.	Congregational.	Miscellaneous
A—— B——, P. &c.		C——. P.
10.
Licentiates—3.
D—— E ——, &c.		☞ Add up,
Candidates—5.		omitting cents.

Dated, Signed, —— ——, Stated Clerk.

Give the names of licentiates, but only the number of candidates, without name. It is earnestly requested that the above order of columns may be strictly followed, and that the columns may all be carefully added up. To ministers who are pastors, annex P., to stated supplies, S. S., to Domestic Missionaries, D. M., to Foreign Missionaries, F. M., to Presidents of Colleges, Pres., to Professors in Colleges or Theological Seminaries, Prof., to Agents, Ag., to Chaplains, Chap., and to Editors, Edt., to congregations which have pastors, annex P., to those which have stated supplies, S. S. and to those which are vacant, V.

☞The Assembly, in order to simplify its statistical tables, and to render them more full and accurate as to the contributions of the churches for religious purposes, resolved:

That the form of reports as to collections be hereafter as follows:—1. For Domestic Missions; to include all moneys collected for the purpose, whether for the Boards, or any of the judicatories of the Church. 2. Foreign Missions; including all moneys for that purpose. 3. Education; including all that is given for the education of candidates for the ministry; for Theological Seminaries; Presbyterian colleges, academies, parochial, and Sabbath schools. 4. Publication; all moneys for the Board of Publication, and for Synodical and Presbyterial depositories, and colportage. 5. Church Extension; all the moneys for that purpose. 6. Presbyterial; to include Commissioners' and Contingent Funds, and contributions for the support of aged ministers. 7. Congregational; all moneys contributed for the congregation, as pastors' salaries, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses. 8. Miscellaneous; including all other collections.

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837. Directed to be Republished in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year, a sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated.

In addition to the above, where copies are sent by mail, five cents additional must be forwarded to pre-pay postage.

THE CONTINGENT FUND.

There is still a necessity for calling the particular attention of the Churches and Presbyteries to the Contingent Fund. The expenses for which it provides are indispensable, not only to the vigorous working, but to the maintenance of our ecclesiastical organism. And in this certainly every church, and every member of the church, will feel an interest.

FIFTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

FROM MARCH 1, 1856, TO MARCH 1, 1857.

THE Board of Domestic Missions, in presenting their Fifty-fifth Annual Report to the General Assembly, desire, first of all, to acknowledge with gratitude their obligations to the great Head of the Church for the measure of success with which he has graciously crowned their labours during the past fiscal year.

In some respects we are not able to report any increase; yet, in others, we are privileged to record a gratifying progress. While our receipts have fallen off, as compared with the year preceding, the number of our missionaries has been considerably augmented, the operations of the Board extended, and, what is better than all, the blessing of God has manifestly rested upon the labours of his servants.

OPERATIONS OF THE YEAR.

OF MISSIONS—Statistical Details.

The number of missionaries in commission March 1, 1856, was 387, to which have been added, to March 1, 1857, 203, making the whole number 590, and more by 24 than the year previous.

The number of churches and missionary stations, wholly or in part supplied, (as far as reported,) by our missionaries, is 904.

The number of newly organized churches is 59.

The number of admissions on examination is 1940, and on certificate 2054, making a total of admissions of 3994.

The number in communion with churches connected with the Board is 21,863.

The number of Sabbath-schools is 326; of teachers, 2610; and of scholars, 16,409.*

The number of baptisms is 2144.

Of the 590 missionaries who have been in commission during the year, 188 have sent in no special report for the Assembly, nearly one-third of the whole number; consequently we must increase all the returns nearly one-third to make them correct.

Appropriations.

The appropriations made to our missionaries, from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, have been at the office in Philadelphia, $58,885.17, and at the office in Louisville, $37,219.75; making a total of $96,104.92.

The appropriations made to our missionaries from March 1, 1855, to March 1, 1856, were, at the office in Philadelphia, $52,548.34, and at the office in Louisville, $34,645.83; making a total of $87,194.17.†

From this statement it appears, that the appropriations made at the office in Philadelphia exceeded those made the year before $6,336.83, and at the office in Louisville they were more by $2,573.92; thus making the total appropriations this year more than the year preceding by $8,910.75.

For the purpose of further comparison we may state, that the average appropriations made during the preceding four years, from 1852 to 1856, were, at the office in Philadelphia, $44,776.21, and at the office in Louisville, $28,729.19; making a total average of $73,505.40.

From this statement it appears that the appropriations made from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, at the office in Philadelphia, exceeded the average of those made during the four previous years, $14,108.96, and at the office in Louisville, $8,490.56; thus making a total excess of appropriations this year above the average appropriations of the four preceding years, $22,599.52.

* This includes only those schools which are Presbyterian or denominational.

† As our fiscal year was changed from April 1 to March 1, eleven months only were included in our last Annual Report; but for the sake of comparison we included the month of March, 1856, and compared the twelve months, from April 1, 1855, to April 1, 1856, with the corresponding months of the previous year, viz. from April 1, 1854, to April 1, 1855. Throughout this Report the comparison is made between the last fiscal year, viz. from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, with the corresponding months of the year preceding, to wit: from March 1, 1855, to March 1, 1856.

As the missionary appointments are made, with very few exceptions, for twelve months, and are scattered over the whole year, of course a large number of the appropriations made during the year have not yet fully matured, but will be falling due as the present year advances.

Receipts.

The total amount of receipts from all sources, from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, is $93,248.99, to which add balances on hand in the different treasuries, March 1, 1856, $21,133.17; making the available resources of the Board during the year, $114,382.16.

The amount paid out at the different treasuries for the same time, is $95,121.76, leaving an available balance in all the treasuries, on the 1st of March, 1857, of $19,260.40. The amount due the missionaries at the same date, was $12,964.86, leaving an unexpended balance of $6,295.54.

The aggregate receipts from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, have been less, as compared with the receipts from March 1, 1855, to March 1, 1856, $3.995.63.* The falling off has been in individual or special donations and legacies, $2,191.33, and in the contributions of the churches, $1,804.30. The receipts at the office in Philadelphia, including the Presbyterial treasuries, were greater by $2,333.20, and the receipts at the office in Louisville were less by $6,328.83.

The balance in the treasury on the 1st of March 1857, is less by $1,872.77, than the amount which was reported in hand on the 1st of March, 1856. The diminution of our unexpended balance at the close of the fiscal year, the fact that the amount due the missionaries was very nearly $13,000.00, and the excess of appropriations over the year preceding was very nearly $9,000.00, show the indispensable necessity of enlarged contributions by the friends of the cause, and the imperative duty of increased caution on the part of Presbyteries in recommending, and the Board in granting, future appropriations. Indeed, it is obvious that unless the resources of the Board are augmented they will not be able to continue their present scale of appropriations without involving themselves in debt.

It is true the available balance in hand on the 1st of March, 1857, is comparatively large, and without explanation may readily mislead the patrons of the Board. Indeed we have reason to fear that, notwithstanding our repeated explanations of this matter, some of our friends still entertain a wrong impression, and have withheld or diminished their contributions, on the supposition that the Board could not be in need of pecuniary assistance because the balance reported was so large. We will therefore again state, what we have repeatedly stated in our previous Reports, that the amount on hand at the period of the year when our balance is reported, is always larger than at any other time. From the month of March, the receipts begin to fall off, and during the latter part of the spring, the entire summer, and the early part of the fall, the receipts are comparatively small; so that unless our available balance at the commencement of the fiscal year is comparatively large, it would be impracticable to carry on the operations of the Board during the year. For example, at the beginning of the fiscal year, March 1, 1856, we reported an available balance of more than $21,000; and yet by the 1st of November ensuing, we had only about $3,000 in hand! not more than enough to meet the usual payments for two or three weeks! Now, with a smaller balance at the beginning of the year—a considerable increase in the number of our missionaries—and an excess of appropriations amounting to nearly $9,000, it is obvious that our available balance must be gradually reduced as the year advances, and may be entirely exhausted before the 1st of November.

When the number of missionaries was much smaller than at present—when the average salaries was much less—when the annual expenditures of the Board were not half so great as now, of course a much smaller balance at the commencement of the fiscal year was all-sufficient. But with our present enlarged operations and expenditures, experience has shown that an available balance at the beginning of the fiscal year of about $20,000 is indispensable to enable the Board to meet their engagements promptly, and without embarrassment during the entire year.

OUR MISSIONS.

During the year, the Board have established new missions in various sections of our country, as well in larger cities and towns, as in smaller villages and rural districts. They have also to the extent of their ability, re-enforced our missionaries in the newer States and Territories. Two additional missionaries have been sent to California, three to Minnesota, one, in addition to those already there, has been employed in the Territory of Oregon, and one in the Territory of Washington. We have also commissioned one in the State of New Hampshire. Seven additional missionaries have been employed in Missouri. Ten new men have been commissioned in Wisconsin, and seventeen in Iowa, which, with the changes that have taken place, make an increase of fifteen in those two States. We have also added two to the number of our missionaries in the Territory of Kansas, and the same number in the Territory of Nebraska. Commissions have been offered to several brethren to some of the more distant States and Territories, in order still further to re-enforce our missionaries, and extend the boundaries of our Church, and our hope is that they will not decline them. The Board are earnestly desirous of occupying various other important and promising points, and of enlarging the boundaries of the Church; but the great difficulty has been the deficiency of ministers compared with the demand for missionaries in a country so extended as ours, and a population so rapidly spreading and augmenting —and to this difficulty another will be added, unless the contributions from the churches are augmented, viz. a deficiency of pecuniary means.

With regard to the spiritual state of our missions, the Board are happy in being able to say, that so far as they can judge from the reports of the missionaries, there is cause for gratitude and praise. While some have been discouraged in their labours, the greater portion write encouragingly of the religious state and prospects of their ministerial charges, and some have comunicated to us the cheering intelligence of revivals of religion. During the last year there has been an increase, as compared with the year preceding, in the number of admissions to their churches, both on examination and by certificate. The increase on examination is 108, and by certifiate 218; making a total increase of 326 over the previous year.

ITINERANTS.

During the past year, thirty-three of our missionaries have been commissioned and employed as Itinerants. The greater part of our missionaries perform more or less of such service, but the number above mentioned are either wholly, or almost entirely employed as itinerants. The number commissioned as itinerant missionaries, during the year, is a little smaller than the year preceding; but we believe that no application for such an appointment by any Presbytery has been declined, although in one or two instances the Board were not able to make as large appropriations as were recommended. The aggregate amount, however, appropriated by the Board to itinerants, during the year, was considerably larger than the year preceding.

The Board would be very happy to appoint a larger number of itinerant missionaries, and would again suggest to the Presbyteries the importance of arranging their missionary churches with a view to this. There are many weak churches which might be thus supplied by itinerant missionaries, which cannot separately sustain pastors, and by such an arrangement there would be a great saving both of men and funds.

But while it is very desirable and even essential to an economical use of the men and means of the Church, that such arrangements should be made with respect to feeble churches within reasonable circuits, there is danger in attempting to employ any very large number of itinerants in wholly destitute sections of our country, where there are no churches organized, and from which the itinerants can derive no pecuniary support. It would, indeed, be desirable to commission a vast number of itinerants, so as fully to occupy the entire land, if we had the means to sustain them; but with our limited resources this is, of course, impossible. The appropriations required for the entire support of such itinerants are very large, and their number cannot be much increased without reducing the appropriations now made to the pastors and stated supplies of our missionary churches. The Board will cheerfully assume the entire support of as many itinerants in such destitute districts as their funds will allow, and beyond this they cannot go without injustice to the rest of our missionaries and missionary churches. We trust the Presbyteries will be careful in recommending the appointment of itinerants in districts from which they can derive no pecuniary aid, and especially in recommending large appropriations for such service.

CLOTHING.

Clothing valued at $9,131.81 has been received during the year and distributed among the missionaries who needed it. Of this amount $4,949.72, were received at the office in Philadelphia; $2,488.45 at the office in Louisville; and $1,693.64 at the depot in Pittsburgh.

The Board have received, during the year, many grateful acknowledgments from our missionaries of the receipt of the clothing forwarded to them. We have no doubt that such donations are in many cases a great relief and comfort to our inadequately supported missionaries and their dependent families. They sometimes declare to us that without such assistance they would have actually suffered, and might have been compelled to abandon their fields of labour. In some instances they have described most touchingly the domestic scene of tearful gratitude and joy occasioned by the reception of a missionary box, and the eager examination of its valuable contents!—and no doubt, at the family altar, the blessing of the Almighty has often been subsequently invoked, by the grateful household, upon their considerate and generous friends. The Christian ladies to whom our missionaries are mainly indebted for these donations, may rest assured that their labour of love is highly useful, and is duly appreciated by those who are the recipients of their favours.

If the ladies will allow us to do so, we would respectfully suggest that in making provision for the ministers' family, the missionary himself ought not to be overlooked. He is often in great want of clothing himself, and a coat or overcoat would frequently be a very desirable addition to his scanty and threadbare wardrobe.

If a further suggestion would be allowed, we would respectfully and kindly intimate that theological books, as well as clothing, would be a very acceptable and useful donation to many of our missionaries. Their libraries are often very small, and their salaries so meagre that they cannot afford to purchase the books they so much need. Their ability and usefulness would be greatly increased by judicious additions to their libraries; and we have reason to know that many of them would value such presents most highly. Could not the ladies procure such books, and place a few of them in every box of clothing they forward?

We trust it is now well understood that the value of the clothing or books sent to our missionaries is never deducted from the salary of those who receive them, but is regarded simply as a special donation to them from the friends of the cause. We will add, that such donations of clothing or books ought never to be allowed to interfere with or diminish the contributions to the Board, as such an effect would be highly prejudicial to the Board, and injurious to the missionaries themselves.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES.

DIVISION OF FIELD BETWEEN TWO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES.

The Board carries on its operations through its two Executive Committees, the one located in Philadelphia, the other in Louisville, Kentucky. Between these two committees the territory of the Church is unequally divided; each committee having, according to the division made by the Board, its own assigned field and limits.

The field of the Executive Committee located in Philadelphia, embraces the Synods of Albany, Buffalo, New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Wheeling, Ohio, the Presbyteries of Logansport, Lake, and Fort Wayne in the Synod of Northern Indiana, the Synod of Wisconsin, the Presbytery of St. Paul in the Synod of Iowa, the Synods of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa in the Synod of Alabama, the Presbyteries of Louisiana, Red River, and New Orleans in the Synod of Mississippi, and the Synod of Pacific; covering twenty entire States and eight Territories, and parts of three other States; and having, according to the Minutes of the last General Assembly, 1572 ministers, 1986 churches, and 173,118 communicants. The number of missionaries under the care of the Board in this field, and consequently connected with the Committee in Philadelphia, the past year, has been 335.

The field of the Executive Committee, located in Louisville, Kentucky, embraces the Synods of Cincinnati, Indiana, the Presbyteries of Crawfordsville and Muncie in the Synod of Northern Indiana, the Synods of Illinois, Iowa, (except the Presbytery of St. Paul,) Missouri, Kentucky, and Nashville, the Presbyteries of South and East Alabama in the Synod of Alabama, the Presbyteries of Mississippi, Tombeckbee, East Mississippi, and Central Mississippi in the Synod of Mississippi, the Synods of Memphis, Arkansas, and Texas; covering eight entire States, and parts of three other States; and having according to the Minutes of the last General Assembly, 726 ministers, 1153 churches, and 60,380 communicants. The number of missionaries under the care of the Board in this field, and consequently connected with the Committee in Louisville, the past year, has been 255.

The Western Executive Committee.

The Twelfth Annual Report of the Western Executive Committee is printed, as usual, at the end of this Report.

As stated by us under the head of receipts, there has been, during the past year, a falling off in the receipts at the office in Louisville, as compared with the corresponding twelve months of the year preceding, of six thousand three hundred and twenty-eight dollars and eighty-three cents, ($6,328.83.) The Committee in their Report show a different result, because they compare their receipts during the last fiscal year, viz. from March 1, 1856 to March 1, 1857, with their receipts from April 1, 1855 to April 1, 1856. They also exclude legacies in their comparison, which were much greater during the year 1855—6, than during the past year, 1856—7.

Notwithstanding the receipts at the office in Louisville were so much less than during the corresponding months of the year preceding, the wants of the Western Executive Committee were fully and promptly met. Drafts by that Committee upon the treasury in Philadelphia, during the year, to the amount of eighteen thousand five hundred and four dollars and seventy-five cents, ($18,504.75,) were promptly paid. While the treasury in Philadelphia has been able hitherto to meet promptly all the drafts made upon it by the Western Committee, there is reason to fear that it will not be able to meet them in future, if they should continue to increase, as they have been, during the last two years. In 1855—6, (eleven months) the amount drawn for was $6,967.78; and the amount drawn for during the past year, 1856—7, was $18,504.75; being an increase over the preceding fiscal year of eleven thousand five hundred and thirty-six dollars and ninety-seven cents, ($11,536.97.)

We are gratified in being able to state, that while the receipts at Louisville, during the past year, as compared with the corresponding twelve months of the year previous, were so much less, the falling off was chiefly in legacies, and not mainly in the contributions from the churches; and our hope is that their receipts from all sources, during the year upon which we have entered, will be increased, and thus all future embarrassment prevented.

We take great pleasure in stating, that the number of missionaries commissioned by the Western Executive Committee was very considerably increased during the past year; and that the missions within their field appear to be, generally, in a prosperous condition.

OBJECTS OF THE BOARD, AND THEIR IMPORTANCE.

In order to keep the objects of the Board distinctly before the churches, we repeat the statement made in our previous Reports. The objects of the Board of Domestic Missions are two-fold:—1. To supply vacant churches, and assist weak and feeble congregations in the support of pastors; and, 2. To extend the boundaries of the Church, by employing ministers to preach the gospel, organize new congregations, and form churches in the hitherto neglected and waste places of our country.

The last General Assembly expressed no more than the truth, when they declared that "the cause of Domestic Missions, in its present and prospective relations and objects, is second to no other in magnitude and importance;" for the operations of the Board of Domestic Missions are not only indispensable to the extension of our Church throughout our country, but they are also essentially necessary to the continued existence and prosperity of hundreds of our churches already organized. Without the aid derived from the Board, hundreds of our weak and feeble churches would be unable to support and retain their pastors. Nor would it be practicable to supply the numerous places scattered throughout our widely extended country, which are as yet destitute of evangelical ministers, without some such agency as the Board of Domestic Missions. And without the preaching of the gospel, and the establishment of Christian churches and institutions throughout the length and breadth of the land, how are men to be converted to God, and the nation preserved from ruin?

The Board continue to receive, from almost every section of our country, the most urgent appeals for missionary aid. As stated in our last Report, the wants, especially of our newer States and Territories, are pressed upon us with increasing and affecting earnestness, and the importance of supplying them with intelligent and evangelical ministers, while in their formative state, cannot be too highly estimated.

In this connection we state, that we have continued to employ a number of missionaries among our foreign population. One has laboured among the French, one among the Bohemians, one among the Welch, and thirteen among the Germans. We may add that six of our missionaries have laboured chiefly among the coloured people.

PROGRESS MADE BY OUR CHURCH IN THE MISSIONARY WORK.

Considering the vast area of our country—its rapidly augmenting and extending population—and the numbers and wealth of our denomination, we have accomplished but little compared with what we might have effected, by the blessing of God, if all our people had possessed the spirit and made the sacrifices and efforts which characterized the disciples of Christ in apostolic times; and in view of our great shortcomings and sins it becomes us to be profoundly humble and penitent before Him from whom we have received so much, and for whom we have done and suffered so little. And yet, through the unmerited mercy and superabounding grace of God, our Church has, by her missionary operations, effected a vast amount of good, and is contributing her share towards the thorough evangelization of our land, for which we desire to be sincerely and earnestly grateful.

It is truly gratifying to know that, from the very beginning, our beloved Church has possessed and manifested a missionary spirit; and that this Christ-like disposition has been steadily increasing and expanding. Before the existence of the General Assembly—from 1706 to 1788—first by the mother Presbytery of Philadelphia, and afterwards by the Synods of Philadelphia and New York, many efforts were made, and collections taken up, to promote Domestic Missions.

After the Constitution of the General Assembly in 1788, the work of missions was conducted by the Assembly itself until 1802, when, from the accumulation of business, the Assembly not being able to give it that attention its importance demanded, the work was placed in the hands of a "Standing Committee on Missions," which committee continued to act until 1816. This arrangement not being found sufficiently effective, the Assembly, in 1816, created the present Board of Domestic Missions. In 1828, this Board was re-organized, with enlarged powers, suggested by the previous experiments and accumulated experience of the Church, which infused new life and energy into its operations. In order to show the progress that has since been made, we submit the following statements:

In 1828, the year of the re-organization of the Board, there were but 31 missionaries, and an income of $2,400.00 only.

In 1840, two years after the division of the Church, and when the parts were fairly separated, there were 256 missionaries, and an income of $40,734.00.

The following table will show the progress that has been made in the last four years. The figures in the first line of the table are derived from the last Report under the preceding administration of the Board.

Year.	Number of Missionaries.	Individual donations and legacies.	Contributions from churches.	Total receipts.	Amount appropriated to the missionaries.
1852–3,	515	$24,200.00	$57,255.33	$81,455.33	$56,911.08
1853–4,	523	11,995.47	63,212.33	75,207.80	75,421.92
1854–5,	525	9,168.44	62,666.03	71,834.47	74,494.42
1855–6,	566	23,601.26	73,643.36	97,244.62	87,194.17
1856–7,	590	21,409.93	71,839.06	93,248.99	96,104.92

From this it appears, that since 1852–3, there has been an increase of missionaries 75, a decrease of individual donations and legacies $2,790.07, and an increase of contributions from churches $14,583.73, being an augmentation in the total receipts of $11,793.66. The increase, during the same period, in the amount appropriated to the missionaries, is $39,193.84—which is more than triple the increase in the total receipts.

The following table will show how steadily and wonderfully our beloved Church has, by the blessing of her adorable Head, increased and expanded;—and let it be remembered that this increase and expansion were mainly effected by the instrumentality of her Board of Domestic Missions. We will begin with 1828, the year of the re-organization of the Board.

Year.	Synods.	Presbyteries.	Ministers.	Churches.	Members.
1828,	16,	90,	1,285,	1,968,	146,308.
1830,	19,	98,	1,491,	2,158,	173,329.
1840,*	17,	95,	1,615,	1,673,	126,583.
1850,	23,	127,	1,926,	2,595,	207,254.
1856,	30,	148,	2,320,	3,146,	233,755.

It thus appears that since the re-organization of the Board, we have increased 14 Synods, 58 Presbyteries, 1,035 ministers, 1,178 churches, and 87,447 members. Since 1840, two years after the division of the Church, we have increased 13 Synods,

* Two years after the division of the Church.

53 Presbyteries, 705 ministers, 1,473 churches, and 107,172 communicants.

These results are certainly encouraging; and while they should elicit our gratitude, and call forth our praise to God, from whom cometh all the increase, and to whom belongs all the glory, they ought also to stimulate us to greater activity, liberality, and prayer, in view of what yet remains to be accomplished.

SALARIES OF MISSIONARIES.

The Board have, during the past year, very considerably increased the average appropriation to our missionaries, notwithstanding the aggregate receipts have been so much less than the year preceding. This was done on the recommendation of the Presbyteries, and in view of the pressing wants of many of the missionaries; and in the hope that the contributions of the churches would be greater, instead of less, than the year previous. We are gratified in being able to say, that the people have also, during the year, increased the average salary paid by them to their ministers. The increase in the average appropriation made by the Board to the missionaries, during the past year, is $17.48; and the average increase in their salary, paid by their people, is $23.71, making a total average increase of $41.19.

The following table will show the advance that has been made during the last four years.*

Year.	Average appropriation by the Board.	Average amount paid by their people.	Average total amount of salary.
1853,	$131.82	$240.19	$372.01
1854,	151.55	250.98	402.53
1855,	162.37	273.34	435.71
1856,	173.72	288.69	462.41
1857,	191.20	312.40	503.60

To arrive at the average salaries, we have, in

From the foregoing table it appears that the Board have increased their average appropriations to the missionaries, during the last four years, $59.38, which is a little over 45 per cent. The average increase of salary paid by their people, during the same period, is $72.21, which is a little over 30 per cent.

If the people whom they serve had increased the average amount paid by them to their ministers, as much in proportion as the Board have increased their average appropriation, our missionaries would now be much more comfortably sustained; and this must be done, or many of them must continue to suffer from the want of an adequate support. With the present number of missionaries employed, and the present advanced scale of this table, added the fractions necessary to make complete years; this has not been done in other parts of this report, and hence the difference between the figures below and the actual appropriations, as elsewhere stated.

appropriations by the Board, it will probably be found impracticable to advance their average appropriation still further; and certainly it will be impossible to do so to any considerable extent, unless the receipts of the Board should be correspondingly augmented. A small advance in the average appropriation to so large a number of men, amounts in the aggregate to a very considerable sum. For example, the average increase of appropriation last year ($17.48) to 590 missionaries, involves an additional annual appropriation of more than ten thousand dollars. The average increase of appropriation by the Board for the last four years, ($59,38) multiplied by the number of missionaries reported (590) shows that the annual liabilities of the Board have been augmented more than thirty-five thousand dollars! It is therefore highly important, and indeed indispensable to the better sustentation of our missionaries, that their people should advance more liberally than they have hitherto done, the average amount paid by them to their ministers. An average addition of twenty-five or fifty dollars to the amount now paid by congregations, would not be seriously felt by the most of them, and such an advance would greatly add to the comfort and usefulness of many of their pastors. We rejoice in the progress that has been made in this direction by many of our missionary churches; and their success should stimulate and encourage all to still further effort, until every minister shall receive at least an adequate support.

NEED OF FUNDS.

With so large an addition to the number of our missionaries, and an augmentation of our appropriations to the extent of nearly nine thousand dollars, it is obvious that the Board will require much larger contributions than they have hitherto received, in order to be able to meet their engagements. Last year, the total receipts, as compared with the year preceding, fell short nearly four thousand dollars. Had this decrease been in individual donations and legacies, it would not be so noticeable, as they are necessarily uncertain and fluctuating; but nearly two thousand dollars of this deficiency was in the contributions from the churches. This is very serious, because it is only upon them that the Board can certainly and safely rely. With the steady enlargement of the operations of the Board, the contributions from the churches ought to be correspondingly increasing, and should at least be equal, in any year, to the current expenditures of the Board; leaving the receipts from special donations and legacies for the further extension of the Church, and the augmented expenditures consequent thereupon. Instead of this, the contributions from the churches, during the past year, fell short of our payments upwards of twenty-three thousand dollars, ($23,282.70,) and but for the balance on hand at the commencement of the year, and the large amount received from individual donations and legacies, we would have been largely in debt to our missionaries at the close of the year! We repeat, that as the receipts from individual donations and legacies are uncertain and fluctuating, it is unsafe to base our operations upon them, and the Board can never feel secure until the contributions from the churches are equal to their accruing liabilities.

We trust, from the explanation given in the former part of this Report, that no one will be misled by the comparatively large amount on hand at the commencement of this fiscal year. This balance is less, by nearly two thousand dollars, than the amount reported on hand at the beginning of the preceding year, and though large, will be rapidly reduced as the year advances; and unless our treasury is replenished, it will soon be entirely exhausted. As previously stated, although we began the past fiscal year with more than twenty-one thousand dollars in hand, yet by the 1st of November this sum was reduced to about three thousand dollars. With nearly two thousand dollars less in hand at the commencement of this year, and greatly increased liabilities, it is evident that unless the receipts are augmented, or the appropriations reduced, the treasury, by the 1st of November next, will probably be entirely exhausted!

Moreover, it is not only important that the receipts of the Board should be increased, in order to enable them to meet the liabilities which they have already assumed, but also that they may not be hampered or embarrassed in undertaking the establishment of new missions. As stated in our last Report, the establishment of such missions, particularly in the more distant States and Territories, requires, in many cases, an amount of expenditure which the Board cannot prudently incur with the limited means at their disposal. If the available resources of the Board would enable them safely to incur the expense of their establishment, they would soon return, in divers ways, the amount expended upon them. It has, indeed, been a matter of great regret to the Board that they have not been able to establish more missions in some of the more distant States and Territories; but it has been impracticable to do so, without either declining or reducing the appropriations recommended by the Presbyteries to other portions of our missionary field. With funds scarcely sufficient to maintain the ground already occupied, the Board are unable to extend their operations as rapidly and extensively as the interests of our Church and country most obviously and urgently demand. In view of these things how evidently important it is that the contributions of the churches should be more regular, as well as more liberal, and that the treasury of the Board should always be kept sufficiently full to enable them to establish missions whenever and wherever they are needed.

As there are now no collecting agents in the field, we must rely upon the pastors and sessions to see that collections are taken up for the Board during the year. Brethren, may we not unhesitatingly place this confidence in your faithfulness to the cause of Domestic Missions? The responsibility is chiefly yours, and we trust that the sacred obligations devolved upon you will not be forgotten; we will not suppose that they can be, by you, deliberately and wilfully ignored. Not only see to it that your people have the opportunity to contribute, but show them the magnitude and importance of the cause, and urge them to the full discharge of their Christian duty by pressing upon them the great motives by which they ought to be persuaded to give, statedly and liberally, according as God hath prospered them.

NON-CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

In accordance with what seemed to be the general wish of the Church, the Board of Domestic Missions, like the other Boards of the Church, has been trying the experiment of what is called "the Systematic Benevolence Plan," and has dispensed with collecting agents altogether. We have no doubt that if all the pastors themselves would present the cause of Domestic Missions to their people, and all the churches would take up collections for the Board annually; and especially if arrangements were made in every congregation to procure subscriptions from every individual connected with them, to be collected regularly and at stated periods, it would be the most economical and efficient plan that could be devised. Perhaps the experiment, thus far, has worked as well as could be reasonably expected, for, as stated by the last General Assembly, "it was not to be expected that so great a change in our benevolent operations, involving the change of habits which have obtained amongst us for so many years, could be made at once, and without difficulty." It is certainly encouraging to find that the number of contributing churches to the Board of Domestic Missions is increasing, though very slowly, from year to year. In 1855–6, the increase over the previous year was about 100, and last year, 1856–7, the increase over the former year was about 153.

This result, although encouraging, is far from being satisfactory, while the number of non-contributing churches continues to be so large. According to the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1856, the number of churches connected with the Assembly was 3146. The number of churches which contributed to the Board, during the past year, was about 1503; thus showing that at least 1643 churches contributed nothing to the Board of Domestic Missions during the past fiscal year: we say, at least, because we have taken no account in this estimate of the churches which were organized during the year and which may considerably swell this number. No doubt a much larger number of churches than we have mentioned will report to the General Assembly that they have made contributions to the cause of Domestic Missions during the year: but none of their contributions came into our treasury, and the Board, as such, derived no pecuniary assistance from them.

If, then, more than sixteen hundred organized churches contributed nothing, during the past year, to the Board of Domestic Missions, ought there not to be continued and more earnest effort made to induce them to discharge their duty? Who are chiefly to blame for such delinquencies? Would not the greater part of those delinquent churches have contributed to the Board if their pastors or stated supplies had brought the cause before them and given them the opportunity of giving? We have no doubt they would, and fearful indeed is the responsibility of those ministers of the gospel who have not discharged this duty. "In the practical working of this system," said the last General Assembly, "we are persuaded that all failures are owing mainly to the neglect or timidity of the ministry, in not bringing the subject fairly and prominently before the churches;" and hence they resolved, "That all our pastors and stated supplies be earnestly requested, for our Lord's sake, to give to every member of their churches the opportunity to contribute something for the glory of God, presenting the claims of the various objects ordered by the Assembly, publicly and prominently from the pulpit; and that the Presbyteries be earnestly requested to see that the same privilege is afforded to all their vacant churches, and that they report their action on this subject, and the success of it, to the next General Assembly."

The timidity of ministers in presenting the claims of the Board is to us surprising, not merely because, as the ministers of Christ, they are bound to discharge their duty, whether men will hear, or whether they will forbear, but also because we have reason to believe that the people, with very few exceptions, are kindly disposed to give, and are gratified when the opportunity is afforded them of doing so. We have heard of a very few instances in which church-sessions have prevented pastors from taking up collections for the Board; but such cases are happily very rare, and they ought to be brought, by the pastors, to the notice of their Presbyteries, that they may discipline the elders who thus presumptuously and wickedly rebel, not only against the solemn injunctions of the superior ecclesiastical courts of the Church, but also against the supreme authority and plain precepts of Christ himself. There are, however, very few sessions that would not consent to the presentation of any object ordered by the General Assembly, so that the neglect of this duty is almost in every case justly chargeable to the pastor or stated supply.

We have reason to believe that in many instances collections are not taken up for the Board, because they would probably be very small in amount. This is no valid excuse for ignoring a plain scriptural duty, and it is moreover a great mistake to suppose that such small collections are insignificant in their aggregate amount. Every church ought to contribute something to the Board, if it be but a dollar or a dime. Duty requires each congregation to give according to their ability, be it much or little; and the aggregate of many small collections would be very considerable, and would very materially aid the Board in the prosecution of their great and important work.

In order to secure a more general coöperation, ought not the Presbyteries, as such, to pay more attention to this matter? In many cases we fear our Presbyteries do not properly notice the delinquency of their churches, nor call them to as strict an account as they ought. If the roll were called once in every year, and each pastor or session called upon to state whether a collection had been taken up for the Board, and if not, to give the reasons which induced the omission of this duty, many churches now delinquent would, through very shame, if from no higher motive, be constrained to contribute to the cause. Some effective measures must be taken by the Presbyteries on this subject, or the present plan of Systematic Benevolence will undoubtedly prove a failure. Already the receipts of the Board show a falling-off, and unless there is a more general and liberal coöperation on the part of the churches, it will be impracticable to sustain our present operations, much more to extend and enlarge them, as the prosperity of the Church, and the best interests of our country demand.

It is with special regret we are compelled to state, that many even of the missionary churches, churches receiving pecuniary aid from the Board, have contributed nothing to our treasury during the past year! Many of these churches have been thus delinquent from year to year, notwithstanding their peculiar relations and obligations to the Board. Experience has painfully shown that our appeals both to their consciences and hearts have thus far been made in vain. They seem, in this matter, to be alike insensible to their obligations to Christ, and the claims of gratitude, for the aid which they have received from the Board. Ought such churches to be allowed to continue to draw upon the Missionary Fund, when they will not contribute anything to the Board? Would it not be reasonable and proper for the General Assembly to instruct the Board not to grant any further appropriations to churches, which have for two or more successive years neglected to take up a collection for the Board? If the Assembly would instruct the Board to adopt such a rule, it would probably be more effective than any other measure that could be devised, to induce such delinquent missionary churches to discharge their duty in this matter. And if in the application of such a rule, any of the missionaries should suffer pecuniary loss, few, if any, of them would have any just ground for complaint: for in almost every instance the fault would be their own, in not presenting the claims of the Board, and giving their people an opportunity of contributing to the cause.

SELF-SUSTENTATION.

We are gratified in being able to state that some of the churches which had been receiving aid from the Board, have become self-sustaining during the past year. We rejoice over all such cases, not merely because the money thus saved may be usefully appropriated to other and more needy missionary fields, but also on account of the great advantages which such churches secure to themselves by their self-reliance and self-sustentation.

The number of churches which have become self-sustaining during the year is, however, very small, compared with the number that might have become so, if the proper arrangements, efforts, and self-denials, required by duty to themselves and others, had been made. We have no doubt that many churches which continue their dependence upon the Board could, and therefore ought to, sustain themselves. And it appears to us to be not only sinful, but dishonourable, for congregations to continue to draw upon the Missionary Fund of the Church, when they could, if they would, support themselves. If proper efforts were made to bring out the resources of such congregations, the results would show that they are perfectly able to sustain themselves without assistance from others. In some instances this experiment has been made in churches which had been receiving aid from the Board for many years, and which were supposed by many to be utterly incapable of doing without it, and the result has been that they were found fully able and willing to support the gospel among them without any aid from the Board. Is it not the imperative duty of every church to sustain the gospel among themselves without assistance from the Board, if able to do so? Undoubtedly it is; nor can any church be justified in applying for missionary aid, until they have made every inquiry and effort necessary to prove that such aid is indispensable. It is a grievous wrong both to themselves and others to continue to receive assistance from the Board, when they could by proper exertion and self-denial dispense with it altogether. The truth is, that the contributions of many individuals for the support of the gospel among them, bear no just proportion to their pecuniary ability, and are far less than those of many who contribute to the Missionary Fund upon which they are drawing. How many, for example, who own farms worth from five to twenty thousand dollars, give a mere pittance towards the support of their pastor, while many who are not worth one-tenth as much, contribute much more to the Board. If individuals in such competent and even wealthy circumstances would give, as they ought, in proportion to their ability, the churches to which they belong, instead of applying for aid, would be able not only to sustain their pastors, but also assist in furnishing the gospel to those who are really too poor to provide for themselves.

There are many other cases in which some aid from the Board is indispensable to enable the churches to support the gospel among them, but in which a smaller sum than what they apply for would be sufficient, if proper efforts were made to bring out their full strength. Every church should endeavour to make some progress towards self-sustentation, and ought not to apply for the same amount of assistance from year to year, and for many years in succession, without making every suitable exertion to avoid such necessity. There are many churches which continue from year to year, to apply for the same appropriation; and some of them, instead of asking for less, are actually applying for more! There are cases in which churches have remained upon the Board for a dozen years, and yet say they are not able to sustain themselves, nor even to reduce the amount appropriated to them! While, in some instances, the value of the lands, since their original settlement upon them, has increased ten, twenty, fifty, or an hundred per cent., they still apply for the same appropriation from the Board, and appear to think that they could not stand any reduction! We do not say that there may not be instances in which such long and undiminished dependence may be justifiable, but surely such cases demand the most serious and thorough investigation, nor should they be allowed to exist without exhausting every proper effort to remove or diminish such dependence.

It is a great mistake to suppose that such cases of long continued dependence upon the Board are confined to the old States. There are churches west of the Alleghenies, as well as east of them, which belong to this class. In Ohio, Indiana, &c., there are churches now drawing aid from the Missionary Fund, which were receiving aid from the Board ten years ago; and some of them appear to be just as dependent now as they were then. And as the present newer States become older, and emigration continues to increase from them to other and newer States and Territories, so is the number of stationary churches multiplied.

These unprogressive churches are absorbing a very large portion of the Missionary Fund, and their number is increasing. The appropriations made to them are now so large in the aggregate, that the Board are unable to extend their operations into other and more promising fields as they otherwise could and would; and unless some remedy is found for this increasing difficulty, the Board must be more and more embarrassed in their efforts to extend the boundaries of the Church.

By suitable arrangements, many of these weak and stationary churches would require much less aid from the Board. They might be grouped together in some instances and served by one pastor instead of several. Or they might be arranged into wider fields and served by an itinerating missionary. In this way thousands of dollars could be saved to the Missionary Fund of the Church, and many faithful ministers employed in other sections of our country, where they would be much more comfortably supported, and where, with the blessing of God, they might be much more extensively useful.

In this connection we desire again to call attention to the importance of Presbyterial vigilance respecting the applications of churches for continued aid from the Board. As stated in our last Report, it is obviously impossible for the Board to be thoroughly acquainted with all the local circumstances of the churches applying for assistance, and they must of necessity rely in a great measure upon the wisdom and fidelity of the Presbyteries which recommend them. Ordinarily the Board feel it to be their duty to commission all whom the Presbyteries desire to have appointed as missionaries within their bounds, and to grant to the churches under their care all the appropriations recommended by them, as far as the funds will allow. The responsibility is therefore mainly with the Presbyteries; and if there are any such evils as those to which we have alluded, the remedy is with them, as no church can receive aid from the Board unless recommended by a Presbytery. We respectfully request the Presbyteries and Presbyterial Committees on Domestic Missions to make a thorough investigation into the circumstances of every church applying for renewed assistance; and more particularly in the case of those which have been for any considerable time receiving aid from the Board. In some cases it may be found upon a proper examination, that they are fully able to sustain themselves without any further aid, and in many others, that a much smaller amount than they ask for would be sufficient to enable them, with proper effort among themselves, to support their pastors. A wise economy in the use of the Missionary Fund is a sacred duty, and it is highly important and necessary to the growth and expansion of the Church. Every dollar thus wisely saved may be usefully expended upon other fields, and made productive of good. Brethren, will you not give this subject your serious and earnest attention and do your whole duty conscientiously and faithfully?

We trust that we shall not be misunderstood in any of the remarks or suggestions we have made on this subject. We do not mean to express the opinion, that all churches which have long continued to receive aid from the Board, and which are likely never to be able wholly to sustain themselves, ought, on these accounts alone, to be abandoned, and suffered to become extinct. *Re*tention is as truly important and obligatory as *ex*tension; and it would be a very unwise policy to abandon churches, merely because they are weak, and are likely to remain so. Many of our old and feeble churches have been weakened by emigration to other sections of our country, and are kept weak by the same cause. They have sent, and are still sending their members into various parts of the land, where they form the nucleus of new and flourishing churches. But for the materials they supply, it would in many places be impracticable to gather and organize Presbyterian churches. It is therefore sound policy, as well as duty, to preserve them from extinction, while at the same time it is equally expedient to provide for them by the most judicious arrangements possible, and at no greater expense to the Church at large than is absolutely necessary.

All that we insist upon is, that no church should be allowed to receive aid any longer than is necessary, and no more at any time than is requisite; that every church ought to become self-sustaining as soon and as fully as possible; and that in all cases where feeble churches can be conveniently united under one pastoral charge, or comprehended in an itinerant missionary circuit, the Presbytery ought to secure such an arrangement.

CHURCH DEBTS.

As many of our missionary churches have been greatly embarrassed by debts incurred in the erection of church edifices, we feel it to be a duty to call the attention of our brethren to this subject. It is very desirable and important for congregations to erect suitable houses of worship, as soon as they are able to do so; for without church edifices, they must continue to labour under great disadvantages. For want of them, many churches remain for a long time weak and feeble, and are obliged to be almost wholly dependent upon the Board of Domestic Missions for their support; and hence this Board has always encouraged its missionaries to endeavour, as soon as they prudently can, to procure the erection of suitable church edifices.

But while it is desirable and important to erect houses of worship, when the means can be raised for their erection, it is very undesirable and injurious to contract debts which the people are unable to pay. Such incumbrances are often oppressively burdensome, and occasion a great deal of uneasiness and inconvenience. They sometimes prevent the growth of congregations by deterring others from uniting with them, and not unfrequently lead to the removal of pastors, on the ground that more popular and attractive preachers are needed to enable the people to liquidate their debts. And while thus incumbered, they are of course not able to support the gospel among them, and are compelled to continue their dependence upon the Board. It is no uncommon thing to assign church-debts as the reason why the same appropriation is required from the Board from year to year, and for many years in succession, and why, in the meantime, they take up no collection for any of the benevolent schemes of the Church!

The erection of church edifices, under such circumstances, instead of relieving the Board, only adds to their expenditures. Thousands of dollars are expended by the Board of Domestic Missions in the support of pastors whose congregations would be able to sustain them without aid from the Board, were it not for their church-debts; and thus, indirectly, the Board of Domestic Missions is liquidating debts contracted in the erection of church edifices, or helping to pay the interest accruing upon debts incurred in the building of houses of worship.

There is reason to fear that in some instances there is great want of discretion in the building of houses of worship—they are sometimes unnecessarily large and costly. It is certainly desirable to build churches sufficiently large to accommodate the existing congregation, and to make a reasonable allowance for a prospective increase of members; and it is conceded that neatness, as well as comfort, ought to be consulted in the style and manner of their construction. Neither are we disposed to condemn a more costly style of architecture, when congregations are able to defray the expense. But it is obviously imprudent for congregations to build larger houses of worship than are necessary, and more ornamental and costly, when they are not able to pay for them; and when the debts thus contracted are almost certain to embarrass them, and prevent them from becoming, perhaps for years, self-sustaining and contributing churches.

Debts thus imprudently contracted by weak congregations, are not only a source of embarrassment to themselves, but they are often a source of annoyance to others. Some of our pastors and churches complain of the frequency with which applications are made to them for collections to aid in paying such debts, contracted indiscreetly, and without a proper regard to the ability of those who have incurred them.

We desire therefore respectfully and kindly to call the attention of all our missionaries and missionary churches to this subject; and we advise them not to commence building until they have secured a sufficient sum to enable them to erect church edifices without involving their congregations in an amount of debt which would be likely to embarrass them, or which would impair their ability to support the gospel among them. Especially do we advise them not to build unnecessarily large and costly houses of worship, which would prove burdensome, and which would protract their dependence upon the Board of Domestic Missions, whose funds are intended for the support of missionaries, and not for the erection of church edifices, nor the payment of debts incurred for their erection.

CHANGE OF TITLE.

When the Board of Missions was instituted by the General Assembly in 1816, there was no Board of Foreign Missions established by the Assembly, and consequently the title given to the Board of Missions was sufficiently distinctive. After the organization of the Board of Foreign Missions, it became increasingly evident that something more was necessary to distinguish it from the Foreign Board. This necessity led to the custom of inserting the term Domestic, sometimes within brackets, and often without. Indeed, for some years past, in the published Minutes of the General Assembly, the Abstract of the Annual Report of the Board has been prefaced by the title, "Board of Domestic Missions." In some instances the term "Domestic" has been inserted in bequests, under the impression that it formed a part of the legal title of the Board; and in other cases different terms have been employed to designate the Board for which bequests were intended.

In order to obviate this inconvenience, and the litigation and loss occasioned by the want of a distinctive title, the Board obtained from the Legislature of Pennsylvania a change of the corporate title of the Board. The change consists in the insertion of the term Domestic. The Legislative act is as follows, viz.

AN ACT

To change the name of the Board of Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the corporate title, style, and name of the Trustees of the Board of Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall be, and hereby is changed to "The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America." Provided, That nothing herein contained shall divest, diminish, or in any way impair or affect the title or right of said Corporation to any of its real or personal estate or effects, or its right to receive, demand, and recover any devise, bequest, legacy, or other gift heretofore made, or which shall hereafter be made to the said Corporation under its former name, for the uses and purposes set forth in its charter, in the same manner as if this act had not been passed.

Signed,

J. M. B. PETRIKEN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives, Pro Tem.

FR. JORDAN,
Speaker of the Senate, Pro Tem.

Approved the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

JAMES POLLOCK.

We trust that all the friends of the Board will notice this change in the corporate title, and that it will be particularly remembered by those who intend to make bequests to the Board of Domestic Missions.

The State laws differ so much that no one form will answer in all the States, but in every case it is essential to give the RIGHT CORPORATE NAME, viz. "The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America." When real estate or other property is given, let it be particularly described.

As the benevolent intentions of testators have often been thwarted by the imperfect and illegal manner in which their wills have been written, and many thousands of dollars have been thus lost by the Board, we would again respectfully but earnestly request any who may desire to make a bequest to the Board, to be careful in drawing their wills, and especially in giving the full and exact corporate title of the Board, as that is essential. Too much care cannot be taken on this subject, in order to prevent expensive litigation and loss.

A FEW WORDS TO OUR MISSIONARIES.

We are gratified in being able to say, that a somewhat larger number of missionaries have sent in their special reports than the previous year; for although the number reported by us as delinquent is one more than the year preceding, yet the proportion of delinquents is smaller when compared with the increased number of our missionaries. We regret, however, that there should still have been so many who have neglected this duty, and would once more earnestly request all to attend to this matter hereafter, to make their reports as full and as accurate as possible, and to forward them to us in due season.

We are also gratified in being able to state, that an increasing number of the missionaries in the field assigned to the Western Executive Committee, are forwarding their quarterly reports to the office in Philadelphia. We thus become better acquainted with our missionary brethren—with the character of the fields they occupy—and the state of our missions in those sections of the Church. We can thus appreciate more justly their labours, and sympathize with them in their trials. We would be glad if all of them would comply with the standing rule of the Board, which we re-publish at the bottom of this page.*

It affords us great pleasure also to state that a larger number of our missionaries have forwarded contributions to the Board, and that the collections from their churches appear to be, in many instances, increasing from year to year. Indeed some of the missionary churches have been very liberal, and deserve special commendation for the good example they have set to

* The following resolution was adopted by the Board, June 30th, 1845, viz.

"Resolved, That the missionaries of the Board under the supervision of the Committee at Louisville, be directed to send to the Secretary of the Committee at Louisville, a duplicate of each quarterly report to the Board. These missionaries are expected, according to the instructions in their commissions, to send regular quarterly reports to the Board, as heretofore; and in addition, under the present regulation, they are directed to send at the same time, copies of these reports to the Committee at Louisville, to enable that Committee to keep their accounts. The missionaries within that agency will receive their pay from the Treasury at Louisville, on orders of that Committee."

others. We regret that we are compelled to add, as in previous years, that many of our missionaries have reported no collections for the Board during the past year. How they can reconcile this delinquency with their obligations to Christ, and their duty to the Church, we cannot conceive. A proper regard to the temporal and spiritual prosperity of their own congregations, should constrain them to cultivate the grace of benevolence among their people—for no church can truly prosper while ignoring this plain scriptural duty. Besides, it is so ungenerous to continue to derive their support from the Board, and yet neglect to aid in replenishing its treasury! It is no excuse to say that their churches are weak and feeble; for there is not a church in the land that could not afford to give something, nor one, we verily believe, that would not be willing to do so, if a suitable opportunity were afforded them. It is not so much the amount which feeble churches might give that we care for; it is the principle that is involved, and the evidence which such contributions afford of the fidelity of their pastors, and the Christian spirit of their people. But it is a great mistake to suppose that the contributions of such churches, would amount to but little—in the aggregate they would be very large, and would very materially aid the Board in sustaining their missionaries. We sometimes feel discouraged in our unceasing efforts to raise funds for their support, in view of the little zeal which many of them manifest in aiding us to promote their own interest! May we not hope that the time will come, when every missionary of the Board will annually present the cause of Domestic Missions before his congregation, and thus afford them the opportunity of giving?

We desire to express our obligations to those of our missionaries who have favoured us, during the year, with suitable matter for the Home and Foreign Record. Such articles are highly prized by us, and will always be welcome. Our regret is that so few of the reports of our missionaries are suitable for publication. They are generally written in haste, and often communicate nothing that would be likely to interest the public. We would be glad if more of the brethren would prepare their reports with a view to publication. They might at least occasionally communicate facts and incidents that would be both interesting and useful, and thus greatly promote the cause of domestic missions.

We will add a few words in relation to the labours and trials —the joys and sorrows of our beloved missionaries. We rejoice with those of you who have seen the work of the Lord prospering in your hands. What ground for gratitude—what cause for thanksgiving and praise to God, that he has so graciously blessed your labours, and made you instrumental in winning so many precious souls to Christ! The eternal salvation of men is the great object for which we are labouring, and for every soul converted and saved by your instrumentality, we heartily unite with you in grateful and joyous praise to the triune God. Let your past success, dear brethren, encourage and stimulate you to greater exertion and prayer, and the fruit you have gathered may prove the earnest of a greater and more glorious harvest.

We deeply sympathize with those of you who have felt discouraged because you have not been permitted to see any evidence of good results from your labours. Be not disheartened, you have not laboured in vain, and will not fail of your reward in heaven, if you have endeavoured conscientiously and faithfully to discharge your duty. The seed sown in tears will some time be gathered with rejoicing; for God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love. You have, we know, many difficulties to contend with—many trials to endure; but God has promised that his grace shall be sufficient, "and we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." Continue, then, dear brethren, to discharge your duty zealously, patiently and perseveringly, and cheerfully trust in the wisdom, power and faithfulness of your covenant-keeping God. And while we commend you daily to the care and blessing of our Heavenly Father, we earnestly request you to pray for us, that we may be enabled to prosecute the great and difficult work assigned us, most wisely and efficiently, to the glory of God, the welfare of our beloved Church, and the speedy evangelization of our entire land.

Let us all remember that the time is short, and that the night cometh in which no man can work. During the past fiscal year, a member of the Board, and several of our missionaries have been removed by death. They now rest from their labours and have entered upon their gracious and glorious reward. These events should remind us all of our accountability to God, and should stimulate us to renewed zeal in our Master's service. Let us then work while it is day, that we may finish our course with joy and receive from our Judge and Saviour the welcome plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servants, enter ye into the joy of your Lord."

RESOLUTIONS OCCASIONED BY THE DECEASE OF THE REV. SYMMES C. HENRY, D. D.

At a meeting of the Board, held on Monday, April 13th, 1857, the following minute was unanimously adopted, viz.

"Forasmuch as it has pleased the sovereign Disposer to remove by death the Rev. Symmes C. Henry, D. D., an attending member of this board, we desire to record our sorrow in view of a so sudden and afflictive event, and to bear testimony to the worth of our departed friend—therefore,

Resolved, 1. That while we recognize the hand of God in his removal, and bow submissively to the divine will, we can but regard his decease, in the height of his usefulness, as a public bereavement.

Resolved, 2. That we deeply sympathize with his church and congregation, in the loss of a pastor so long distinguished among them for the zeal, fidelity, and devotion with which he discharged the duties of his pastorate, and for untiring efforts for their spiritual welfare.

Resolved, 3. That we offer our heart-felt condolence to the family bereaved of their affectionate husband and father, and pray that in their great affliction they may realize the truth of that comforting assurance, that 'weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.'

Resolved, 4. That the removal of one of our number, so lately conferring with us in regard to the interests of the Church of Christ, admonishes us to be diligent in the work the Master has given us to do.

Resolved, 5. That a copy of this minute be presented to the afflicted family; and also, to the church and congregation of which the deceased was pastor."

CONCLUSION.

In reviewing the labours and results of the past year, it becomes us all to humble ourselves before God for our great short-comings in duty, and to grieve that so little has been accomplished, compared with what might have been effected, by the blessing of the Almighty, if the whole Church had put forth her entire strength, and prayed as she ought for the prosperity and success of her missions. How few have been our self-denials—how little our active zeal—how small our contributions—how infrequent and feeble our prayers in behalf of the missionary cause! What little has been effected in strengthening our missions—in extending the Church—and for the conversion of souls! Compared with the sacrifices, and labours, and prayers of the primitive disciples, how great have been our short-comings! Contrasted with the success of apostolic missionary efforts, how very little have we accomplished, notwithstanding our greater numbers, wealth, and facilities for the establishment and extension of the kingdom of Christ! As we have thus greatly come short of our duty, and failed to accomplish what we might otherwise have effected, by the blessing of God, we cannot be forgiven without sincere repentance, nor reasonably expect the divine blessing upon our future efforts. If under a deep conviction of our short-comings and sins, our whole people would truly humble themselves before God, implore his pardoning mercy, and earnestly seek his grace to enable them to be more faithful in time to come, might we not reasonably expect the more abundant out-pouring of the Spirit, and the greater, yea, the most glorious success of our missionary efforts?

How much have we to stimulate and encourage us in the further prosecution of the domestic missionary work! What an immense field does our country furnish for successful missionary labour! How many millions are here within our reach —speaking our own language—easily accessible by our missionaries—and for the most part prepared, by education and custom, to look with favour upon the organization of churches, and the establishment of Christian institutions among them. How congenial, too, are the simple forms of worship of our denomination, and the representative character of our ecclesiastical government, to the republican habits of our countrymen, and their civil and political views and customs. Nowhere on the face of the globe is there so promising a missionary field —none which has proved so productive, nor in which so extensive and glorious a harvest may be speedily gathered. And how deep a personal interest have we, as American citizens and Christians, in the speedy and thorough evangelization of our own land! All that we most dearly prize on earth is at stake —our property—our social well-being—our personal liberty—our very lives! For how can these be protected and secured, without the pervading, restraining, and conservative influence of the gospel of Christ? Viewed also in connection with heathen lands, how unspeakably important is the thorough evangelization of this land. What numbers of foreign missionaries might our country furnish—what millions of money for the propagation of the gospel abroad, if the men and the gold of our nation were converted and consecrated to the glory and service of God!

How much, notwithstanding our short-comings and sins, has already been accomplished, by the blessing of the Almighty. Our beloved Church is established in almost every State and Territory of our happy Union, and is gradually planting her standards in every part of the land. By her national and conservative character and the purely evangelical spirit and aims of her ministry, she has the respect and confidence of all sections, and wields a moral influence of immense power for good.

Above all, the great Head and King of Zion has manifestly blessed our efforts, and is still granting her the gracious tokens of his love. With such encouragements to incite and sustain our Christian faith and zeal, let us redouble our exertions for the glory of God, the salvation of souls, and the welfare of our country.

Let us remember, however, that it is "not by might, nor by power; but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." Paul may plant, and Apollos water, but God must give the increase. "The Lord our God is a jealous God"—and, "Thus saith the Lord God; I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them." With more earnest, wrestling prayer on the part of God's people for the ambassadors of Christ, how much more successful would our missionaries be in the propagation of the gospel. And when we consider the difficulties with which they have to contend, the self-denials they are compelled to practice, the trials and discouragements to which they are subjected, and the unspeakable importance of the work in which they are employed, shall they not have our liveliest sympathies and our most earnest prayers?

Prayer to be effectual must be accompanied by the use of all proper means; it cannot even be sincere without practical exertion. It is worse than useless, it is presumptuous and sinful, to pray, "Thy kingdom come," and yet refuse or neglect to do what is required of us to promote the cause of Christ. We must devote our time, and strength, and wealth, as well as pray, if we would secure the blessing of God. Every one ought to contribute, cheerfully and liberally, to this blessed cause, "as God hath prospered him"—"according to his ability." All that we possess is the gift of God; and as his stewards we are accountable to him for the manner in which we discharge the trust committed to us. If his people were more faithful in this respect, how much more prosperous might they be both in temporal and spiritual things, and how much more abundantly would God bless their labours in his service. "There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, and it tendeth to poverty." "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

We rejoice and give thanks to God that there are some who possess and manifest the spirit of prayer and zeal and benevolence in a high degree; and it is in a great measure owing to them, under God, that the missionary cause has made the progress that it has. But how much more might be accomplished if our people would more generally coöperate in this great and noble work! How many individual professors—nay, how many churches even, do little or nothing to promote the cause! Will the time not come, oh Lord, how long! when every church and every Christian throughout our whole denomination will unite, as with the heart of one man, in the vigorous prosecution of this immense and difficult, but noble and glorious work? Does it not require the active and hearty coöperation of all? Does not the Providence of God demand it? Does not the command of Christ enjoin it? Do not the welfare of the Church, the prosperity of our country, and the eternal interests of millions most urgently enforce it? Let no one then refuse "to come up to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty."

Yes, dear brethren, what we need, on our part, is more fervent prayer, greater self-denial, more constant and earnest zeal, greater liberality, and more general and hearty coöperation in this great and blessed work. With these, and the promised blessing of the Almighty, the missionary cause will gloriously triumph over every obstacle, and our whole country be speedily and thoroughly evangelized, to the glory and praise of our redeeming God and Saviour.

The usual Statistical Table of missionaries and labours performed, is now laid, with this Report, before the Assembly, for inspection, together with all the papers relating to the state of the Treasury.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires during the meeting of this Assembly.

APPENDIX.

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WESTERN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE TO THE BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

Your Committee has now been in existence twelve years, and in looking back over that period we feel that we have cause of special gratitude that all the members of our body have been spared until the present time. Some who were once members of the Committee have removed to other fields of labour, and others have come in and taken their places, but no one who ever belonged to our number has yet been removed by death. Those who have been connected with the Committee from the beginning have watched with the deepest interest the varying phases which the work of missions has assumed in the field under our charge, and the changes which have taken place within that time. States which were then for the first time thrown open for settlement, have since become populous, and taken rank along side of the older members of the confederacy. Four new Synods have been erected on a Territory which was then covered by a single one, and Presbyteries, ministers, and churches are now counted almost by scores where they then existed isolated and alone, separated far distant from each other. Although in some portions of our field the growth of the churches has been retarded by the constant drain of their members to the newer States and Territories, still, we believe there is no general region in which the Church is not as strong as it then was, and in most places the growth has been marked and rapid. In Texas, Illinois, and Iowa, the growth has been the most marked, because population has flowed to those States more rapidly than to other parts. Twelve years ago the Synod of Illinois covered the whole territory embraced in the States of Illinois and Iowa. Now there are four Synods on that territory. Illinois then had forty, and Iowa nine ministers, serving one hundred and twenty-two churches. Now they have little less than two huudred ministers preaching to near two hundred and fifty churches. Then Texas had not been annexed to the United States, and its missionaries, who were few and far between, were under the care of the Foreign Board. Now we have there a Synod composed of about fifty ministers and fifty-five or sixty churches. Well may we exclaim, "What hath God wrought!" The first year of our existence as a Committee we received into our Treasury $10,374.68. During the eleven months, ending March 1, 1856, we received $20,153.23. We take these years for comparison, because we had agents at work collecting during both of them. The whole number of missionaries commissioned by us during the first year of our existence was one hundred and four. The number commissioned during the past year was two hundred and thirteen. These facts serve to show that our Church has made very decided progress in the West within that time; a large part of which, under God, is due to the aid afforded by the Board of Domestic Missions, without which many of the ministers who have gone into the new States and Territories could not have been supported.

STATE OF THE TREASURY.

The General Assembly two years since having inaugurated a scheme of Systematic Benevolence, which contemplated dispensing entirely with all paid agencies for the collection of funds, your Committee felt bound to carry out that policy and give it a fair trial.

During the past year they have thrown the work of collecting funds where it properly belongs, entirely into the hands of the pastors and church sessions. They have visited, in the persons of some of their members, as many of the Presbyteries and Synods as they could, and laid the wants of the Board before them, and left the matter with them. Owing to the great drought of last summer in a large part of our field, there was almost an entire failure of the crops, which greatly curtailed the income of the agricultural portion of the community and largely increased the expense of living in the towns and cities. This naturally had a tendency to lessen the contributions to our treasury. But we are happy to add, that notwithstanding these drawbacks, the experiment of dispensing with paid agents has been more successful than we anticipated. From the Treasurer's report, herewith submitted, it will be seen that the receipts from all sources from March 1, 1856, to March 1, 1857, have been $17,519.83, to which is to be added $2469.20 worth of clothing sent to the depot by the ladies, and a balance on hand the first of March, 1856, of $1479.83, making the whole sum that has come into our treasury during the year $21,468.33. The whole amount received during the twelve months ending April 1, 1855, was $13,122.63, but during the next twelve months it arose to $22,069.11, of which $5575.00 were from legacies. If then we deduct the legacies from each year, and compare the contributions from the churches, the account will stand thus: during the twelve months ending on the first instant we have received $651.77 more than we did during the twelve months ending April 1, 1856, and $4397.20 more than we did during the twelve months ending on the first of April, 1855. The two former years we had travelling agents, whilst during the last we had but one for a very short time. These facts, taken in connection with the other already alluded to, the failure of the crops and the severity of the winter, encourage us to hope that the experiment of doing without travelling agents will prove eminently successful. The first year of such an experiment must necessarily be a trying one. Pastors and sessions, which for a long series of years have depended on the annual visits of agents to stir up their churches to the duty of giving to the Board, will naturally be reluctant at first to discharge that duty themselves. We must expect that it will require years of patient toil to get the system of giving statedly and at regular periods, fully established in all the churches. The church authorities must expect to make repeated efforts before they can have their plan of systematic benevolence fully established and in operation in all the churches. The efforts of the past year in our portion of the field are such as to encourage the Board and the General Assembly to persevere in the effort to establish a system of benevolence which will eventually secure a contribution to Domestic Missions from every church under its care.

MISSIONARIES IN COMMISSION.

On the first day of March, 1856, there were one hundred and sixty-two missionaries in commission in our territory. One hundred and twenty of these have been re-commissioned, their former commissions having expired during the year, (re-commissions have been granted to twenty-nine missionaries whose commissions expired before the beginning of the year,) and sixty-four new commissions have been issued, making a total of two hundred and thirteen commissions granted during the year. The whole number in commission during the year was two hundred and fifty-five. The whole number last year was two hundred and thirty-five, showing a gain this year over the last, in the number of missionaries, of twenty. Last year we re-commissioned one hundred and fourteen, this year one hundred and forty-nine, and we commissioned sixty-nine new ones last year and this year sixty-four.

SELF-SUSTAINING CHURCHES.

Greater efforts have been made during the past year to induce those churches which have been a long time on the funds of the Board, to become self-sustaining, than on any former occasion. The Secretary of the Committee, by their direction, made several tours through the churches for that purpose, and succeeded in bringing quite a number of them to assume the whole support of their pastors or stated supplies, which otherwise would probably have continued to ask aid. In this way several thousand dollars have been saved to the funds of the Board. The Committee are convinced that many thousands might annually be saved in this way if the Presbyteries, which alone have the power, would take the matter in hand, and by a process of regular visitation of the churches receiving aid, would bring them up to the duty of self-support. We are satisfied by the examinations which we have made, that there are many churches receiving aid, which by a little sacrifice might support themselves. It is a reproach to any church to ask the aid of others to supply them with the gospel when they are able to supply themselves, and the impression that there are many such on the funds of the Board, operates as a check on the benevolence of the churches in their contributions to its funds. It therefore becomes the Presbyteries to look narrowly into every case asking aid, and to see that this ground of objection to the Board is removed. The responsibility of every wrong appropriation of funds, lies primarily and chiefly at their door, as no grant is made until it has been recommended by them. It is due to truth, however, to state that many of the churches whose ministers have been re-commissioned, have lately increased their payments towards their ministers' support; but owing to the great increase in the cost of living, the Board has been compelled to continue their appropriations in part. In all such cases there is a gradual approximation towards the point of self-support, which is gratifying to note. We have paid up all the missionaries commissioned by us who have reported, up to the first instant, and have a small balance of $461.61 on hand; but an exact calculation shows that there will be due to the first instant, $5375.71, so soon as reports shall come in from missionaries whose quarters have not yet expired. To meet this large sum as it falls due, liberal collections must be kept up in the churches, or the Board must fail to meet its obligations to the missionaries.

We have employed during the year a larger number of itinerant missionaries than usual, and would have employed still more, could suitable men for that difficult kind of work have been found. For the want of that sort of labour, many weak churches are dying out, and the scattered members of our communion who have gone into the wilderness and ought to be gathered into churches of our own order, are going into other folds.

In conclusion, we would remark, that the field of our labours is yearly widening and the call for missionaries becoming louder and more numerous. Scarcely a mail reaches us but it brings the Macedonian cry from some part of this great valley. Had we the right kind of men and the means to sustain them, there need be no limits to the expansion of our Church in this country. But we can provide neither the one nor the other. All that we, as a committee, can do, is to receive the numerous and touching calls which are made to us, and then in response to send out the men and the money as they are furnished us by the churches, according to our judgment, as to where they will probably do the greatest amount of good. Being straightened both as to men and means, we are compelled to permit many of these calls to go unanswered, to which we would gladly have responded. Our churches and ministry need to be baptized afresh with an unwonted spirit of consecration of themselves and all their possessions to the cause of Christ, before this work of giving the gospel to our whole land will progress as the necessities of the country demand.

By order of the Committee,

L. J. HALSEY, Chairman.

W. W. HILL, Corresponding Secretary.

BEQUESTS.

The General Assembly which met in 1840, authorized their Board of Domestic Missions to apply to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania for an Act of Incorporation: this application was made, and a charter obtained, and the Board have now an incorporated Board of Trustees, entitled, "The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America." To this body, all legacies or bequests for the Board of Domestic Missions should now be given.

The State laws differ so much that no one form will answer in all the States, but in every case it is essential to give the RIGHT CORPORATE NAME.

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS FOR MISSIONARY AID.

Applicants for missionaries and missionary aid, are respectfully and earnestly requested to pay particular attention to the following rules and regulations of the Board:

Rule 1. Regular form in which applications are to come up to the Board, as often as made.

Applications to the Board for Missionary appointments and pecuniary aid, and also for the re-appointment of Missionaries, should always be made by the Elders of the Church, through the Presbytery, or the Corresponding Executive Committee of the Presbytery to which the church applying for assistance belongs—accompanied with a recommendation from said Presbytery or Committee, of the Missionary to be appointed, and a specification of the amount of aid indispensably necessary.

If there be no Corresponding Executive Committee in the Presbytery, the application must be fully sanctioned by two neighbouring ministers, connected with the Presbytery to which the church belongs.

Rule 2. Of the Board, in relation to renewing, dating, and ante-dating Commissions. Passed March 10th, 1851.

In consequence of the constantly repeated applications of Presbyteries to ante-date Commissions, some for three, others for six, and some even for twelve months, and without any apparent reason, other than want of attention and prompt action on the part of Presbyteries and Committees of Presbyteries on Missions, thereby embarrassing the business of the Board, and depriving the Board of an accurate knowledge of the expenses of our Missions, for which provision must be made weekly, therefore,

1. Resolved, That the Presbyteries and Committees of Presbyteries on Missions, be respectfully requested to have Commissions of their Missionaries renewed before the expiration of their time of service, if practicable to do so; and in all cases to state definitely the time when they wish the Commission to be dated.

2. Resolved, That from and after the 1st day of May, 1851, the Board will ante-date no Commission beyond two months from the time of the reception of the application at the Mission Rooms, either in Philadelphia or in Louisville.

3. Rules of the Board in relation to careful examination of applicants:—to information requested of Presbyteries by the Board, to assist it in its action:—and to churches able to support the gospel for themselves.

"On motion,

1. Resolved, That the Committees of the Board, in Philadelphia and Louisville, be directed to examine carefully into the propriety and justice of every application for new Commissions, or for renewal of old ones; and whenever the sums applied for may be reduced, that the reduction may be made.

2. Resolved, That the Presbyteries be requested to state the amount raised by the churches or congregations forming missionary fields, in support of their pastors or missionaries, when they apply for Commissions from the Board for them, in order to enable the Board to act more intelligently on the applications.

3. Resolved, That before a Presbytery entertain the application of any organized church or missionary field, it be requested to inquire whether said church or field has any reasonable prospect of becoming self-sustaining; and whether said church or field may not properly and profitably be united with some contiguous church or churches, and the labour of a missionary, and the expense of his support, be saved to the Board, agreeably to the recommendation of the General Assembly.

4. Resolved, That all churches which have been long upon the Board, and are able to support the gospel of themselves, have their appropriations reduced; and that they be discontinued by the Board as soon as possible, in order that the Missionary funds of the Church may be husbanded, and more liberally and extensively applied to fields that are purely missionary, and in which the Church may expand and grow."

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO PRESBYTERIES AND CHURCHES APPLYING FOR AID.

It has always been regarded as the duty of churches applying for aid, to inform the Board, through the Presbyteries by which their applications are recommended, of the amount of salary they promise to pay to their pastors, or stated supplies, in order that the Presbyteries and the Board may be able the better to judge whether the amount of aid asked for is reasonable and necessary. From some cause or other, this salutary custom has gradually fallen into disuse, at least so far as the Board is informed, and the information so obviously necessary is very generally withheld. In order to obtain this needed information in future, the Board, at its recent meeting, adopted unanimously the following resolution, viz.

"Resolved, That the Executive Committees of the Board be, and they hereby are instructed to defer acting upon applications for missionary aid until they ascertain, if practicable, what amount of salary the churches applying for assistance from the Board have promised, or are willing to promise, to their ministers."

In view of this resolution of the Board, we respectfully request all the churches desiring aid, to inform their respective Presbyteries of the amount of salary they have promised, or are willing to promise, their ministers; and we also respectfully request all the Presbyteries and Presbyterial Committees on Missions, to furnish this information to the Executive Committees of the Board when applications for aid are recommended. This will prevent delay and trouble, as the Executive Committees, under the instruction of the Board, will of course defer acting upon all applications until they obtain, if practicable, the information required.

This rule is so obviously proper, and indeed indispensable to the judicious disbursement of the Missionary Fund of the Church, that we confidently trust it will be cheerfully complied with by all the parties interested.

CLOTHING.

Boxes of Clothing for Missionaries.—For the information of those who may wish to furnish clothing, or other articles, for the comfort of our missionaries and their families, we publish the following.

Boxes of clothing, when sent directly to the office of the Board, without any particular designation, will be forwarded to such missionaries as are known to be the most needy; and the missionaries, to whom a box from any congregation or association is sent, will be requested to write to the donors, acknowledging the receipt.

In some instances, we are asked at the office to designate some missionary, and give particular information in regard to his circumstances, his family, etc. This information it is not always in our power to give; and not unfrequently difficulties arise from selecting particular missionaries in that way. As a general rule, then, we would say, as the result of our own experience in this matter, that if the donors have no special reasons for designating a particular missionary, the distribution of these boxes had better be left to the officers of the Board at the office. Our decided impression is, that a more equitable and judicious distribution will in this way be made, and the object of the benevolent donors be more completely gained.

We ask particular attention to the following directions for forwarding boxes.

1. In every box that is sent, put a list of all the articles, with an estimated value of each article; put on the same paper the name of the individual, congregation or association from whom the box comes; also the address of the person to whom a letter of acknowledgment is to be sent. Let this paper be put in the box, where it will readily be seen on the box being opened. A copy of this list, with a letter, should also be sent to the Office of the Board, in which letter information should be given of the time when the box was sent, and by what conveyance, and any other things connected with the donation, which it may be desirable should be known at the office.

2. The box should be fully and plainly marked, "Mission Rooms, 821 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia;" and the place from which it comes should always appear on the outside. The articles should be carefully put up in strong and tight boxes, well nailed, and secured against rough handling, on a long voyage.

3. It is important that all boxes of clothing, designed more especially for the West, should be at the office as early as the first of September, that they may reach their destination before the navigation closes.

Clothing Distributed Gratuitously.—Boxes of clothing form no part of a missionary's regular appropriation—the Board, therefore, need the same amount of funds to meet their engagements, as if no boxes were forwarded. It is very important this should not be overlooked. These boxes are of great value to missionaries, and they need all that is sent to them; but we should be careful not to suffer these acts of kindness to lessen our pecuniary donations to the cause. The cause cannot admit of this without loss, and serious loss. Thus far there has been no pecuniary loss, but rather a gain, by the interest which has been excited in the preparation of these boxes. We fondly hope it will continue to be so, and that the interest in this cause will continue to increase, until our whole land is supplied with the gospel privileges.

Contents of Boxes.—As to what is to be put into these boxes, we are willing to leave that matter to the judgment of our good ladies, who so well know what is wanted in a family. Scarcely any article in common use will come amiss. Knives and forks, spoons, scissors, thread, yarn, silk, needles, pins, tape, buttons, etc. etc., in addition to articles of substantial wearing apparel, will be thankfully received. Flannel, muslins, calicoes, etc., not made up, are very acceptable. Garden seeds, medicines, etc.

PRINCIPLES UPON WHICH THE WORK OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS IS CONDUCTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Resolved, That the Assembly would re-affirm all the principles upon which it has heretofore carried on its Domestic Missions—principles which have been exhibited in a review of all the published minutes, acts, and doings of the Church in her highest judicatories, from the beginning; and which are drawn up and set forth in order in the Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, May, 1852.

Resolved, That the great work undertaken for so long a time by the Assembly, is the expansion and full establishment of the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, by his own Spirit and power, over all our vast country. And it is purely a missionary work; missionary in this respect, that ministers are sent out by the Assembly, and means furnished for their support, in whole or in part, while they are preaching the gospel, and gathering and establishing churches. So soon as individual churches, or groups of churches, are established, and are able to support all the institutions of the gospel for themselves, they are no longer missionary in character, but immediately cease their connection with the Board, and fall into line with the great body of self-sustaining and contributing churches, and go to add to the solid material and power of the Presbyterian Church. Now the principles upon which the General Assembly conducts its Domestic Missionary work, are these: 1st. It is in the sense defined, a missionary work. 2d. The funds contributed for it are missionary funds. 3d. The men employed in preaching the gospel are, in their fields, missionary men. 4th. All the churches and fields aided and supplied, are missionary churches and fields. 5th. The funds supplied are funds for temporary assistance, and not for entire nor permanent support. The people aided are to help themselves, be it ever so little, from the beginning, and are to go on to independence. 6th. The grand end and aim of the Assembly is to establish self-sustaining churches and fields, as fast and as far as possible, and so to increase the solid material and power of the Church, and accumulate strength to go forward expanding. 7th. Ministers and means are to be distributed according to the relative importance and promise of different fields, and in view of the necessities of the whole field, that there may be equality, and no partiality. 8th. The Assembly conducts this work through a Committee or Board, responsible to itself alone, under its advice and control, and which Board is required to exercise its sound discretion and judgment in deciding upon, and in conducting the business entrusted to it. 9th. No debt to be incurred in carrying forward the missionary work. The Assembly always acted upon this just and only safe principle, and a principle which has always been adhered to by our Church; and in the Assembly of 1803 the following resolution was passed: "That there ought to be no anticipation of the funds in future; or, in other words, that appropriations ought not to be made in any year, beyond the amount which the funds arising in that year will be sufficient to satisfy." p. 280. 10th. And finally, agents for visiting the churches, and collecting funds for the work, may be employed by the Board.

Resolved, That the Board be directed to go forward and conduct the work entrusted to its care on these principles, as heretofore, and that they be commended to the attention and observance of all Presbyteries and churches, in their applications for aid, and that the Board be also instructed to pay, as heretofore, due regard to the recommendations of Presbyteries. That all pastors and stated supplies be requested to take pains to circulate the Report when published, and diffuse more information on the subject of Domestic Missions among their people.—Minutes of the General Assembly, held at Charleston, South Carolina, May 26, 1852, p. 215.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON DISCRETIONARY POWERS OF THE BOARD.

On Applicants.—In answer to the questions propounded by the Presbyteries of Union and French Broad, the Assembly would say, that though they do not recognize in the Board of Domestic Missions the authority to sit in judgment upon the orthodoxy or morality of any minister who is in good standing in his own Presbytery; yet from the necessity of the case, they must exercise their own sound discretion upon the expediency or inexpediency of appointing, or withholding any appointment, from any applicant, holding themselves amenable to the General Assembly for all their official acts.—Minutes, 1830, p. 16.

On the Distribution of Funds.—Overture No. 13, a memorial from the Presbytery of Logansport, desiring the Assembly to say, whether the Board of Domestic Missions has the power to reduce the amounts recommended to be given in aid to any churches, under the care of any Presbytery, without consulting such Presbytery; and if so, whether the Board has not an equal right to take away the whole amount so recommended in any case. It was Resolved, That while the Assembly expects the Board of Domestic Missions to pay great respect to the advice of the Presbyteries, touching missionaries labouring within their bounds, yet, in the distribution of its funds, the action of the Board must be controlled by the state of its treasury, and the relative importance of the various missionary fields under its care.—Minutes, 1852, p. 221.

Feeble Churches to be Combined.—Resolved, That each Presbytery in our communion be recommended to discourage the sundering of feeble churches now united in support of the gospel, and generally to combine together such feeble churches in appropriate fields of labour, that the Board of Domestic Missions may be relieved from the need of a large allowance in such cases, and, where practicable, from the need of any allowance in aid of ministerial support.—Minutes, 1846, p. 206.

CHARTER of the BOARD OF DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

To all to whom these presents shall come.

KNOW YE, That whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America have a Board of Domestic Missions, composed of Ministers and Laymen, members of the Presbyterian Church, the design of which is to afford aid to feeble Presbyterian churches in the support of pastors, to form new churches, and to supply destitute settlements with the stated ministry and gospel ordinances; and whereas, the aforesaid Board of Domestic Missions labours under serious disadvantages as to receiving donations and bequests, and as to the management of funds entrusted to them for the purposes designated in their Constitution, and in accordance with the benevolent intentions of those from whom such bequests and donations are received;

Therefore, William Brown, William Nassau, Sen., Matthew Newkirk, Solomon Allen, Alexander Symington, Ashbel Green, Cornelius C. Cuyler, William A. McDowell, and Thomas Hoge, citizens of the United States, and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and their successors, are hereby constituted and declared to be a body politic and corporate, which shall henceforth be known by the name of "The Trustees of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and as such shall have perpetual succession, and be able to sue and be sued in all courts of record and elsewhere; and to purchase and receive, take and hold, to them and their successors for ever, lands, tenements, hereditaments, money, goods, and chattels, and all kinds of estate which may be devised, bequeathed, or given to them, and the same to sell, alien, demise and convey; also to make a common seal, and the same to alter and renew at their pleasure; and also to make such rules, by-laws, and ordinances, as may be needful for the government of the said Corporation, and not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States and of this State: Provided always, that the clear yearly value of the real and personal estate held by the said Corporation, shall not at any time exceed the sum of two thousand dollars.*

The Trustees above named shall hold their offices one year from the date of their incorporation, and until their successors are duly qualified to take their places, who shall be chosen by the aforesaid Board of Domestic Missions at such times, and in such way and manner, as shall be prescribed by the said General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, provided not more than one-third of the Trustees shall be removed in any one year.

The Trustees hereby incorporated, and their successors, shall, subject to the direction of the said Board of Domestic Missions, have full power to manage the funds and property committed to their care, in such manner as shall be most advantageous, not being contrary to law.

ASHBEL GREEN,
President of the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

WILLIAM A. McDOWELL,
Corresponding Secretary and General Agent of the Board of Domestic Missions.

* By an Act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania in 1857, the word "Domestic" having been inserted in the corporate title of the Board of Trustees, we have inserted the word in the above copy of the original Charter.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

MAY, 1857.

The Committee to whom was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, recommended to the Assembly the following resolutions, which were adopted:

1. Resolved, The Assembly would humbly and gratefully render thanks to Almighty God and our Saviour, for the large measure of health granted to our missionaries during the past year, and for the degree of success with which he has been pleased to crown their labours.

2. Resolved, While it is encouraging to find that the number of contributing churches to the Board is increasing slowly from year to year, yet the Assembly mourn over the fact that the number of non-contributing churches continues so large.

3. Resolved, The Assembly recommends to Presbyteries to adopt such measures as they may deem necessary to bring every minister and church session to the faithful performance of this duty in such manner as they may deem best.

4. Resolved, That the Assembly recommend to the Board great prudence in the application of the funds of the Church, and request the Presbyteries to do all in their power to relieve the Board, as fast and as far as possible, of appropriations to feeble churches and missionary fields.

5. Resolved, That the Assembly approves the action of the Board in effecting a change in the legal form of the title of the Board, from the Board of Missions to the Board of Domestic Missions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.
